

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

That wonderful newspaper, the Winemucca Silver State, has finally discovered that the assassin of President McKinley was a republican. Doubtless the same paper will discover now that Christ was the original Judas Iscariot, and claim relationship with him.

Men's Golf and Winter Caps at Bieber's.

President Roosevelt has given his assurance that he will do everything in his power to further the interests of the Lewis and Clark Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, in 1905. The President also promised to visit the coast next summer, and to break ground for the grand Exposition.

R. L. Benefiel of Paisley was in Lakeview last week on business. Mr. Benefiel has been engaged as an artisan in building up the growing town of Che-waucan. He intended spending the winter in the Willamette, but could not tear himself away from old Lake even for a season, and has concluded to remain at home.

Winter suits and Overcoats—The Best selection of suits and Overcoats, you'll find at Bieber's.

L. B. Lafollett, representing Allen & Lafollett, breeders of fine sheep in Crook county, will leave for home next Monday. About a month ago Mr. Lafollett came here with a band of Ramboulette and Delaine bucks, and disposed of 167 head in Lake county. They are a fine lot of bucks and the purchasers are well pleased.

Cheney, the harness man, has a fine stock already on hand, but is awaiting a new invoice of all kinds of goods known to the trade that will complete his winter stock. You can find anything you want at Cheney's.

Town Talk, founded by Geo. C. Stanley at Ashland, has made rapid strides in the journalistic arena, having grown from a newspaper the size of a court-plaster to 25 times that size within a few years. The Town Talk is entering upon a new volume with still better prospects for the future. It is a splendid local newspaper.

Any of our readers wanting light, highly profitable employment, should send 15c to the Echo Novelty Co., Echo, New York, for one of their Engraved Novelty Show Card Signs (11x14). Catalogue and terms to agents. Exclusive territory given.

Mr. B. Gruman brought a few samples of potatoes to The Examiner office last Tuesday that outclasses anything in the spot line we have ever seen in Lake county. Four of these potatoes weigh nearly 12 pounds. They were grown by C. A. Rehart at Crooked Creek. If there is anything in the "Irish orange" belt about Paisley that can "skin" these spuds, trot 'em out.

One of the sweetest dances of the season will be given on Thursday night, Nov. 28th, at Barry Hall. Good music has been engaged and the dancing floor will be made perfect for the merry waltz. No lover of a good dance can afford to be absent from this affair for there's going to be an all round good time.

A gigantic scheme is on foot in Southern Kansas to advance the price of wheat by cutting off the supply. It is proposed that none of the farmers in that section shall raise any wheat for sale next year. If Southern Kansas were the only wheat raising country in the world the scheme would work, but its crop is only a drop in the bucket, hence the scheme must fail.

Everybody loves flowers. The pink is one of the most fragrant, and the Palo Alto Pink is a "jewel in the bed of flowers." Beall, the druggist, has all the latest and best perfumes, among them Paul Reiger's California perfumes made from Palo Alto pinks and other flowers. See Beall before you purchase perfumes.

Among the improvements going on in the residence portion of Lakeview, we note the new residences of Frank D. Smith and Ben Branch are nearly completed. John Tannehill is building the former and Mr. Branch is doing his own work. E. N. Jaquish is building an addition to his residence on South Walters street. There are numerous other improvements going on about town.

Large bands of cattle are being pastured and fed in this county at present, for the San Francisco market, and will be shipped below later on. This season has been very favorable for stock by the occasional rains keeping grass in good condition, to save much feeding of hay. There has been no snow of any consequence to cover the pastures of the highest altitude, but the stock men have been obliged to drive them into the low valleys, from the high benches and mountains, for fear of a heavy snow storm coming unexpectedly, which will be a great benefit to the pastures of snow sections.

The Times-Mountaineer says that some sensational writers have become alarmed about the beef supply of this country and state that in a very few years only the very rich will be able to eat beef. They are unduly alarmed. The great west is still able to supply beef eaters with meat, and will continue to do so for ages to come. We predict that beef will be lower in two years than it is now.

The Cedarville Record says that Mrs. L. Mott of Lake City was taken to Alturas last Monday by Deputy Constable Phillips. It seems that Mrs. Mott who is well along in years, has been acting rather queerly lately, and while in a destitute condition has utterly refused to allow her children or relatives to assist her and has been camping out at Soldier Creek for some time. It is thought that her mind is unbalanced.

Willows, California, is not an ordinary town. It has various things that other towns cannot boast of. It is a live town, with live people; it has a live newspaper, the Journal; it is the home town of "Toots" Sommers and Carothers, two good ball players; it catches all the up-to-date attractions; it has its Col. Crawford, the noted boniface; it has a celebrated, bon-ton divorce case behind closed doors with the fair and buxom plaintiff acting as her own attorney—and last week it had an earthquake distinctly its own. There is nothing slow about Willows.

