

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

J. A. Mulkey, who left here several months ago for his health, writes to Joe Fuller from St. Helena, Cal., that he is improving rapidly, but he does not like that country. Jack says it is two slow for him. He wants to come back home, and will, as soon as he improves a little more.

G. A. Follett has the contract to build for Heryford Brothers on the 70 ranch in Drews Valley a residence to cost $5,000. Work will begin next Monday. Besides Mr. Follett there will be employed on the building C. P. Linebarger, J. M. Handley, Ashley Follett and Ed. Branch.

D. H. Rice, a young man recently from Wisconsin, arrived from Ft. Klamath last Saturday on business before the local land officials. Mr. Rice also came with a view of locating here and establishing a laundry business, but owing to the poor condition of our water facilities gave up the project.

Green Linville was in from Lakeview this week with a load of Lake county fruit. Mr. Linville says that county had a prosperous summer, and feels that an important item in its future exists in the location of the waters in Summer, and Warner lakes for the extraction of their chemical properties.—Burns News.

Henry Koester, city trustee of Yreka, and a retired business man, shot himself through the brain with a pistol, with suicidal intent, at his home in Yreka on Oct. 8th. The deed was done while the man was suffering under temporary mental aberration. Koester at one time conducted the Miner's Hotel in Yreka.

Fred Spangenburg, the well known wagonmaker who was in business here for years before the big fire, has bought the business of John Arzner, with Arzner Brothers, blacksmiths, and is as busy as a bee. Arzner Bros., and Spangenburg are prepared to build any kind of a good wagon.

J. C. Dodson arrived from Burns last Monday evening with 49 head of horses he purchased there for George H. Bayley, who is furnishing the British government with a considerable number of its army horses. Mr. Dodson will drive to south Fork, via Surprise valley. Messrs Garrett and Parker assisted him in the drive from Burns.

D. H. Hartson, a gentleman who has gained much prominence as an attorney and counsellor in Jackson county, this state, is now visiting with J. W. Moore. Mr. Hartson has concluded to locate in Lakeview, and will remove his family here as soon as he can find a location. Thirty-two years ago Mr. Hartson read law with Judge Hauna and Attorney Fay.

The friends of Tom Handley have been anxious for several days about his disappearance from town. Some of his friends suggested that he might be running the electric light plant at night, while others stated that he had been seen on the road to Ft. Bidwell on special business, but word was received Tuesday that he was in Drews Valley building a big barn for Albert Dent.

Mrs. F. M. Miller and little son Hobart left for San Francisco last Monday to remain during the winter. While absent Mrs. Miller will visit friends in Sacramento, Lodi, San Jose, San Francisco and other California points, and may extend her trip to Buffalo. Mr. Miller and son Vinton will join Mrs. Miller in the city later on and will spend the holidays there.

Thomas J. Leininger, at one time proprietor of the Linkville hotel at Klamath Falls, died at Anderson, Cal., on the 8th inst. Deceased was living with his sister on a ranch near Anderson and died from an attack of pneumonia. He leaves a sorrowing wife. Tom Leininger was a man of most genial disposition and had many friends. Many Lakeview people will remember him well.

A few friends enjoyed a pleasant evening last Saturday at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Steiner, who gave a card party and served refreshments. Those present were Miss Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sharp, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Smith and the host and hostess. It was a card party, and the occasion was the wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Steiner, and the birthday of Mr. Sharp.

Messrs. Loftus & Dalrymple have divided the product of their lime mine for this season, and Mr. Dalrymple has disposed of 5,000 pounds to Cecil Morse of Alturas, at 13 cents per pound. Mr. Morse is building a fine stone structure in Alturas. Dalrymple will send the remaining 5,000 pounds belonging to him to Modoc, where it will doubtless find ready sale, as there are some big buildings going up in Alturas.

The ten head of registered Hereford bulls sold from the Drews Valley Stock Farm by F. O. Bunting to J. E. Mitchell-Innes, were driven into town yesterday morning. They are beauties, and no mistake.

Frank and George Reid arrived from Clover Flat last Saturday. The Reid boys and De Bryan went out to Little Chewaucan two weeks ago and in a very few days caught 1244 fine trout. The fish were pickled for winter use. Some of them weighed three pounds and they were all caught with fly hooks. The boys say they really got tired pulling the finny beauties out of the water.

Joe Fine and sister Maud, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Fine of Warner, and Miss Ella Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Jones, Sr., returned from Oakland, Cal. on the evening of the 10th. The young people left here only a few weeks ago to attend school in Oakland, but became dissatisfied and concluded to return. Mr. Fine and his sister went to Warner Friday morning.

W. D. Woodcock and Manley Whorton returned Thursday evening from Fish Creek, where they spent four days in the "buck brush." They brought back five fine deer, among the number one buck that weighed 200 pounds. The meat is to be cured, and Mr. Woodcock has built a smoke house to cure the hams and shoulders. They gave a generous supply of the venison to a number of their friends.

C. A. Bunting, the Klamath cattleman, was here several days during the past week. He recently sold 112 head of beef that averaged him $34 per head. Mr. Bunting is improving his big stock ranch between Bly and Royaton. He is fencing the place and building a neat residence, and—well, farther than that dependent sayeth not. It may be a case, "where Cupid yokes the doves." At any rate Charlie is prospering and has as fine a start as any young man in Southeastern Oregon.

W. M. Thorne, who is running sheep for S. B. Chandler, was in town a few days ago. He says the late rains were very beneficial to the range feed, as the grass is springing up as if by magic. He says the desert feed is the best now in years. Thorne left here last week to take charge of a bunch of the Chandler sheep at Rock creek. Robt. Bigelow, who is also running a bunch of the Chandler sheep, is said to be doing good work with his flock. Bob is all right at any kind of a proposition.
