

vancement made by the paper as a first-class advertising medium, and a disseminator of the news, modestly forbids us to dwell upon the subject. We prefer to let the public judge of the merits of The Examiner as a local newspaper. The rapid strides made by this paper to the front ranks of the interior press is due to the generosity and liberality of the live business men of Lake county, and the merchants and business men generally of Lakeview in particular—as well as to the more than one thousand subscribers who have given us their patronage. Few interior newspapers can boast of one-half the bona fide subscribers that The Examiner has on its list, and that fact alone is sufficient to insure the business man the best results from advertising placed in these columns. We are pleased to state that nearly all our subscribers are prompt in making payment for the paper and we are not compelled to keep continually "dunning" for money from delinquents through our columns, as many country papers do. The Examiner publishers sincerely thank the patrons of this paper for their liberality in the past, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their generous patronage in the future.

We wish you all a Happy New Year.

An Error Corrected.

R. P. Courtwright, one of the witnesses in the famous Lookout case, feels that The Examiner has not treated him fairly and erred in the issue of December 25th when this paper stated that it copied from the Alturas Plaindealer of December 20th that "the witness Courtwright formerly consorted with Mary Hall, the old squaw, mother to some of the men who were lynched, and for that reason he is supposed to have an interest in seeing the suspects prosecuted." We find that Mr. Courtwright is correct, as the Alturas Plaindealer did not contain the language quoted. A portion of the "Incidents of the Famous Case," published in The Examiner, was taken from the Plaindealer and the remainder from the Reno Gazette. The Gazette contained the language which Mr. Courtwright says in a letter to The Examiner is an error, in which we used his name in a wrong connection. The Examiner does not desire to do an injustice to any one, and consequently we acknowledge that the "offensive" language was not found in the Plaindealer, but was taken from the Reno Gazette. The Examiner cheerfully corrects the error.

Christmas Dance at Shellhammer's.

We are informed that the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shellhammer, at Crooked Creek, was the scene of much festivity and jollification on Christmas Eve. A large crowd of neighbors and friends of the family were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Shellhammer to spend Christmas Eve with them and the result was one of the most enjoyable events that ever took place in that valley. Everybody danced and had a jolly time and at midnight sat down to a fine supper. Ere they arose from the table the old clock on the mantle announced that Christmas day had arrived. Good wishes for a merry Christmas were exchanged and then dancing was resumed until the chickens crew in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Shellhammer were congratulated for the fine entertainment and were voted a delightful host and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Burrill Miller, Miss Louise Dusenbury and others whose names we did not learn, attended from Lakeview.

Registration Notice.

Registration for the coming election will open at the County Clerk's office on Monday, the 6th day of January, 1902. Justice of the Peace and Notaries Public of outside precincts desiring books and blanks for registration purposes may procure same upon application to the clerk.

WM. GUNTHER

52-3t

County Clerk.

the officiating clergyman, and pronounced the words that joined the happy lovers in a most impressive manner. Quite a number of friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. An elegant wedding supper was served and many were the good wishes expressed for the future happiness of the couple. The bride is a charming, accomplished and pretty young woman, of whom her parents and husband are justly proud. She is the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brattain. The groom is a well known and deservedly popular young stockman of Silver Lake valley, who has a prosperous future before him. Mr. and Mrs. Carlon were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts, as follows:

Set silver knives, forks and table spoons J. C. Conn
Set silver teaspoons Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin
Silver sugar shell Odie Horning
Silver butter knife Ethel Martin
Glass fruit dish with silver stand Florence Martin

Silver cake stand Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bradley
Silver cake stand Frank Payne
Silver casket A. Martin and Gus Schroder
Cracker jar Mr. and Mrs. Marshall
Crumb tray Wm. Hough
Pile cushion Mrs. Wm. Hough
Toilet set Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kittredge
Wash bowl and pitcher Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dowdy

