M. R. Hart is in receipt of a letter from Ed. Armstrong, the brick mason and contractor. Ed is now located at Tacoma.

That new line of dishes at Schminck & Son's is far ahead of anything they have had yet. See them before assortment is broken. 31-2t

The strike has not effected Boston in the least and there will be no trouble in harvesting the mammoth bean crop as usual.

Max Hoffman of San Francisco and John A. Moynihan of Sacramento, two "knights of the grip," were here several days last week.

The Hight Ranch consisting of 280 acres, with established water right, located on Cottonwood Creek, is now offered for sale. C. Umbach about it. 10-tf

Sharkey and Jeffries will meet before the San Francisco Athletic Club next month—provided Sharkey don't find an excuse to back out.

Lute Moss was over from the mountain range on Crane Creek last week. Lute helped to christen "Wild Rose" camp on Deep creek.

Nearly everybody has read Tom Paine. The Tom Paine cigar is as good as the book. A long, sweet smoke. Call for it at Ayres & Schlagel's Brewery Saloon. 28-2m

Wallowa county sheepmen are protesting vigorously against the presence of Umatilla county sheep on the ranges of the former district.

The Eugene creamery turned out over five and a half tons of butter in July. As a result over $2000 were divided up among the people of that town.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a world wide reputation for its cures. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Beall's Drug Store. 30-5

When a man raises his hat to a lady and discovers that she is a stranger, it requires considerable self-possession and skill to make believe he is only smoothing down his hair.

A. D. Edgar, a well known stage and mail contractor in California and Oregon, died at Nome, Alaska June 10th. Mr. Edgar was well known in Eastern Oregon.

Frank W. Fosket, the woolgrower of Warner, spent a few days in Lakeview last week. Mr. Fosket and brother Sumner have their sheep at the head of Crane Creek.

The laws of health require that the bowels move once each day and one of the penalties for violating this law is piles. Keep your bowels regular by taking a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when necessary and you will never have that severe punishment inflicted upon you. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Beall's Drug Store. 30-5

Last week at Shaniko the Prineville Land & Livestock Company sold their clip of 1901 wool to the highest bidder. They had an excellent product and received 14 cents per pound.

William Ferguson killed a big rattle snake on the Pelican Bay road, ten miles from Ashland. It measured seven feet one inch in length, sported 27 rattles and had absolutely nothing to recommend it.

There is one whiskey that always lives up to its reputation—and that is Jesse Moore. Get it at Jannerthal's. 33

"Eggs at nineteen cents a dozen strikes me with wonder," said a newly arrived Nebraska man to the Corvallis Times. When he left home two weeks before, eggs in his local town were worth but six cents a dozen.

Owing to the strike in San Francisco the river boats will not run to Redding for the next two months. Anyone from this northern country who has ordered freight to come by boat to Red Bluff should look after the shipping.

Say, Mr. — buy your wife a steel range and save all that hard work, and give her a chance to show you what she can do in the baking and cooking line. Schminck sells them reasonable. 31-2t

The grasshoppers are playing havoc in the eastern part of Shasta county, Cal. They have assumed the proportions of a destructive pest, stripping the orchards of both fruit and foliage and denuding the alfalfa fields of vegetation.

A Cottage Grove woman, who is something of a shot, went after a deer the other day, when she met a particularly large and lively cougar coming down the path. She ran south the cougar north, and there were no casualties.

James White, Bryantville, Ind., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve healed running sores on both legs. He had suffered 6 years. Doctors failed to help him. Get DeWitt's. Accept no imitations. Lakeview Drug Co. 30-5

A Mrs. McDonald, of Gold Hill, has gone to California in pursuit of her runaway adopted daughter, Rosa Taylor, aged 16 years. The young girl is said to have appropriated some of the belongings of Mrs. McDonald before her departure.

Dancing makes a girl's feet large, ice cream produces treckles, hanging on the front gate produces rheumatism, chewing gum destroys the mouth, playing on the piano destroys the beauty of the hands, washing dishes causes "chaps" to come—to propose.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Beall's Drug Store. 30-5

After a lapse of nearly half a century, J. A. Reis, A. S. Baldwin and M. H. Mead are to get back the money loaned to California for the purpose of carrying on an Indian war. Such is the effect of a decision of the Supreme Court on August 2d which ends litigation since 1856.

Jim Judge and Loren Bailey have completed their contract to paint the Baptist Church building and the work was well done. That place of worship is now much more pleasing to the eye. The members of the church, as well as all the business men of the town who contributed, are to be congratulated on the splendid appearance of the chapel.
