Lots of grain sacks at The Excelsior Dairy. 51-1f.

The Sumpter Valley railroad is to be extended to Burns—so says the Burns press.

Born—in Lakeview, Oregon, Dec. 21, 1901, to the wife of Frank Hutchins, a daughter.

A bill line of men's furnishings at The Excelsior.

G. L. Holbrook and Alex Fitzpatrick were in from the XL ranch to attend the mask ball.

Moss Striplin traded his West Side ranch, some time ago to Elsie Russell for a big lot of lumber.

Plenty fine bacon and hams at The Excelsior Dairy.

Secretary Gage will leave the Cabinet as soon as his successor is named. The report that Secretary Hay will resign is unfounded.

Senator Stewart has introduced a bill into the United States Senate providing for a $70,000 government post-office building at Reno.

See Schminck & Son for gents' furnishing goods. 51-2

Now that Lakeview is almost assured of a flouring mill for the coming year we may look for more prosperity among our farmer friends.

M. K. Barry came over from Warner last week and had a thoroughly enjoyable time mixing with the merry maskers at the ball.

Ladies dress goods of every description at The Excelsior. 51-1f

J. C. Dodson, who is buying artillery horses, now has a number at the Lewis & Garrett stable and is engaged in breaking them.—Burns News.

County Court will be in session next week. The County Official Paper will be designated at that meeting, as well as other business of importance.

Felts and overshoes and leather-soled gum boots at The Excelsior. 51-1f

Crosby Snelling, a former resident of Lakeview, has left Red Bluff and bought a fine tonsorial shop in Redding, the booming town of Northern California.

It is said that since the selection made by the Harney Valley Improvement Company there is no public land left for ordinary entry, in Harney Valley.—Burns News.

Ice, at The Excelsior, has the sweetest of candies and the best brands of cigars. 51-1f

Get a good, clean, hot bath at Frank Smith's shop. When you come out of the bath plant yourself in the chair and get a clean shave, after which try his sure cure dandruff medicine. 52-1f

In the death of President John J. Valentine of Wells, Fargo & Co's. express, the employees of that company lose their best and truest friend. He was a good man in every respect.

For the Viavi Treatment, apply to Mrs. W. D. Woodcock, Lakeview, Oregon. 47-1f

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blumhart spent Christmas in Lakeview. The former were guests of E. M. Brattain and wife and the latter of Sheriff Dunlap and wife.

Thomas Donahue, a stranger to Reno, thought the Central Pacific train was not going to stop at that place one morning last week and as he wanted to go west he attempted to get aboard. He has only one foot now.

It seems to be the practice in Modoc county for lawyers to note an objection during a trial by calling the Judge a liar. The way of moving for a new trial is, perhaps, to shoot at the Judge. Bench and bar lead the strenuous life in Modoc, says the Bulletin.

The Post reports that Jack Kelsay began feeding 700 head more cattle on Dec. 21st. He had been feeding 800 head previously to this new addition. He now has 1500 head in the feed yard, and most of them, he says, are beef fat.

There is one whiskey that always lives up to its reputation—and that is Jesse Moore. Get it at Jammertal's.

When a man marries a second time, every woman of his acquaintance says: "I knew it. That's just like a man." When a woman marries the second time, her women acquaintances commend her for her good sense and express the hope that she will be happier than she was with her first husband.
