Interesting Notes Gathered During The Week and Stated Briefly For Examiner Readers

Three dollars a hundred for flour? Whew!

Have some potatoes? No thanks; they are too expensive.

Go where you will, the best saloons sell Jesse Moore Whiskey.

J. W. Callahan, of Fresno, Cal., was a Lakeview visitor Saturday.

The man who has not yet procured his winter wood had better get a move on.

W. E. Fitzgerald, the bookkeeper for the Co-ops, in Alturas was a visitor here last Friday.

A woman in Pennsylvania has been deprived of speech, but it took a flash of lightning to do it.

The Williams Bros. of Llkely, Modoc county sold 100 head of beef last week to John Long of Susanville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harvey and children returned last week from Summer Lake to remain a short time.

If all the idle money in Lake County could be employed in local industries what a grand county we would have.

Your medicine chest is incomplete if it is not stocked with Jesse Moore "AA" Whiskey. Get it from Jammathal.

Thieves looted the Chicago postoffice last week and escaped with $74,610 in stamps. This is the biggest postage stamp robbery ever known.

George Durand, the veteran cattleman who has interests in the Silver Lake section, has returned to Yreka from the East after a lengthy absence.

You can't get a better hair cut in the city than the cut Frank D. Smith will give you at his tonsorial parlor. He also has a sure dandruff cure. 42-11

J. W. Brown, the sheepman, was spending a few days in Lakeview with his family during the past week. Mr. Brown does not leave the range very often.

Victor Nelson, the young Klamath Indian who was tried last week for robbing the postoffice at Klamath Agency, was sentenced by Judge Bellinger to two years in prison.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

Ike Robnett and family of Willow Ranch have gone to San Francisco to spend the winter. The children of the family will attend school either in the city or San Jose.

There's a peculiar political contest on in San Francisco, with the Call and Chronicle fighting "teeth and toe nail" for the democratic ticket and the Examiner sawing wood.

The rumor that Ex-Assessor Felix Duncan is married is erroneous. Mrs. Taylor of Montague has gone to the Duncan ranch at Lone Pine to keep house for father and son. That is all.

When you feel that life is hardly worth the candle take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, tone up your liver and regulate your bowels making you feel like a new man. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

Samar is now the scene of active native uprising. The larders in many bands are overrunning the country, and the peaceable natives are seeking protection in Samar and Manila. The naval forces in the Philippine waters are concentrated on coast patrol duty. The larders hold up the natives and make them pay tribute with threats of bolo vengeance. They are nothing more or less than bands of robbers and murderers, but are making considerable trouble.

Stock Inspector J. F. Clarkson was here last week and went to Abert lake. He intends to come back up here in a short time and will make an effort to have all the sheep clear of scab when they are taken to the winter range.—Paisley Post.

Prof. Triggs of the University of Chicago has broken loose again. This time he criticises the Constitution of the United States. He says it "was made upon a false basis." There is nothing left for Triggs to tackle save the universe and its basis.

In the sick-room or on your side-board Jesse Moore "AA" Whiskey is indispensable. Always on hand at Jammathal's.

Les. Kelsay met with a painful accident while on the beef drive to Reno. In Goose Lake valley he was kicked on the head by a vicious horse and it was thought for a while that he was seriously injured, but it proved to be only temporary.—Post.

Life on the desert with a flock of sheep is not all sunshine. It is said the "sagebrush ticks" are the bane of man's existence out there this season. Dan Maloy can probably tell his friends a story of life on the desert that will make their blood run cold.

The increased demand for crude oil as fuel should provoke some of our Lake county promoters and discoverers to go out and find the stuff. They say its here—the indications are at least. There is a great boom on in the East and oil has gone up 5 to 12 points.

Offers unexcelled facilities for learning the Celebrated Pernin Shorthand by mail. This method employs neither shading, position nor arbitrary contractions; is the simplest, most legible, and rapid shorthand in use, and the only method that can be successfully learned by mail. Send for free trial lesson and catalogue. Commercial Building, Washington, corner Second. 12-11

There is talk of establishing a woman's college of matrimony in Chelsea, England, where the duties of a wife will become the subject of a two years' course of study. The success of such an institution would be assured only upon the guarantee of a "situation" upon graduation.

Conductor Page of the McCloud, Siskiyou county railroad, shot and killed his brakeman, Newby, on the 24th ult. Coroner Fairchild of Yreka held an inquest and the jury exonerated Page. The brakeman attempted to settle an old grievance and attacked Page with a knife when the latter shot his assailant twice through the heart.

The Jesse D. Carr Land Company has been unsuccessful in defending its case in the United States Courts of California as well as in Oregon, and the fences on the California side of the illegally fenced 80,000 acres of public domain were ordered removed by the Federal court. The entire tract will soon be opened to the stockmen of California and Oregon. Jesse D. Carr, monopolist and cattle baron, has probably discovered for once in his life that he cannot run rough shod over the Federal courts—"not if the court knows himself, and he think he do."

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Lee Beall.
