Mask Ball Christmas.
Social dance Thanksgiving.
Get ready for the Mask ball Christmas.

Harry Ahldridge is reported to be quite ill from erysipelas, at his Summer Lake home.

Mrs. A. E. Follett was up from New Pine Creek last week on a visit with relatives.

The name is a guaranty of its purity—Jesse Moore Whiskey is always right. Buy it of Jammertal.

The social dances for the winter will open on Thanksgiving night. Be there, and have a dandy time.

C. E. Campbell, the "village smithy" at Paisley has taken up a home at Alkali and has built a residence thereon.

Social dance Friday night, Nov. 28th—Thanksgiving. All the lads and lassies will be there to have a good time.

When you hear who the committee is on the dance for Thanksgiving night you will understand that a good time is assured for that occasion.

You can't get a better hair cut in the city than the cut Frank D. Smith will give you at his tonsorial parlor. He also has a sure dandruff cure. 42-tf

Paisley will have horse racing and a grand ball Thanksgiving. The affair is in the hands of Hammond & Farrow, which assures its success.

There won't be anything but a good time at the social dance Thursday—Thanksgiving night, Nov. 28th. The committee having it in charge will prepare for a most enjoyable time.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

You are going to prepare for that masquerade ball in Lakeview on Christmas night. Figure out your costume and have it in time. The mask is going to be a "hummer." Dancers from every place in the country will be here to participate.

The Post says that Ed. Lamb came in last Friday from the sheep camp on the east side of Summer Lake, where he is waiting to put the sheep on the desert. Mr. Lamb says he never saw feed better than now. He will take back a load of supplies.

When you feel that life is hardly worth the candle take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, tone up your liver and regulate your bowels making you feel like a new man. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

J. F. Porter and family, of Plateau, Cal., whom The Examiner mentioned two weeks ago as arriving to spend the winter in Lake county, have reached Summer Lake, where they will reside with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ahldridge.

J. F. Bevil went to Lakeview in company with Chas. Parker last Thursday, returning on Friday. While in the county seat Mr. Bevil filed a homestead on a claim, up the river from Paisley. It is a valuable piece of land for timber, says the Post.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Lee Beall.

There are two things the people of the West do not want—the passing of a law to lease the public lands, and Congress to fail in re-enactment of the Geary law for the exclusion of Chinese. Either of these would be bad for this country, and both at once would certainly mean ruin.

Jack Stanley, who for the past eighteen months has been employed on the "Rustler," left here last Sunday for Dunsmuir, Cal., where he expects to engage in the newspaper business for himself. Jack says he and another party will conduct the Dunsmuir News, a well established paper in that live town.

There is nothing in the world more delightful than a drink of good whiskey—and Jesse Moore is good whiskey. For sale by Geo. Jammertal.

O. Dunlap arrived last week from Phoenix and will assist his brother Clarence at the Variety store and billiard parlor. Mr. Dunlap is said to be an expert in the making of tamales and besides is somewhat of an all-round chef. An oyster and tamale parlor will be added to the Dunlap establishment.

Some people do not realize, or they do not care, whether the Geary act excluding Chinese shall be re-enacted or allowed to lapse. The same indifferent feeling seems to prevail regarding the leasing of the public lands. The time will come when the people of this country will wish they had made some effort to stop the tide of this public robbery.

Oyster cocktails, fresh, temperate and delicious, just received at Post & King's. This beverage is very refreshing, is good for the stomach and builds up the system. If your appetite is failing try an oyster cocktail; it is always palatable and gives an appetite for other foods. Physicians recommend it, and Post & King always have it fresh and pure, put up by the best manufacturers in the city. 45-tf

Wm. H. Hayes, justice of the peace of Silver Lake township, tendered his resignation to the county court last session. Mr. Hayes gave as his reasons for resigning the office that he was now in Greenview, Cal., and that his business might detain him there until next spring, and in justice to the public interests he thought it his duty to give up the office.

Chas. Walton, well known in Lakeview, and Hong Dye, the Chinese restaurateur, who once held forth in this town, had an altercation in Alturas recently which came near terminating in a case for the coroner. The Mongolian, ever ready for a "scrap," drew a pistol on Walton and made him leave the restaurant. Walton soon returned with a shotgun to renew the altercation, but before he had a chance to do business was arrested by Marshal Taylor. Walton was fined $50.

Offers unexcelled facilities for learning the Celebrated Pernin Shorthand by mail. This method employs neither shading, position nor arbitrary contractions; is the simplest, most legible, and rapid shorthand in use, and the only method that can be successfully learned by mail. Send for free trial lesson and catalogue. Commercial Building, Washington, corner Second. 12-tf

It is announced that "Herb" Ahldridge, the Summer Lake stockman, and Miss Virginia Pease were to have been married yesterday, the 20th inst., at Boise, Idaho. Miss Pease left this county with her parents last spring, but she left her heart in the keeping of the worthy young man who now calls her wife. Mr. Ahldridge has been learning the business of merchandising in the store of J. C. Conn at Silver Lake, and will look for a location to go into that business for himself.

C. L. Williams, formerly proprietor of the Silver Lake sawmill, is here from near Eugene on a business trip. Mr. Williams owns considerable property in Lake county and has been here about a week looking after business matters. He intends wintering in the Willamette valley this winter. He sold the mill about a year ago.—Post.

Ote Pratt returned last week from Silver Lake, where he has been employed by Jim Small, the stockman, for several months. Ote is telling his friends how sorry he was to leave Silver Lake, and the boys, and the girls too, think he has left his heart somewhere in that valley. He is now assisting in gathering the C. C. Pratt horses from the range.

Jesse Moore Whiskies are famous the world over for purity and flavor as well as for all the other qualities that make good whiskey. At Jammertal.

John D. Venator, the young attorney, is building up a fine library. When the shelves of the office are filled he will have five hundred volumes on the law. He has just received "Lawyers Annotated Laws" complete, which are said to be the most perfect and convenient forms that exist from which to get clear opinions of the law. Mr. Venator proposes to make a success of his profession if hard study, good work and practice will accomplish it.

H. R. Neil exhibited in Pendleton a sample of salt bush, which he raised on the Wild Horse, says the East Oregonian. He has been experimenting with the bush to find if the Australian sheep food will grow in the country. The experiment was successful for the bush grew without irrigation on alkali land. Those who are authorities on the subject say that the problem for the future feeding of sheep has been solved. Mr. Neil will plant two acres of new bush next year.

Lakeview has exhibited a sample of the proper way to handle contagious diseases. T. G. Wisdom went to that town sick. His case being pronounced small-pox, the authorities promptly provided an isolated house for him and established a strict quarantine. Such prompt action will likely prevent the disease from spreading and avoid a disastrous scare. On the appearance of any contagious or infectious disease, it is always the business of municipal authorities to act vigorously and without delay.—Klamath Republican.

J. L. Smith, local agent for the Equitable Life Assurance Company of the United States, is doing a splendid business in his line. Mr. Smith is reputed to have written the largest amount of insurance for the season of any other agent for the Equitable, excepting the general manager at Portland. There is a prize to be given by the Equitable for the best service of its employees, and Mr. Smith is striving to win it. The Examiner can say without stultification that the company represented by Mr. Smith is as solid as a rock and there are none better.
