Interesting Notes Gathered During The Week and Stated Briefly For Examiner Readers

Hay bands are scarce. Judge Tomningson came in from the sheep camp last Thursday. The man who says he never is mistaken should be closely watched. The Examiner continues to turn out the finest job work north of Sacramento. Everything in the harness and saddlery line at Cheney's at moderate prices. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hartin went to Summer Lake last Thursday to visit at the Foster home. Be careful how you use the water for irrigating for fear that when most needed it may be the scower. The "W. O. W." a fine cigar that all West Coast smokers use is now on sale at the Monogram. Missford is taking measures to start an academy and business college, with Prof. W. T. Van Sney at the head. Fred Tallent, who shot and killed a Chinaman at Cherry Creek, Siskiyou county, two weeks ago, was committed to jail without bonds. Cheney, the harness maker and trimmer, is making a reputation as a carriage trimmer. First-class work is Cheney's motto. Mrs. Brandon & Birch, expert opticians, left for Paisley last week. The Examiner can cheerfully recommend the gentlemen to the people of the north. W. J. Fitzpatrick of Redding and Miss Nellie Holcomb of Round Mountain, Shasta county, Cal., were married two weeks ago, at Susanville, Lassen county. When the barkeeper sets out Jesse Moore "AA," he gives the customer the best in the house. In wood or in glass at Jammers' is the motto. Henry Loftus is hauling in some fine lime from his kiln north of town. It is said that this lime equals, if it does not surpass, the famous Santa Cruz article. The good work of the Oregon Book Commission to the parents of the young will be saved 10 to 20 per cent. a price in the purchase of books in the future. Nearly everybody has read Tom Paine. The Tom Paine cigar is as good as the book. A long, sweet smoke. Call for it at Ayres & Schwab's Brewery Saloon. Bicycles are taking quite a run this year, even in Paisley about half of the young people have wheels.—Paisley Post. Evidently the editors up there have 'em, also. Jack Simmons and Jim Welch, employees of the Innes-Kelsay stock farm, came down from Paisley Thursday and returned Friday with a hay buck to be tried on that farm. Post & King have the sweetest resort outside of Oregon's big city. It is a popular place because nothing is handled there in the liquor and cigar line but standard brands. Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Gunther and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGerrey left last Sunday for a ten days' outing on Deep Creek. An exaggerated report of bear and fish expeditions may be looked for upon their return. A man supposed to be W. H. Willoughby was arrested at Coquille City, Friday at the request of several parties in Medford whom he victimized a year ago last winter in the way of forging their names to checks for small amounts. L. B. Whorton has opened a fruit and vegetable emporium in the Huff meat market building. He will carry fruit, vegetables and berries in season. Send orders for your day's vegetables and fruit to Whorton's and the orders will be filled promptly and delivered at your home.