George Switzer, the San Francisco horse buyer has been arrested. Last week six starving horses and mules, purchased by Switzer for $1 each and shipped from Stockton, arrived in San Francisco, consigned to him. The animals were to be sent to Petaluma where they were to be made into chicken feed, when secretary Holbrook of the Animal Society took charge of the poor beasts and kept them from perishing. Horsemen of Lake county will remember Switzer, who was here a year or so ago buying animals for shipment to San Francisco, where he keeps a horse bazaar.

The French-Glen Livestock Company, of which Mr. Lusk, of "Lusk Letter" fame is the president, is working on a dredger with which to dig a ditch to drain the great Blitzen swamp. This swamp, which has been the habitation of wild beasts for ages, is located in a wild part of Harney county. It is twenty-five miles long by five to seven miles broad and when drained, it is estimated, 64,000 acres of grazing and hay producing land will be available. The company has 75,000 head of cattle, besides many thousand horses. In its present state Blitzen swamp is valueless, save as a hunting ground.

D. L. Shirk informs the Cedarville Record of the death of John Catlow, at Pueblo. Mr. Catlow was a pioneer resident in Oregon and for years one of her solid citizens, but misfortune overtook him during the last years of his life and disease ravaged his system making him an invalid. He was a man beloved by many, as his sympathy and generosity prompted him to assist the needy applying to him for aid, and while his last days were spent under trying circumstances his many good deeds are still garnered in the memory of his large circle of friends. It is proposed that his remains will be taken from their present resting place in Oregon and interred in San Francisco, where a neat monument will be placed to mark his grave by Mr. Shirk.

The Telephone Office.

The head office of the Lake County Telephone system for Lakeview is located in the general merchandise store of Ayres Whitworth & Ayres, where those who desire service on the line can be accommodated. The line will be in working order from Lakeview to Silver Lake by next Saturday. President Wm. Harvey says the system is a perfect one and that the ticking of a watch can be plainly heard over the line for a distance of forty miles.

Married at Reno.

C. Oscar Metzker, editor of the Cheaucan Post, and Mrs. Rena V. Clark, were married in Reno, Nevada, on the 19th inst. Mr. Metzker made an attempt to surprise his friends in the culmination of his love affair, but "Old Mrs. Grundy" whispered about it in deep secrecy and that's the way the secret was kept. Mr. Metzker needs no introduction to the readers of The Examiner. Since establishing the Post in Paisley he has become a prominent figure in the northern part of the county. He has a large circle of friends all over this section. The bride is the ex-wife of Dr. Clark, who was at one time a resident dentist in Paisley, and said to be a charming and lovable woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Metzker are expected to return next Saturday and will probably stop over in Lakeview for a short time, before returning to Paisley. The Examiner extends congratulations and hearty good wishes to the happy couple.

Stock News

W. M. Gifford has bought 70 head of the Pratt horses and mules.

Jeff Parish, foreman for Mapes in Warner, bought some cattle at Cedarville last week.

We learn that John Collins has purchased the Loftus Bros. bunch of horses at Crane Lake.

Seventy head of the Allen & Lafollett bucks will winter at the Hankins ranch at Summer Lake, where they will be sold.

Mr. Stewart, one of the buyers here at present, will look at the George Small mules at Silver Lake, with a view of purchasing.

Benefiel, the horse buyer, will accept 25 head of broken horses from W. Z. Moss today. Mr. Benefiel has also arranged to take a big bunch of the J. J. horses in Warner.

Wm. Mullins sold about ninety head of good stock cattle to George Mapes last week, and also seventeen fine beef steers to Marion Hughes for the Alturas meat market—Cedarville Record.

Messrs. Lawrence and Stewart, who have been cleaning up all the horses and mules they could find in Modoc, are in Lakeview this week to make purchases. They purchased 24 head of mules from the bunch bought by Gifford from C. C. Pratt. They have also contracted for 25 head of mules from W. A. Currier of Summer Lake.

Shasta Valley and Butte Creek Valleys are now pasturing and feeding large bands of cattle from Southern and Eastern Oregon, and shipments are made as rapidly as cars can be obtained. There is a constant demand for cattle trains, from the various stations between Edgewood and Hornbrook, and the railroad company is hard pressed for both cars and locomotives, owing to the demands for lumber, firewood and general freight calls.—Yreka Journal.

R. R. Hinton, of Bakeoven, purchased of the Gilmon & French Livestock Company, 200 head of yearling heifers of the Southern and Hereford breeds, which were delivered Sunday, says the Shaniko Leader. The entire bunch was fine, large, healthy looking animals. The price paid was $18 per head, delivered at Shaniko. Mr. Hinton has also purchased four fine Shorthorn bulls from the famous breeding farm at Frankfort, Ind., which are due to arrive here some time this week. He is now one of the principal sheep-owners in Wasco County, and with this purchase of cattle added to those he already possesses he will be in the front ranks as a cattle-owner for this section of Oregon.

Tombstones.

J. C. Whipp of Jacksonville and F. L. Wright of Grants Pass will establish a marble works at Ashland. That town has certainly been forging ahead wonderfully in the past year or two.
