

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Winkleman have returned from Burney mountain where Mr. Winkleman has been sick, but is now much improved. They are stopping with X. Arzner.

Lemon & Hartzog, of the Big Store at New Pine Creek are selling 22 yards of good calico for one dollar. Just watch their big shoe sale bargain counter. Read their new ad. in this issue.

R. A. Emmitt and family left last Thursday for Crook county. Mr. Emmitt has a surveying contract near Prineville and his family are with him for an outing.—Klamath Express.

Utopian paste in jars stick closer than a brother. For sale at the Monogram.

Walling of the city well was finished Monday, and the pump was replaced Tuesday. It is thought that there will be plenty of water from now on. The lights were turned on Friday night.

Prof. J. L. Smith and Ed. Lamb returned to Lakeview from Ashland Friday. Ed. has been to Portland with his eastern relatives and Prof. has been over to Medford for his company, the Equitable.

C. C. Loftus and wife returned to their Warner home Tuesday. They came over to bring their two children to school. They will remain this winter at their Uncle Frank Bower's place north of town.

Lakeview has been blest (?) with shows lately, and the public has patronized them liberally. Graham Bro's showed to a large house Friday night and Senator Hamden two nights, Saturday and Monday.

A new line of pocket knives have just made their appearance at The Monogram.

Last Saturday R. R. Tandy sold to S. J. Studley his Goose Lake ranch for $5,500. Mr. Tandy with this sale has disposed of all his Lake county property and will return to his Washington home at North Yakima.

A hook wagon belonging to E. C. Thruston's threshing machine was fitted up last week for the crew working on the telephone line. The poles were set as far as Warner canyon Saturday, and the work still moves on rapidly.

Johnny Myrtle returned from Eugene Tuesday. He met his wife there from Spokane and they came down to Ashland with the intention of buying a residence but found the market too high and did not purchase. His wife returned to Spokane.

J. W. Loftus accompanied by H. K. Huse of Snelling, Cal., and Geo. E. Faw of San Francisco, came over from Crane Lake Saturday. The two latter gentlemen are enjoying a few weeks outing in this vicinity and are well pleased with this country.

See Harry Howard, the prince of all comedians, in his Dutch, Irish and Black Face turns, with the O'Malley Sisters' Company Saturday, Sept. 21st.

The Adin Argus is reliably informed that a townsman addressed an epistle to the secretary of the Modoc County Agricultural Association, and when the secretary opened it up and adjusted his glasses he read, "Please don't forget to enter me for a jackass."

G. A. Follett will soon begin a large farm residence for Heryford Bro's, on their Drews Valley ranch, across the creek from the present one. The main house will be 40x40 feet square and two stories, with a one story kitchen 16x16. There will be 13 rooms in all.

Mrs. V. Conn and Misses Anna and Frances Jones, who came down from Paisley to attend the Eastern Star banquet last week, and remained here several days visiting friends, returned to their homes last Saturday, having enjoyed a pleasant visit in Lakeview.

J. N. Watson returned from Steins Mountain last Sunday, coming through Warner and over the new horse trail road. He says this is a terrible road and thinks the County Court did a wise thing in making an appropriation for this road. Mr. Watson purchased 2800 sheep for himself and C. E. Sherlock which will be driven to market late this fall.

G. A. Follett last Saturday sold to S. J. Studley his Lakeview residence property for $1200. Mr. Follett, who is a first class carpenter, is compelled by the poor health of himself and family, to seek a different climate, which is to be greatly regretted by many Lakeview friends of long acquaintance. The family will shortly remove to Ashland and Mr. Follett will remain for a few months to complete some contract work. They have not yet decided where they will locate. Mr. Studley and family will soon become residents of Lakeview.

Sheriff Dunlap went over to the Klamath Reservation last Thursday to look after his cattle, and will probably dispose of them before returning. W. R. Heryford is deputy sheriff in his absence.

B. B. Lyon of Willow Ranch was in town Monday. Mr. Lyon has a 3-inch artesian well down 68 feet and the pipe stands one foot above the ground. The water comes just to the top of the pipe but does not run over. He thinks he will get a good flow within 18 feet further.

Commissioner Hermann, of the United States Land Office, arrived at his Roseburg home on the 12th, direct from Washington, and will spend his annual vacation in that vicinity. Mr. Hermann has delivered the address of welcome at the commencement of the Roseburg street fair.

W. K. McCormack was taken quite sick while working on the new telephone line near Warner canyon, Tuesday. The line being completed that far Dr. F. E. Smith was phoned for and in the evening Prof. McCormack and Dr. Steiner went out after the patient who is resting easy at his brother's place.

