WILSON BROTHERS

Are the Horse Thieves and Store Robbers Who are Wanted for Robbery at Pine Creek.

Having recured sufficient evidence against Geo. and Archie Wilson for robbing Hartzog & Gibbin's store at New Pine Creek, and the taking of numerous things from ranches in that neighborhood, Sheriff Dunlap started out ' horseback last Sunday for Plush, where he will take up the track of the fugatives and will no doubt bring them back and have th m tried on several charges of crime.

While these parties were suspected and it was almost certain that they were the guilty parties, it was not till Wednesday of last week that conclusive evidence was secured against them. These two men have had a wood camp in Fandango valley for some time, and a few days before the robbing they were seen hanging around New Pine Creek for several days. They did not leave their camp for probably a week after the robbery and were first seen at Ft. Ridwell, on Saturday, Nov. 30th. Geo. Maupin stopped at New Pine Creek Wednesday night of last week, and he spoke of seeing these men, which was the first evidence that they had left. They had a team and spring wagon which was heavily loaded, and Mr. Maupin seen them again in South Warner on Sunday, Dec. 1st. On the following day, Monday, they were again seen by J. C. Dodson in North Warner, who recognized a black mare that belonged to Issac Robnett. The other horse (bay) they had taken from some one else. Many things have been missed in the neighborhood of Pine Creek and Willow Ranch, and The Examiner has secured a partial list of things known to have been taken by these men: One black mare, branded JR., and some rolled barley from R. Robnett's ranch, one bay horse, one set harness from Applegate ranch, one wagon from Davis' ranch, one pair doubletrees and wagon jack from another place. From Hartzog & Gibbins' store they are known to have taken a bolt of wagon sheeting, a large roll of blankets and comforts, 7 suits wool underwear, 7 overshirts, two suits stripped gray clothing, two pairs boots and two pairs shoes, Nos. 8, several silk mufflers, one watch and chain, 50 or more cheap pins, one razor, and a large supply of canned goods and groceries. This heavy load will impede their progress, and no drapings in yellow. In the northwest long been a need of such an enterprise doubt Sheriff Dunlap will have them in corner of the room was the organ and in in Lakeview, and now there will be no custody before many days roll by. The the opposite corner, were arranged three elder brother, George Wilson, is a well shelves, drapped in yellow on which known crook in this vicinity and served a term in the Oregon penitentiary several years ago for robbing the Paisley postoffice in V. Conn's store.

All Right at Bly.

LAREVIEW EXAMINER, LARRYIEW.

Gentlemen: Almost every week you speak of the small-pox at Bly, and while we had it it was alright to speak as you did, but now every member of my family have had it and have fully recovered, and the time for any one taking it at my hotel is past. I am thoroughly ing. fumigating the house and do not consider there is a particle of danger to any one who might stop here. Please make this statement in your paper of this week if you will and oblige.

Yours Very Respectfully E. E. FITCH.

THANKSGIVING IN MISS HALL'S BOOM. A committee was appointed by the lub, consisting of the three officers and three members, to go to Miss Hall's and Miss Johnston's rooms

As we entered the room, the little ones were cutting out round pieces of pasteboard, and also making the Mayflower out of square pieces of paper.

The decoration consisted of drawings of corn, turkeys, pumpkins, a spinning wheel, cradle, and a picture of the Mayflower, there were also several other

The teacher, Miss Hall asked why they were making the Mayflower. There were several reasons given. One little tot used the word "come" incorrectly, nearly every one noticed it and it was soon corrected. She then asked them if they would like to make some wigwams. They were all willing.

After the children had these finished, they had physical exercise, which was very well done and showed very good

The speaking was the next thing in order. The first was a song by the chool. Second, "Mother Nature's Dinner," by eight little children. "Turkey Song," by the school was next; this was very well sung. "Today and Long-ago" by Reta Steiner was given with much skill. Song by six little girls entitled, The Turkey's Wish Bone." The last. song by the school. The question was asked by Miss Hall, "Why do we not use the spinning wheel today?" The snswer was, "Because they are not the fashion." Another question was asked, Why should we be thankful today?" The answer given by a small boy was, Because God has kept us well and given us food and clothes."

By this time it was recess, and the children were given the signals to rise and march. The little tots kept step perfectly. This shows a great deal of work and training. I think in getting a should get the best that can be found. For in that room, the children form the habits which they will probably carry through life.

They have an excellent teacher this year and the little ones mind perfectly. REPORT OF COMMITTEE IN MISS JOHNSTON'S

As we entered Miss Johnston's room ast Wednesday afternoon, we noticed the walls were decorated with a great many pretty pictures, evergreens and were many specimens.

The general behavior and appearence of the room were good.
