

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

Dr. Steiner returned Sunday from a brief business visit to Portland and Salem. The Dr. says there are still several cases of smallpox at Bly and vicinity, notwithstanding the reports to the contrary.

Lumber is on the ground for a cottage and studio on the corner where the old Combs House stood before the fire. The buildings are to be constructed next spring by J. E. Bernard and Mrs. C. A. Knox.

An order was made Tuesday by the school board for compulsory vaccination of all pupils attending the Lakeview school. Those who refuse to have the operation performed are to be debarred from the school.

Cheney the saddler and harness man is just in receipt of the finest line of Chaparajos ("chaps") ever brought to Lakeview. Vaqueros should see these before purchasing. 43-2

Mr. D. Brownell, brother-in-law of J. W. Brown, one of the Lookout suspects, arrived in Alturas Saturday. Mr. Brownell was formerly a resident of Modoc county, but hails from Pendleton Oregon.—Plaindealer.

Word was received in Lakeview Tuesday morning that Atto ney Mardock of Klamath Falls was a smallpox invalid, and that two other new cases were reported there, one being Joe Conger an old resident.

The public school house near Lookout, Modoc county, was destroyed by fire on the 24th ult. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. Miss Florence Smith of Alturas was the teacher of the school.

John Smyth, the postmaster and merchant of Andrews, in the Wildhorse country, started for home last Saturday with a load of produce. Mr. Smyth came over the mountain into Warner Valley, thence here, with a four-horse turnout.

Mr. F. C. Lusk, lawyer, second Chauncy Depew as an after-dinner speaker, and cattle baron of Eastern Oregon, ought to write another letter on land leasing and answer some of the very pertinent questions hurled at his cause.

Something to delight the eye as well as to give comfort to the body while driving on a cold day—those beautiful buggy robes at Cheney's. You will be astonished at the low prices for these handsome robes. 43-2

Miss Gussie Rinn of Ft. Bidwell concluded not to accept a position in the head office of the California & Oregon telegraph office, and returned last week to San Jose to resume her duties as bookkeeper in a merchandise establishment.

The Circuit Court adjourned yesterday morning owing to the illness of jurymen B. W. Farrow, who is threatened with pneumonia. Mr. Farrow had a high fever Tuesday night, but his physician was of the opinion that he could resume his duties today.

The town council has passed an ordinance relative to contagious diseases, and inexplicable as it may seem, leaves the decision as to the character of diseases to physicians instead of to the know-alls, lawyers, merchants, etc.—Klamath Express.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stickel and children arrived from North Warner Tuesday, and are guests at Hotel Lakeview. Mr. Stickel will move his family to Guano Valley, where he has a contract to build a large stone barn for Dave Shirk, the big cattleman of Shirk.

"Pano," the well known cook, has taken charge of the Eli restaurant, and is furnishing his patrons with good meals both day and night. The place has been thoroughly renovated and "Pano" intends to run it in first class style. See his ad. in this issue.

L. Gerber and A. T. Langell purchased last Monday 600 yearling cattle and 51 head of beef from the Warner Valley Stock Company. The cattle will be delivered today at Warner canyon and will be wintered in Klamath. The yearlings are said to be a choice lot of well bred cattle.

The annual report of Commissioner Hermann, of the General Land Office, says that 15,582,796 acres of public land were disposed of during the last fiscal year, an increase of 2,108,908 over the previous year. The net surplus from the land and forest administration is $3,548,442.

The Cottonwood (Cal.) Enterprise comes to us now more brilliant than ever. We haven't looked at "top of column, next to pure reading matter," but will wager that veteran newspaperman W. W. Felts is at his old tricks again. The Enterprise is a real credit to Shasta county.

The Southern stage changed to winter schedule on November 1st. One driver leave Lakeview every morning and goes to the Wallace ranch, a station below New Pine Creek, returning to Lakeview upon the arrival of the stage from Alturas. Two drivers run between Wallace Station and Alturas.

On November 1st, the lease held by Mrs. E. H. Day on the Cottage Hotel expired, and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Barry assumed charge of the business. Hotel de Barry is now open and ready for business under the new management. White cook, and good meals served. You will get good treatment at Hotel de Barry.

Since our last issue the time of the circuit court has been entirely taken up in the trial of the Neillon case. No other business has been before the court. It is probable that this long trial will come to a conclusion the last of this week. The Judge, lawyers, jurymen and witnesses have had a long seige of it, and will be glad when it is over.

Stonewall Vernon moved his family into the second story of the livery, on Main street, last Monday, where he has established a comfortable home. Mr. Vernon has opened his stable for livery and feed, and will, in a few days, be prepared to furnish any sort of a turnout known to the business. He is now putting in buggies and carriages and all new stock.

A. P. Koozer, the West Side garden produce medal winner, left a monster beet (not a dead beat) at our office last Saturday, which sustains the already well earned reputation of the West Side as a general producer of the best and largest of everything—from babies down. This beet is as large as a Gainsborough hat and weighs something less than fifty pounds.

