M'KINLEY SHOT

have promulgated the doctrines of anarchy which filled the brain of the assassin. They have urged him to use force against constituted authority. They have clamored in his ears that he was oppressed, enslaved, ground down by the Government. They have told him a thousand times in words and pictures that President McKinley was a puppet of the rich, a tool of the trusts, a servant of capital; that he was the foe of the common people. They have incited him to violence by the use of language, such as the following, which is quoted from the Examiner of August 8th:

"We can give them (Federal Judge Wing and the constituted authorities in general) an argument which, perhaps, will appeal to them and which contains no childish prattle about the Constitution, the Equality of men, or the rights of Ordinary citizens. We want to say to Judge Wing and to the men who direct him: If you forbid free speech, if you tell men that they must not use fair persuasion, you tell them at the same time that they must use force; and, by violating the law and the Constitution, you justify them in using force, and violating the law on their side."

Every bulletin issued from the apartments of the President by his chief physician are favorable for his ultimate recovery. In fact the messages claim that the danger line has been passed, and that the Nation's ruler will live. President McKinley is the third Chief Executive of the nation who has become a victim of the assassin's bullet.

Bulletin, Tuesday, Sept. 10 9.05 a. m.: The President's condition this morning is eminently satisfactory to his physicians. If no complications arise, a rapid convalescence may be expected. Pulse 104; temperature 100; respiration 26. Signed by all physicians.

We have many new customers each season coming to our establishment who tell us they always understood that we handled good quality of goods. Our reputation with our customers is not made by any particular line of goods we have, but by the general excellence of every article in our stock. We acknowledge we carry good quality of goods. This refers to our cheaper goods in just the same degree as to those of the very best quality.

In ordering our goods we give just as particular attention to the durability, the substantial make and the superior quality of the low priced goods as we do to the medium and better grades, but our assortment is mainly confined to the medium and better grades.

The strength of our lines is apparent when you look at our stock, and for Spring and Summer we venture to assert that there is not another stock of goods in the country that is equal to ours in its wonderful variety, in its great range of price, in its particular style of everything that we show.

We solicit the business of the people of Southeastern Oregon and can readily convince them that we are the best house to trade with in this entire region.
