Secretary of State Dunbar, accompanied by Mrs. Dunbar, are on their way to the Mississippi valley on a visit.

Al. McDowell and Zac Whitworth came in from Fish creek last Thursday to see how things were going on in town.

Physicians would not recommend Jesse Moore Whiskey if they did not know it to be the best in the market. Jammerthal sells it.

Harry Roberts paid Lakeview a brief visit last week. They say that Harry is about to—but, there; we came near telling a secret.

Miss Roma Whitmore, accompanied by her brother and sister passed through Paisley Saturday, from Bonanza, on their way to Prineville.—Post.

The sum of $83, for baskets sold at the Cogswell Creek school social, was realized. This speaks well for the liberality of the people of that section.

You can't get a better hair cut in the city than the cut Frank D. Smith will give you at his tonsorial parlor. He also has a sure dandruff cure. 42-1f

J. G. Likens, who has been working on the Chewaucan canal for some time has returned to Lakeview and is again at the block in the Fitzgerald meat market.

When you want to do business with neighbors to the north, as far as Silver Lake, go to the main office in Lakeview and use the telephone. It will prove very satisfactory.

Jim Clarkson, Stock Inspector of Lake county, was in Paisley this week on his way to Silver Lake where he will wind up his tour of the county. He informs us that scab is making its appearance in a good many bands of sheep.—Post.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

"Bee" Guilliams, one of the brightest girl pupils attending the Lakeview public school, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm very badly on the school grounds one day last week. "Bee" is a lively young lady, however, and this accident which would send most people to bed appears not to concern her to any great extent. She says the fractured arm is "only a bother," that's all.

Interesting Notes Gathered During The Week and Stated Briefly For Examiner Readers

Geo. W. Mapes arrived here from Reno last Saturday, buying up what cattle he could find for sale. He reports times good at Reno and that the outlook for the permanent growth of the place better than ever before.—Cedarville Record.

J. N. Watson arrived at Reno last week to engage pasture near there for a big band of mutton sheep that will arrive there this week from Crook county. C. E. Sherlock and J. N. Watson purchased the band and will hold the mutton at Reno to await the top price.

For home use, for bar use, for physicians' use, for everybody's use, Jesse Moore Whiskey is always the best and is in most general demand.

"Never worry about us," says a Missouri editor. "Our favorite dominick hen has been sitting all summer on a couple of pieces of brick and three bureau knobs. When she comes off after awhile with a three-story brick house and two cars of handsome bureaus, we are going into the furniture business."

Arthur Benson, book-keeper for the Chewaucan Land and Cattle Company, came down from Paisley Thursday evening in company with Superintendent Wallace Taylor, and they went to the railroad Friday. Mr. Benson will go to Salem to spend the winter, and will return in the spring. Mr. Taylor will go to Medford on business.

J. W. Sweinfurth, the butcher at Whorton's, is killing some very fine young beef now. For a nice tender steak or a good roast call on Sweinfurth. 47-2

The rush for beef cattle from localities distant from the railroad in this county and Southern Oregon, is about over, but there is still a large number on ranches ready to ship when required. Most of the stock at Gazelle, will be fed until spring, with considerable kept on the ranges. There are still over 2,000 at Lost River to be driven to the railroad within a few weeks.—Yreka Journal.

A bogus moving picture outfit that recently visited Lakeview and had for an audience the little boy who carried the bills, an Indian and a whelp, was in Cedarville last week and caught numerous "suckers." The Record says a good-sized audience attended. The outfit did not advertise here and scarcely anybody knew anything about it. Any traveling outfit that is too measly stinky to advertise and tell the public what it has is too tight-skinned to give a good performance.