The Summit Lake Irrigation & Power Company, of Klamath county, will appropriate water from Lost river for irrigation purposes. The corporation will operate with a capital of $10,002, divided into 3334 shares of the value of $3 each. A. D. Harpold, R. A. Harpold and R. S. Goodrich are the incorporators of record in the office of the Secretary of State.

D. P. Browne and the vaqueros who assisted in the drive of the Warner Valley Stock Company's cattle to the railroad, returned Sunday from Gazelle. Mr. Browne informs us that the entire band, divided into four bunches, numbered 1900 beef and stock cattle combined, comprising only a small portion of the latter. The cattle stood the trip in splendid shape and were shipped in fine condition.

L. B. Warner, Jr., representing the Albany nursery, is in Lakeview this week filling orders for fruit trees, and flower garden bulbs and bushes. Each year the number of fruit trees and flowers planted by citizens all over the county increases wonderfully. Our people have begun to realize that the harder fruits and flowers grow and thrive here with a little care, and are gradually beautifying as well as adding wealth to their homes.

The report reached here this week that on Tuesday one of the daughters of R. H. Lee, of Davis Creek, met with a painful injury, resulting in the loss of an eye. It is said that she was curling her hair, when the heated iron dropped and became tangled in the hair in such a way that the end struck the eye, destroying the sight. This is indeed a deplorable accident, and we hope the report will prove a mistake, says the New Era.

Hudspeth & Cloud, of the Lakeview Soda Works, closed their place of business for the winter last Saturday night. Mr. Cloud has gone to Paisley to work on the Post during the absence of editor Metzker, who intends taking a "whirl around the circle" after new business. Mr. Hudspeth has gone to Modoc county to remain during the winter, but says he likes the climate near the state line so well that he will come back occasionally "for his health."

The editor of the Willows Journal gives due warning as follows: The "hoss" editor has purchased an umbrella which weighs 17 pounds. Its frame is of unadulterated pig-iron; its cover of New England cotton; the handle and stem of an Oregon cedar tree and its general appearance is suggestive of the tarred canvas covering at a "nigger campmeeting." The man who steals it will meet his reward on this earth and needn't worry about a hereafter.

Mrs. Nellie Hardifer, wife of Philip C. Hardifer, a contractor, of Denver, is dead from morphine poisoning, and William T. Flanders, a Lyons (Colo.) hotel owner, is in a hospital and may die from the same cause. "We fixed it up to die together, for we loved each other and could not live apart," said Flanders, who is a married man, after the woman was found dead in his room in the Midland hotel in Denver. Should Flanders recover he will be charged with murder.

A. I. Johnson of Drewsey, has returned from a visit to the Warner valley section. He is favorably impressed with that section and we understand will locate there next spring and engage in business. Johnson Bro's. have been in the saloon and general merchandise business at Drewsey for several years and have been quite successful, says the Burns News.

Two of Felix Green's fast hounds met with a calamity last Monday near the XL ranch on the West Side. The dogs were in the chase after a coyote and had killed the animal, when a rabbit was startled from his lair close by. The hounds at once went in pursuit of bunny, and when about to capture him collided with each other with disastrous results. As a result one dog is suffering from a crushed shoulder and the other was injured internally. It is thought both will die.

"Rev." F. O. Bumpus, who attended the Rogue River Baptist conference held at Medford a few weeks ago, and who preached at Central Point and other places in Southern Oregon, has turned out to be a "bad egg," and disappeared without leaving his address with persons who are interested in knowing. Before leaving the country he borrowed 65 cents from a member of the church, and got away with a church music book, church manual and other books. He is a fraud. Look out for him.

Conductor W. E. Page, who killed C. C. Newby, his brakeman on the McCloud railroad two weeks ago, and who was exonerated by a coroner's jury, immediately left for parts unknown upon being set free. This action on the part of Page spread the suspicion that he did not have much faith in his own motives and there are many people in the neighborhood who believe he took advantage of the threats of the weak and rattle-headed brakeman to take his life. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

The Alturas creamery has been closed down owing to bad management of its affairs. The Adin creamery is now furnishing Alturas with butter. The Alturas establishment will probably remain closed for an indefinite time. Those who had been furnishing milk to the institution refused to do so longer as the returns for their product was unsatisfactory. The creamery was established under the most favorable conditions and the machinery is of the best. Bad management of any business, however, will finally result in failure.

Two weeks ago The Examiner announced the disappearance of the son of T. A. Crump of South Warner, and the anxiety that was felt in that vicinity over the matter. We have learned since that the young man had lost a number of sheep out of the band he was herding and was looking for the strays until late at night. It was the young man's custom to return home at nightfall and when he did not appear his parents became anxious. A searching party was organized and the result was the young man arrived home at a late hour bringing the lost sheep with him.