The Baptist Association of Southern Oregon and California will meet Thursday at 10 a. m., October 3rd with the Crane Creek church at the new school house. The meeting will last three days. Everybody is invited to attend. The introductory sermon will be preached at 11 a. m. on the first day of the meeting.

The Klamath Falls High school opened Monday with 118 pupils enrolled and it is expected that this number will be increased to 150 in the next 30 days, says the Express. The teachers are Miss Alice A. Applegate, principal; Miss Elva Galloway, assistant principal; Miss Martha Cardwell, intermediate; Mrs. Emma V. Cogswell, primary.

The Pomological Society of America, now in session at Buffalo and the highest authority on fruits in America has awarded the Wilder medal to the State of Oregon for the horticultural exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition. This is the greatest honor that can be bestowed on American fruits, and the Oregon delegation is correspondingly elated.

An incident occurred in Alturas the other night which illustrates the means employed by fake gamblers to fleece their victims, says the Plaindealer. They had a table made here in town and then placed a battery in the top. The dice of course being "loaded" they had a "dead cinche," on their unsuspecting victims, several of whom parted with their coin. These gentry should be run out of town, and as we have a vagrant law its strict enforcement would rid the town of a very undesirable part of our population. The incident should prove a warning to young men of a sporting turn when they visit the Fair next week.

A very interesting program for the entertainment of Grand Master J. H. Nelson was given by the combined Odd Fellows lodges Wednesday night of last week in the I. O. O. F. hall. Songs, recitations, dancing and games was the order of the evening, which was passed very pleasantly and greatly enjoyed by the Grand Master. At the midnight hour the refreshment committee announced that a "feed" was ready in the Masonic banquet hall. These mid-night suppers are always good and this one was fine. Everything was done that was possible to entertain the Grand Master and he was not slow in realizing the fact, and greatly appreciated their efforts. Mr. Nelson left for Prineville Thursday.

State to Pay Scalp Warrants.

State Treasurer Moore has issued a call for all outstanding scalp bounty warrants indorsed prior to January 1, 1901. Stated in round numbers, the total amount of bounty warrants issued under the old law was $120,000. Upon these there is due about $12,000 interest, making a total of $132,000. The last Legislature levied a tax of one mill, which produced approximately $117,000, the last of which sum is now coming into the state treasury from the several counties. It will thus be seen that the amount of money raised on the scalp bounty tax will lack $15,000 or more of paying off the warrants. This amount will come before the next Legislature as a deficit.

Pine Creek P. O. Robbed.

A. E. Follett the postmaster of New Pine Creek, came up from that place Sunday and reported that some one had entered his store the night before and worked the combination on the safe, extracting therefrom $60 of Government money and $60 belonging to himself. A search was instituted immediately but up to this time no trace of the perpetrator has been heard of.

It is understood that the entire loss will have to be borne by Mr. Follett.

Petty robberies are becoming altogether too numerous these days and something should be done to put a stop to it.

AYRES, WHITWORTH & AYRES

Married.

As had been rumored for a few days past the marriage of Joe Ambrose to Miss Rose Silva took place Sunday at 2 o'clock in the presence of a number of invited guests, at their own home, now occupied by the parents of the bride. Judge Tonningson tied the nuptial knot in a manner befitting the occasion. Joe having answered the questions propounded by the Judge with a smile that beamed with a greater degree than usual, invited the guests to a dinner that has not been surpassed by a write up in The Examiner, low these many moons. The groaning of the table was quickly relieved as the choice viands were consumed with a relish. The happy couple while not so hungry for things to eat as their guests, as their thoughts wandered to love in a cottage and future happiness. They were the recipients of some very nice presents as follows:

- Mr. and Mrs. G. Sherman Easter..... Clock
- Mr. and Mrs. James Huff..... Berry dish
- Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Garrett..... Pickle dish
- Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Arthur..... Pickle dish
- Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kingsley..... Silver thimble
- Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silva, Butter dish.....
- and syrup pitcher
- Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Russell..... Table cloth.....
- and set of napkins
- Mrs. James Owen..... Full table set
- Andrew Hammersley..... Stand Lamp
- F. Silva Jr..... Fruit Set

The Great Carnival

Which opens at Portland on Sept 19th and continues until October 19th, 1901, will be well worth a visit to the metropolis.

Exhibits of agricultural and horticultural products, mining and manufacturing industries, athletic exercises, a horse show at which feats of horsemanship and the various forms of fancy riding will be seen, and a magnificent military tournament, participated in by picked companies from the Oregon National Guard, are a few of the attractions at the Carnival this year.

The Southern Pacific Co. will sell tickets at low rates for this occasion, and will also run a special excursion from Ashland to Portland and return, stopping at all intermediate stations, the dates and rates for which will be announced hereafter. 37-4