The Eugene creamery paid out over $2000 among 180 patrons, for cream, during the month of June. Over 1200 pounds of butter was churned during the same month. George Hudspeth, of the firm of Hudspeth & Cloud, soda manufacturers, left for Alturas last Thursday with a big load of bottled soft drinks, made to order. He returned Monday. Drink nothing but Jesse Moore whisky and you'll always be happy. On sale at Whorton & Smith's. Down in Shasta county some people just for a joke voted for the wife of one of the school trustees, but there being a slim vote she was elected, and now the school in that district is a family matter. Miss Rose Venator arrived from Portland last Thursday, and is now at her mother's home in Grass Lake valley. Miss Venator has been in Portland for several months under medical treatment and returns much improved in health. Trials and combinations do not affect Jesse Moore whisky. Its fame is established, its quality is the finest and it is always the best. A. F. Hunt, of the Ashland Meat Co., who left on today's excursion, will charter a boat at San Francisco and proceed to Port Orford where he will load it with 1100 sheep which he will ship to the metropolis. The sheep were bought several weeks ago, says the Tidings. The Younger brothers, Cole and James, who have been in prison for twenty-five years in St. Paul, Minnesota, for complicity in the robbery and murder which was committed when the Northfield bank was raided, have been released from prison on parole. Everybody who smokes has heard of the famous La Rosa cigar. It needs no recommendation other than the smoking. When you drop into Cobb's Henkle's Alhambra call for a La Rosa and get happy. The San Francisco Weekly Post is now one of the best weeklies in the West. The well selected matter including short stories by good writers, and the excellent make-up of the Post makes it an interesting paper. We take subscriptions for the Post at this office. The Redding Free Press says: "Arnold A. Graham, the well known musician, his wife and three children came down from Copper City Sunday. Mrs. Graham and children left that evening for Sisson to spend the summer with Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Graham's mother." La Instructora is a new and pleasing thing to smoke. This cigar is made by the famous Trujillos, and is known as the perfect cigar, manufactured in Key West. Try one at Ahlstrom's Bros., sole agents. Will J. Sherlock was in town last week from his sheep camp at Sican, says the Post. Mr. Sherlock showed us some photographs of some fine Delaine bucks. He said before he put the Delaine breed of sheep in his hand they sheared 6 pounds to the sheep and now he gets 10 pounds, all due to this load of bucks. Mrs. Martha Lane, formerly of Silver Lake, and who still owns a fine place near the town, arrived at her old home last week from Rowland, Lane county, to look after her interests. Mrs. Lane will remain at Silver Lake for a few weeks visiting with old friends, of which she has many warm ones who are delighted at her return. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve should be promptly applied to cuts, burns and scalds. It soothes and quickly heals the injured part. There are worthless counterfeits, be sure to get DeWitt's. It was over in a neighboring county that an editor printed an item which stated that "The man who was hugging the hired girl had better stop or his name will be published." In a few days about twenty-five citizens had paid up their subscriptions and told the editor to "pay no attention to foolish stories going around."

Smokers will never know the comfort of a low cigar until they try the El Comandante. This is a fragrant weed that lulls men to sleep and gives them pleasant dreams. On sale only at Post & King's, Lakeview. 28-2m

The Post says that the Jones and Innes rodents wound up at Little Chewaucan. Most of the best cattle of this range are being gathered and put into fresh pastures. The beef are in better condition now than for several years. By the time the feed in the meadows begins to dry up and buyers come the beef will be in better fix than ever before.

F. M. Christman with his family have returned from Ft. Klamath, where they went to spend the Fourth of July. They report having had an enjoyable trip throughout, and Mr. Christman writes Dr. Witham that if he wants an ointment to take his family and go there. He thought the Dr. would be able to talk "Indian" by staying there a day or two.—Post.

The Robert Mantell is a large and fragrant cigar. Once used you will call for no other, because it is a pleasant smoke and every one in the box is good. Fine tobacco. For sale only by Whorton & Smith, in Lakeview. 28-2m

"Economic Aspects of Reciprocity," comprising two lectures delivered by John P. Young, before the College of Commerce of the University of California, has just been issued in document form by The American Protective Tariff League. Two copies sent to any address for three cents. Ask for document No. 49. Address, American Protective Tariff League, 135 West 2nd Street, New York.

A bride and groom stopped at a hotel in Red Bluff one night recently and the groom left the bride in their room and went to the office. When he returned and knocked at the door and said "honey" no answer came. Again he rapped and said "honey." Then came the reply, "Go away you idiot. This isn't a beehive, it's a bath room." He had knocked at the wrong door.

It is easier to keep well than get entred. DeWitt's Little Early Risers taken now and then, will always keep your bowels in perfect order. They never gripe but promote an easy gentle action. Lakeview Drug Co. 26-5

Mrs. Carrol Cecil has a rosebush in her yard that evidently has some habit, or power, akin to that of the chameleon. Mrs. Cecil does not regard the bush, however, with any degree of superstition. She is rather inclined to think it is a grafted product and quite a cute little rose tree because it has twice bloomed this season, putting forth at first a crop of yellow roses which it is now supplementing with blooms and buds of a pretty, delicate pink.—Burns News.

The Same Old Story.
J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dyspepsia and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelley is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Beall's Drug Store. 26-5
