

Chandler-Boydston.

A happy wedding was held at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Boydston, at Spring Creek, ten miles north of Lakeview, on the evening of October 10th. The parties to the contract were Mr. H. L. Chandler and Miss Leone L. Boydston. Judge Tonningsen was the officiating magistrate and joined the happy couple for life in his most pleasing manner. The groom is one of Lake county's respected citizens and prominent woolgrowers and the bride is a very estimable young lady with many friends who will wish her all the happiness and comforts of married life. After the ceremony and congratulations, all present sat down to one of the grandest wedding suppers ever prepared in the county. Judge Tonningsen is partial to yellow-legged chicken and other good things of life, and the Judge declares that he was highly entertained at the Boyds on home. Only a few friends of the bride were present to witness the ceremony. The Examiner joins with a host of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler in wishing them long life and everlasting happiness.

From Pipestone, Minnesota.

W. E. Wheeler, who was here last spring and bought the Brown Bros. place in Goose Lake valley, and then went back to his old home at Pipestone, Minn., to settle up his affairs, and move his family to Lake county, returned here Tuesday to make this his permanent home. His wife and six children accompanied him, and he shipped his horses, wagons and machinery by train from Pipestone to Ager, coming over the Southern Pacific route. From Ager he brought his family by team. They were ten days on the railroad and eight days from Ager. John Larkin and son, residents of Pipestone, accompanied Mr. Wheeler. Mr. Larkin will look over Goose Lake properties, and will doubtless purchase a ranch and home here. The people of Goose Lake valley, and The Examiner extend the hand of welcome to Mr. Wheeler and family and also to Mr. Larkin and his son. More good citizens is what this county needs.

Rebekahs Initiate Eight.

Last Friday night at a regular meeting of Lakeview Rebekah Lodge No. 22, a very interesting time was had. Eight candidates appeared for initiation in the person of Walter S. Tracy, Mrs. Walter S. Tracy, Mrs. W. A. Wilshire, Mrs. H. R. Dunlap, Mrs. S. B. Chandler, Miss Mae Snider, Miss Edna Heryford and Miss Rose Venator. After the candidates were duly initiated, and congratulated by the Rebekah members, all repaired to the banquet hall and enjoyed a grand feast prepared by the sisters. There were about sixty present at table and C. U. Snider was toastmaster. After the feast a social time was had in the lodge room until after midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldridge Return.

G. H. Aldridge and family, who went to Plateau, Shasta county, Cal., to spend the summer with the family of S. L. Porter, his brother-in-law, arrived here on their return trip to Summer Lake last Tuesday. Mr. Porter and family accompanied them as far as New Pine Creek, where they will stop for a few days visiting the family of Rev. Harvey Smith. After a short stay there the Porters will go to Summer Lake to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Aldridge. Mr. Aldridge says Plateau is a delightful place to spend the summer, and he and his family thoroughly enjoyed their visit.

Irrigation at Bly.

Irrigation in the Sprague river country has been largely extended this year. Messrs. Fitch, Smith, Walker and Garrett have finished a ditch six miles long, and James Boyd has completed two ditches for the exclusive use of his big ranch. The Klamath Republican says that Messrs. Leonard, Mitchell and Bloomingcamp still have a torque of men at work on their ditch, which, though only about four miles long, will carry a very large volume of water. Altogether it is seen that Sprague River citizens have made great headway this year in supplying means of irrigation.

New Pine Creek, on the Oregon and California line between Alturas and Lakeview, is said to be one of the busiest burgs in the north, and more building of residences have been done there than any other place, says the Cedarville Record. They have no saloons there and each lot is sold with the proviso that no saloon building is to be erected on it. A wise man has said, however, that where there are "no vices there is no virtue," and Pine Creek evens the matter up by having a perpetual game of checkers, which engage the attention of the fun loving residents during their spare hours.

If Sir Thomas Lipton is the man of sense he is credited with being, he probably finds the gush over him worse than the defeat of his yacht.

Lake County Stock News.

Louis Gerber is the moving spirit in the organization of a protective association for the stockmen of Klamath county. The association will be established upon about the same lines as those of the Southeastern Oregon Livestock Association of Lake county. The stockmen of Klamath are moving in the right direction, and everyone of them should render all assistance in their power to make the association a success and to keep it alive.

D. P. Browne, manager of the Warner Valley Stock Co., has sold to W. D. Duke, buyer for Miller & Lux, two thousand head of beef. The cattle are now on the way to the railroad at Gazelle, and are in four drives, the first drive in charge of Wm. Heryford, Jr., the second drive in charge of Herman Schadler, the third drive in charge of Louis Frakes and the fourth drive in charge of Charlie Wallace. Mr. Duke also bought all the beef of the Warner valley settlers.

James Redden, who for two years has been running a band of W. A. Sherlock's sheep on shares, has quit the business, and divided up the increase with Mr. Sherlock. He sold his share of the lambs numbering 600 to Mr. Sherlock at $2 per head. Mr. Redden has 125 head of cattle and will give his attention to that industry in the future.

Ches. B. Parker and Wm. Harvey have divided the increase of the Harvey band of sheep Parker has been running on shares for two seasons. Mr. Parker's share is 1600, and he will hold them.

Richard Sherlock came in from his sheep camp Monday for a few days. He says the outlook for sheep on the desert is better than for several years. The feed is fine.—Post.

Allen & Lafollet, breeders of blooded sheep near Prineville, have started 150 head of their thoroughbred rams to Paisley to be delivered to Will Sherlock.

Joe Fuller has returned from the range where he gathered about seventy head of his fine range horses. Mr. Fuller will sell the bunch.

Hemorrhage of the Brain.

Word was received here last Friday from Pasadena that H. B. Helfenstine, who left here a few months ago to recuperate in Southern California, has suffered a second hemorrhage of the brain, and that little hopes were held for his recovery. Some months ago while lifting a wagon wheel on his ranch near Lakeview, Mr. Helfenstine broke a blood vessel of the brain, and for a long time his life was despaired of. The second hemorrhage may prove fatal. The aged patient is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Turner, in Pasadena.

He enlisted in Co. 7, Volunteers of Ohio in 1861 and was discharged from the army in 1864. He came to Lake county eight years ago. He was a member of a G. A. R. Post in Portland. Ches Parker Makes Purchase.

C. B. Parker has purchased of Joe Hampton of Summer Lake his half interest in the Hampton Bros. stock ranch at the south end of the lake, says the Post. The purchase embodies 520 acres of land, 50 head of cattle, and half of the horses on the ranch. Mr. Parker paid $6,000 for the half. The Hampton Bros. were among the first settlers of the Summer Lake section, and have held this property for years. Joe Hampton will remove to New Pine Creek and Mr. Parker and family will move on to the ranch at once. He is considering the proposition of renting the other half of the ranch from Green Hampton, and buy the other half of the cattle.
