LAKEVIEW, OREGON, AUG. 8, 1901.

The United States claims that its soldiers are better than those of any other country.

Visitors to Athens will soon inspect the ancient wonders of the town from trolley cars built in New Jersey.

Uncle Sam simply desires China to behave in a civilized manner. He wants no Chinese territory, and infinitely prefers good conduct to a money indemnity.

One writer on the world's population estimates that it will exceed 5,000,000,000 in the year 2250. So many things may happen to modify the figures that it is scarcely worth while to engage in the conjecture.

If the drought continues the standard of measure for potatoes promises to be changed from bushels to so much "par later."—St. Louis Republic. Now that they have had a little shower back there no doubt they all felt so good as to all join in a "Missouri treat." This would have a tendency to raise the standard measure to so much "bar drink."

The weather or something is causing numerous strikes, and even the industrious hen gets on a strike occasionally and refuses to furnish eggs with any degree of regularity for home consumption. But the first thing that ever went on a strike is the tireless clock, that continues to strike with unceasing regularity, and there is no kick coming as it does not belong to a union.

The Schley controversy that has been smouldering since the sea fight at Santiago, July 1898, is breaking out with renewed vigor. The admiral has asked for a court of inquiry to hear testimony and decide touching his conduct from the time he took command of the flying squadron to the destruction of Cavera's fleet and has made the very best comment on the matter when he said: "It is a very great pity that there should be any controversy over matters where everybody did his best."

The work of the Oregon Text-book Commission has been completed, as the contracts are now signed with the State Board of Education and now it devolves upon the book publishers having the contracts to place their books in the several depositories designated by the state law, creating the Text-book Commission and providing for the depositories to be established in every county in the state. The books must be deposited by the publishers and kept on sale at the contract prices, and the old books heretofore in use in this state may be exchanged for the new ones selected by the Commission to take their place. The depositories in Lake county are at Lakeview and Paisley.

What a fuss the alta-California papers are making over their large circulation. We notice that a Marysville paper says that the circulation of the Democrat is larger than any other newspaper published in California north of Sacramento. The Redding Searchlight takes it up and says it is willing to bet the Democrat $100 that it is publishing a lie when it daily makes the claim of having the largest circulation of "any paper in California north of Sacramento," and goes on to say that there are at least two newspapers in California north of Sacramento having each a circulation larger than that of the Marysville Democrat. One is the Grass Valley Union and the other The Searchlight of Redding. The Grass Valley Union claims a circulation larger than that of The Searchlight and Marysville Democrat combined, and The Searchlight has a daily circulation a fourth larger than that which the Marysville paper professes to enjoy. The Searchlight claims to print thirty-eight quires of paper. At twenty-four sheets to the quire the number of papers printed is 912, or nearly 200 more than what the Democrat claims. The Examiner is not in California, neither does it brag on its circulation, but it feels ashamed for these papers published in towns with populations six to ten times that of Lakeview and in counties twenty times that of Lake, and for the paper that claims the largest circulation, to profess to print only 38 quires of paper. The last census gave Lakeview a population of only 700, and Lake county only about four times that; still The Examiner can beat any of the above claims, and can prove that it prints more quires every issue than the California papers mentioned.

Oregon Trust Funds.

The Treasury Department has given out a statement, showing the condition of the trust funds at the close of business on June 30th. The Common School Fund notes aggregated $2,210,400.57, loaned out in the several counties of the state. This is an increase of $119,777.25 since January 1st, last, when the school funds notes aggregated $2,090,623.32. The Agricultural college notes, which aggregated $121,831.32 on January 1st, now foot up the handsome total of $131,556.37; while the University Fund notes $82,925 six months ago, now $83,997.32.

The Common School Fund Notes are distributed in the Southern Oregon counties in the following amounts:

Jackson	61,939.45
Josephine	39,336.95
Klamath	38,836.78
Lake	11,700.50

A Splendid Work.

"Sixty Centuries of Human Progress" is a continued and complete story of the world, in 296 sections, each section a historical essay and a unit in itself, but, as whole, constitutes a complete history of the world. These essays are arranged in chronological order and indexed both alphabetically and analytically, making the complete work not only a delightful story of human progress, but an encyclopedia of historical facts. It is embellished with 1239 spirited illustrations, made to illustrate and carefully selected from the great art galleries of the world. It has 106 historical maps. In fact it is the best mapped proposition on the American market. A perusal of the pictured pages of this great literary production is almost equal to an actual journey to all parts of the world. The work is faultless in style, in subject matter comprehensive, in the narration of events accurate, and in description most charming. The paper is perfectly smooth and soft, but not unduly heavy in volume form. The type was specially chosen with reference to the paper on which it is printed, and presents a good, clear reading surface, restful to the eye and artistically paged with ample margins.

Another Oil Company.

Ashland's oil fields are to be further exploited, and at once. The Messrs. Gargenhime & Mack, who have acquired so much property south of this city, in the Siskiyou mountains and its foothills, incorporated, the past week, under the name of the Ashland Oil Company, and are about ready to begin operations drilling on some of their lands. The property of these gentlemen has been thoroughly experted by reliable engineers, and they themselves have had large experience in drilling for wells in the Kern river, California, locality. The indications of petroleum on the lands purchased by Messrs. Gargenhime & Mack are as good as those presented in the famed McKittrick district in which they have operated heretofore, and they have great faith in the Ashland oil district as a producer of rock oil.

The Ashland Oil Company has been incorporated under the laws of the state of California, with a capital stock of $100,000, the amount being subscribed by the incorporators, and no stock offered for sale. Its principal place of business is located at 107 and 108 Crocker Building, San Francisco.

A veritable "quick luncheon," it is said, is to be had at a restaurant in Paris, where a dinner of seven courses, composed of concentrated food in the form of tablets can be consumed in a few minutes. The entire meal, indeed, can be carried about in the vest pocket or pocketbook.
