The Thruston thrasher is at work in the grain fields of Goose Lake this week. Acorn stoves are all right. Mr. and Mrs. A. Devine spent Tuesday at the trout stream near the Cottonwood dam. If many more camping parties leave Lakeview the town will soon be depopulated. The big hay ranches of Lake county are still at work with large crews in the fields. Acorn stoves are guaranteed. 32 J. Q. Willits is clerking at Bailey & Massingill's during the absence of Frank Evans. Mrs. Will R. Heryford has gone to Davis Creek to visit with her mother, Mrs. Broil. J. M. Thompson, the sheepman, was here from Alturas this week, looking after his interests. Get an Acorn stove if you want to please your wife. 32 Frank Smith, the barber, has the best up-to-date bath room in Lake county. One door south of Bank. 29-41 Mrs. E. E. Rinehart is in from Crooked Creek to spend the week, and is a guest at Hotel Lakeview. Garry Follet went to the Cottonwood sawmill this week and built a new water power wheel for Russill. A large assortment of Acorn stoves and ranges at Bernard & Son's. 32 J. W. Howard and family have returned from Bull Prairie where they spent a week rusticking. Larry Hall of Cedarville arrived this week to work in the Hawkins & Rinehart mill at Crooked Creek. Miss De'inas arrived from Cedarville yesterday and is attending the Lake County teachers' examination. Cheney, the harness and saddle man has a big lot of goods on the road. Call around next week and see him. 32 Gunther Bros. have given up the lease on the opera house. M. J. Barry now has full charge of that property. Born—At Pleasant, Shasta county, Cal., Aug. 1, 1901, to the wife of G. H. Ahlridge, of Summer Lake, Oregon, a son. The Mod. e fair, scheduled for September 16th to 21st, promises to be a big success. Some fine horses will be there. Better goods for the same prices or better prices for the same goods prevail at Ahlstrom Bros. 32 Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Snyder and Mrs. John Arzner and children returned Tuesday from an outing on Chewaucan. It is thought that the old Comstock lode may again turn out a great producer and that Virginia City may boom again. G. Grimes left for Medford this week. Mrs. Grimes has been visiting there for some time, and will return with her husband. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Woodcock will take an outing on Deep Creek, near Wild Rose camp, next week. On the 4th inst. an excursion train was run on the N. C. O. line from Reno to Andee. Five coaches were filled by the excursionists. Rev. S. B. Chastain, who has been stationed at Klamath Falls for the past year came over Tuesday, and left today with his wife for home. This is the season of year when a news gatherer is almost tempted to commit crime in order to create a sensation and get some local news. Now is the time to have your measure taken for a fine suit. Ahlstrom Bros. samples have just arrived. They have samples from two of the largest houses in America. The samples speak for themselves. 32 Dr. Alice Magilton left for Merrill, Klamath county, last Saturday. She will remain there until October when she returns to college for the last course in dentistry. John H. Campbell, representing Paul Friedman, liquors, and John Kenefick, another well known "Knight of the grip," were in Lakeview several days last week. Mr. Kenefick also visited Paisley.

A number of detectives are said to be at Lookout, working on the lynching cases. There is a prospect of a large reward for the slayers. Dr. T. V. Hall has gone to Medford and other points to visit relatives and friends. His sister Miss Pearl Hall will return home with him. J. Q. Willits and family returned from the Camas camp last Thursday, owing to the illness of their daughter Docia. They returned to the camp Monday afternoon. There is going to be a wedding in Lakeview before the summer days are over. Two popular young people are to join hands and hearts for the trip through life. J. Q. Willits will remove his family to Silver Lake in October. The Professor has been elected principal of the Silver Lake school and will enter upon his duties on October 20th. C. J. Hadley, Ole Olsen and Oscar Wilde, who have been engaged in Warner Valley for some time, passed through Lakeview Monday on their way to their homes in Grants Pass. Misses Ettie and Nettie Vinyard, the teachers, have gone to Los Angeles to visit relatives and friends until the fall school opens, when they will again have charge of the Lake City school. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gunther, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGarrey and Jas. Turpin arrived from Wild Rose camp on Deep Creek last Friday night. The party had an enjoyable outing for three weeks. Lakeview would make a poor showing now against a fire should such a misfortune befall the town. The water supply is insufficient for any purpose. Strict vigilance should be kept to guard against a conflagration. Miss Nora Carr, daughter of Mrs. Richard Sherlock, arrived from Paisley Tuesday evening and left Wednesday morning, en route to San Francisco, where she will enter Heald's Business College for a commercial course. The Susanville Advocate is informed that Douglas Cone of Red Bluff visited Harvey valley, Lassen county, a few weeks ago, and drove out about 5000 mutton sheep, which he sold at $3.50 for old ewes, and $1.50 for young wethers. The New Era says that W. T. Mitchell, the creamery man, has gone with his family to San Francisco, where they will reside in the future. We presume that for the present the creamery proposition for Lakeview has been abandoned. Elmer Ahlstrom is acting in the capacity of County Clerk during Wm. Gunther's absence at Cedarville. Elmer says he is willing to treat the boys fairly in the issuance of marriage licenses and has cut the price to a dollar and a half. Wm. Harvey, President of the Lake County Telegraph & Telephone Company, spent several days in Lakeview last week on business. Mrs. Harvey and children are at the Summer Lake farm and will remain there for several weeks. Robt. McKee and family and Mrs. Dick Wilcox and the Misses Anna and Gertrude Schlager went to Bulls Prairie Sunday for an outing, returning Monday evening. Bulls Prairie is a delightful place to camp but the road leading to it is very rough. N. A. Springer and Miss Alva G. Johnson were married at Aberdeen, Wash., July 25th, 1901. The bride is a charming schoolma'am who recently taught at Crooked Creek, in this county. She has many friends here who wish her much happiness. Medford Mail:—The Lakeview Examiner is publishing the delinquents tax list, the first list that has been published for a great many years, and the total amount of delinquent taxes is less than $150. That's a cracking good showing—one to be proud of. Over five miles of grading on the N. C. O. extension have been completed and it is thought the work will be concluded for this year at the Bayley place, at the edge of Madeline plains by November. Rails are to be laid on the grade finished at an early date, it is said. Hon. R. A. Emmitt of Keno was a Klamath Falls visitor Tuesday. He reports that he spent several days at Pokegama last week and from what he saw and heard feels absolutely sure that work will commence within a few weeks on the railroad which is to tap this country.—Republican.

