A Young Lady's Life Saved.

At Panama, Columbia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician, of Panama, Columbia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as soon as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at end of one week was entirely well." Eastern Oregon.

of success from the start inspired by the universal success that surrounds one here. Give one confidence in success for every cent of money expended and contentment is sure to follow. But there are other attractions here. The scenery of Eastern Oregon is independent of any other section and unlike any in any other part of the state. In nearly every country numerous hot springs, with a temperature sufficient to boil an egg in a few minutes, gush from the earth. Tall rock pillars are to be found at many points extending high toward the heavens, as straight and uniform as if chiseled by human hands. Wild game, bear, deer, antelope and smaller species roam the plains and foothills and mountains, and fish are abundant in the streams. The wild life and daring riding of the buccaroos also have interesting features. Telephones connect this section with the outside world, and the punctual mail service brings the daily papers to the most remote points ere they are three days old. There are also many historic points to visit, where noted battles were fought with the Indians and where forts and camps were occupied by the soldiers.

These are, of course, aside from the industries of the country, but go to make up its features. Most of the population is made up from men who formerly settled in Western Oregon, and while they still love their old "Webfoot" home, they will tell you that they would not give the exhilarating life on the dry "desert" for the easy life in "wet" old Webfoot.

And they will tell you another thing—that, while Eastern Oregon is now known as a stock country almost exclusively, in very few years she will rival her Webfoot sister as a producer of nearly everything that grows on the farm, and still raise stock and wool on a large scale.

Astounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettville, S. C. was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was nearly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. A Big Job.

There are 10 or 12 miles of barbed wire around the Government land claimed by Jessie D. Carr, about five feet in width and four feet in height, and the United States Marshall or United States troops, or who ever may be sent to tear it down is likely to have and all Summer job on hand, says the Oregonian, especially as Mr. Hall says the rock fence is to be destroyed as was the Tower of Babel, or the Temple of Babylon, or perhaps it was the Temple of Jerusalem (Mr. Hall is not well posted in biblical matters), of which not one stone was left upon another. The miles of barbed wire fencing will be rolled up like a scroll, but the rim rock cliffs which form a part of the fence will not be molested. Mr. Carr, however, is still in possession of the lands, with the exception of a calf pasture of some 5000 acres, and the end of the trouble is not yet.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwaller, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Beall's Drug Store. 30-5
