

THE RECORD
"ROASTS" US

Lakeview is Accused of Unfair Methods in the Baseball Game.

Our winsome friend Stanley of the Cedarville Record, usually free from despicuous symptoms, and ever noted for his cleverness and love of fair play, gives the management of the Lakeview base-ball team a quiet little "roast" in the following unmistakable language:

The base-ball game at Alturas was a big drawing card to the Fair, and that it should result in the defeat of the Cedarville boys is not to be wondered at when the facts of the case are known. A few Lakeview men, ignoring geographical lines and social courtesy determined to beat the club that had beaten the Lakeview club on three different occasions, and not having the material on hand to do so, did what the loose rules of the fair directors permitted, and sent to San Francisco and elsewhere for six professional players, among which were some of the best in the State. That they felt that they were not acting strictly honorable in the matter is evident from the fact that they smuggled in one man whose reputation as a ball player was unexcelled on the coast, and kept him out of sight until the game. The Cedarville boys did themselves proud, however, and put up the best game that will be seen in Modoc for many a day. We all feel proud of them, even though they went down in defeat. The score on Tuesday was 3 to 4, and on Friday it stood 3 to 7 in favor of the professionals masquerading under the name of Lakeview base-ball club. Lakeview can claim no credit, honor or pride in the victory. Only two Lakeview men participated in the last game, and while the imported club got away with the "sack" they lost the sympathy and respect of most all present.

It will become the Record to charge us with lack of "social courtesy." During Fourth of July week in Lakeview the gallant Cedarville lads came here and trampled our home team in the dust, winning all the laurels and plaudits of the diamond, and notwithstanding the humiliation the local team as well as the people of Lakeview treated the visitors as royally as they knew how. Again, only a few weeks ago, Cedarville announced that a purse would be given for two or three teams to compete for, and desiring to assist in making the Cedarville tournament a success Lakeview sent four of its home team and picked up five stragglers on the road, to take part, with the full knowledge that we "hadn't a ghost of a show" to win against Cedarville's superb players. This was defeat No. 2, and our boys took their medicine cheerfully, while they revelled in the smiles of Cedarville's pretty girls and enjoyed Cedarville's hospitality. Now, when a fellow gets "licked" good and hard twice it is natural for him to be prepared for the enemy the third time he's jumped on, and that is what the manager of the Lakeview team did.

According to the conditions published by the management of the Alturas Fair, Lakeview went to the Modoc tournament with a team that we knew could win. We had the right under those conditions to sign players from any place. Four, instead of six, outside players were sent for and they became members of the Lakeview team as soon as they were signed. That Lakeview won the purse and the honors fairly according to the rules is a fact that cannot be disputed. Cedarville had the same privileges accorded us, and could easily have strengthened its team, but he thought that their lads were invincible kept them from doing so. The shoe pinches the Cedarville foot because the laurels of their heretofore victorious team have been at last trailed in the dust.

Lakeview acknowledges gracefully that Cedarville has one of the best home teams thus far known in the northern country, and its players were each and all gentlemanly fellows. One thing in connection we must add, and that is that had it not been for the excellent work of Soul and Fisher in Cedarville's battery and Hironymous at third, the score would have been a disgrace to the National game. By this we do not infer by any means that the other players did not do excellent work.

We believe the Record unintentionally perverts the fact when it claims that the Lakeview team "lost the sympathy and respect of most all present." Our team may have "lost the sympathy" of a large number of our friends across the mountains, but we believe it unjust to say that our boys "lost the respect" of most all present, for no more gentlemanly lot of players ever met on a diamond than the men who composed the Lakeview team. We did not enter the tournament to lose the respect of the people, or the "sack" either. Men who put up good ball care nothing about sympathy. The Examiner will willingly leave it to the judgment of unprejudiced people if both respect and money were not fairly won.

Lakeview is not out of the base-ball business yet this season, if we can get any callers. It is understood that a team composed of Lakeview players (none of those snappy chaps from below) can be found here who are willing to try to defeat Cedarville for as large a "sack" as our friends desire to put upon two conditions: First, that Soul, the imported thrower for Cedarville be not included in the team. And secondly, that it is to be understood that Cedarville will not feel badly in case of a second defeat. These two conditions are to be insisted upon, otherwise, Lakeview will not play ball.

In conclusion, friend Record, the Examiner takes it upon itself to extend the compliments of the people of Lakeview to all the people of Cedarville.

Now, see here, Stanley, give us your "flipper" in good fellowship, and don't get sore.

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

C. B. Parker and family were down from Summer Lake last Monday visiting friends. It is their intention to reside in Paisley this winter, we understand.

Den Malloy and J. W. Tucker started this week for Warner to receive the 2800 sheep they recently purchased from Hi Manning. Mr. Malloy will go with the band to the desert to "rough it" all winter.

Miss Grace Beach departed for her home in Ashland yesterday morning. She has been setting type on the Examiner during her five months stay in Lakeview, and returned to Ashland to take a case in the Tidings office.

Bieber's Dress patterns are selling rapidly. They are just the goods that sell this season.

It begins to look like the new school district spoken of in another column would be a go. Chas. Loveless has now on his petition 98 signers, which is a majority of the votes in the present district, the number required by law.

The band was reorganized last Friday night with Professor Dahn as leader and teacher. There is room for several more players, and everyone interested in having a band in Lakeview should come and help the boys along.

Ralph Foster, the "jolly lad" from Summer Lake, arrived Sunday and remained a day or two shaking hands with old friends. Ralph says he is either going to get married or commit something else desperate within a very short time.

The Lakeview Meat Market changed hands Tuesday. John Fitzgerald is the new proprietor and Ralph Day retires. Pete Grob has been engaged as carver and the way he will serve beefsteak will not be a guess, as he has served in that capacity before.

Your feet require E. Z. shoes. Bieber sells the kind that are comfortable from the first day you put them on until they are worn out.

W. K. Barry will erect a windmill on his place on the hill, known as the McDonough place, and a tank will be placed high enough so that water can be run with considerable force into his new hotel, and also furnish water for his livery stable.

The teachers all say that this was the best Institute ever held in Lake county. There was better attendance and the interest was more manifest. The public attended the sessions in great numbers, and the evening sessions at the opera house were crowded.

James Foster the Summer Lake pioneer came down to the county seat Sunday to have some dental work done. Monday Mr. Foster had 9 teeth extracted, and will have a new set made, thinking perhaps he had used the old ones long enough, he now being in his 74th year.

Geo. Sharp, owner of the race horse, Baleric, came up to Lakeview last week from Alturas, and intended to go on to Prineville to attend the races there, but found there was to be none at that place so returned to Alturas. Baleric won a number of races at the Modoc Fair and is considered a fine horse.

Judge Bayley returned home yesterday morning after a six weeks' outing that proved very pleasant, and beneficial to his health. During his absence the Judge visited Long Beach, Portland, Ashland and other points of interest. On his return from the railroad he spent nine days at Klamath Hot Springs, and enjoyed that resort very much. Judge Bayley certainly looks well after his vacation.

Last Tuesday John Odum delivered to Eve Lewis for J. M. Thompson 527 sheep at $3 per head and 945 lambs at $1.75. Mr. Odum is now out of the sheep business, but will probably buy again in the spring.
