Why Stockmen Are Growing Rich.

Those who say that the present high price of beef is a boom proposition may read the following from the Beeders' Gazette: Why is beef at its present high price? Who do men bid freely for beef breeds? Why are the dairy breeds feeling the awakening? In 1900 we had in this country 10,000,000 less cattle we had 826 head of cattle for every 1,000 tain Riley and three others. of population. In 1900 this ratio had fallen to 585 cattle for every 1000 people. During the eight years intervening between the years named we lost on a average over 1,000,000 of cattle per year. of vases, furs, rare coins, stamps, jewel-To maintain even our present ratio of ery, and everything of conceivable intercattle to population we must show an increase of about 1,000,000 cattle annually, and when these figures are added togetner some understanding of the present situation should be easy of grasp by the most misinformed mind.

Better Demand For Wool.

A Roston dispatch of the 16th last. says that there ha been a better demand for wool there this week and values are firmer. The demand has not been so much for some special buyers as it has been general. The market for territory wools has shown a good demand. Fine medium and fine scoured staple is quoted at 43 and 44 while the strictly staple ranges up to 46@47. Fleece wools are quiet, with prices on many grades nominal.