W. O. W. PIC-NIC

Jolly Time Had in the Canyon Shades.

Last Saturday Lakeview Camp No. 526, Woodmen of the World, held its first picnic in a beautiful grove in Bullard canyon, where the spring of the Lakeview Water Company gushes out of the rocks, furnishing a pure cold beverage of Nature's own giving. The season was inappropriate for a large gathering as so many townspeople are away on summer outings, and plying their vocations in the fields. Nevertheless about fifty people congregated at the picnic grounds to enjoy the day in the cool shades and to take part in the sports. The program of the day was opened with singing of W. O. W. songs and when the singing was over the noon hour had approached, and all sat down to an elaborate luncheon which was thoroughly enjoyed. After feasting the sports were announced. The first on this program was a sack race for boys. The first prize 50 cents, won by George Ross; 2d prize 50-cent box candy, won by Chester King. Second was a race for girls. First prize 50 cents, won by Eddie Heryford; second prize 50-cent box candy, won by Lydia Wilson. The next was a foot race for women. The first prize of $3 was won by Mrs. H. R. Dunlap; second prize $2 won by Mrs. F. D. Smith. Following this was a wood sawing contest through a 20-inch log which furnished plenty of amusement for the on-lookers. The contesting teams were Mose Striplin and Loren Bailey, Frank Wilson and J. Shellhammer. The prize was 100 pounds of flour and was won by Striplin and Bailey in 1:25. Wilson and Shellhammer finished their log in 1:15, losing by 10 seconds. Next on the program was an egg race for women, prize a dress pattern, won by Mrs. M. Striplin; second prize 50 cents won by Mrs. F. D. Smith. The next event was a tug of war contest in which the following men took a hand: Captain, J. Shellhammer, J. R. Wilson, Dan Chandler, Jas. Judge and M. Striplin—combined weight 795 pounds. Captain, F. Wilson, G. L. Holbrook, Jas. Williams, W. A. Wilbrey and Loren Bailey—combined weight 875 lbs. The prize, a box of Woodmen cigars, was won by Captain Shellhammer's team, after a hard tussle. Then followed a race for boys, the first prize, 50 cents, was won by Geo. Ross; second prize, 50-cent box candy, won by Jimmie Judge. Then came the tug of war for women for a $2 cash prize. The following teams entered: Captain, Mrs. J. Shellhammer, Mrs. M. Striplin, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Smith—combined weight 555 lbs. Captain, Mrs. Walter Paxton, Mrs. Dunlap, Miss Morris, Miss Striplin—combined weight 507 lbs. This feature of the program was particularly amusing and was heartily enjoyed by both contestants and spectators. The prize was won by the team managed by Captain Shellhammer. The day was thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated in the picnic, and after sundown all returned to town. In the evening the Woodmen held a meeting and initiated six new members. After the degrees were conferred fifty neighbors and friends enjoyed a banquet at Masonic Hall. The Lakeview Woodmen Camp is a popular organization and is gaining in membership rapidly. Nearly 200 names are now enrolled as beneficiary members on the camp's log book. Taylor, the "Bum." The following from the New Era relates to the "bum" who dropped into Lakeview about two months ago and set himself up as a house-cleaner and general workman. Taylor is one of that class who is dying to get work while praying to the Lord that it won't come his way. He also left some unpaid bills here. The Era says: "W. Taylor, who came down from Lakeview several days ago and established himself here as a house-cleaner and chimney sweep, left here suddenly last Sunday for Adin, leaving behind him several unpaid bills as souvenirs. As it was reported that he had treated the people of Lakeview in a similar manner, it was decided to give him a practical lesson in honesty, so a complaint was sworn out against him, and deputy Sheriff H. A. Flemming followed him to Adin and placed him under arrest. Soon after being arrested the prisoner gave Mr. Flemming the slip, and a lively foot-race for liberty ensued, but the fugitive was again captured, brought to Alturas, and placed in jail. On Wednesday he plead guilty, and was sentenced to five days in jail."