Table linen Mrs. Egli
Vinegar jar Mabel Egli
Salt and pepper shakers Lena Egli
Candle stick Fred Egli
Metal lamp Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Geyer
Carving set Messrs. Hadley and Mobley
Glass water pitcher Cora Wardwell
Glass cake stand Mrs. Robt. Mosby
Glass stand and fruit dish Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Wardwell
Glass syrup pitcher Jewell Corum
Set glass dishes Thomas and Kate Jackson
Set glass dishes Sam Wardwell
Silk sofa cushion Vera Hill
Napkins Mr. and Mrs. Warren Duncan
Handkerchief Isa Corum
Pickle dish, table linen and sauce dishes Mrs. J. M. Small

Boots Les Duncan

Mr. and Mrs. Carlon start hand in hand through the remaining years of their lives with the kindest wishes of all who know them for a most happy existence. The Examiner extends hearty congratulations.

Enjoyable Xmas. at Dairy.

DEAR EXAMINER: We had a splendid time in Dairy this Xmas. Sport and fun was not at a standstill either day or night. We shot turkeys in the morning and had a sparring match in the evening—and we danced all night. Joe Hedenger got the most turkeys and Pat Calahan won the sparring match. I bet all my money on George Vaughn but he lost in the initial round.

We danced in The Excelsior building. Ike moved out and we moved in—for this occasion only. We have a "kick" coming even if Ike did give us the use of the store and furnished the lights gratis. He refused to grease the floor. But we had a good time, nevertheless. The renowned Flacks band furnished music which was pronounced first-class. His Honor kept the peace and Brown Michael was master of ceremonies and caller. G. G. Anderson of Hotel Dairy got up the supper—and such a supper! It was a feast to make the Hotel Lakeview envious. We danced all night, and all went home pronouncing Dairy a nice place to dwell in, and wishing Christmas would come oftener.

DAN DE QUILLER.

Dairy, Oregon, Dec. 26, 1901.

License to Wed By Phone.

W. L. Sutherland and Miss S. K. Jackson of Silver Lake were issued a license to wed by rather a novel method last Friday. The proper affidavit, duly sworn to, was sent over the telephone to County Clerk Gunther, and the officer in turn informed them that the license had been issued and was forwarded by mail, requesting the groom at the same time to forward by mail the affidavit for record. There was no legal obstruction to the marriage and The Examiner understands the happy event took place last Sunday under most pleasant auspices.

We wish
Everybody a Prosperous and
Happy New Year
Bailey & Massingill

J. W. Reeder Chas. Morrison
Reeder & Morrison
BLACKSMITHS
AND HORSESHOERS
Do everything in the Blacksmithing
line and satisfaction guaranteed
New Pine Creek, Oregon.

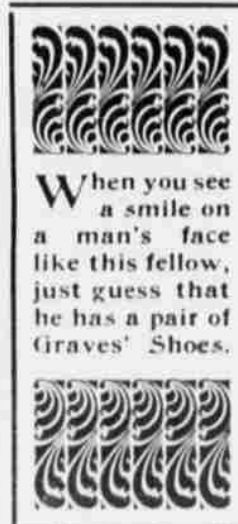

New Vegetable Store...

L. B. WHORTON, Prop.
OPPOSITE BAILEY & MASSINGILL'S

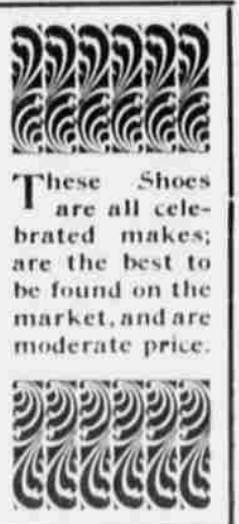

All kinds of Berries, Vegetables & Fruit carried in season. Leave orders and what you want for the day will be delivered at your door, fresh and sweet.

MEN'S HEAVY WINTER
LADIES' EXTRA FINE
CHILDREN'S SCHOOL
SHEPHERD'S NAILED

SHOES

When you see a smile on a man's face like this fellow, just guess that he has a pair of Graves' Shoes.

These Shoes are all celebrated makes; are the best to be found on the market, and are moderate price.

THE RED SHOE STORE

DO YOU

Need anything in the line of

CLOTHING?

If so we offer you bargains in these

MEN'S SUITS
YOUTHS SUITS

MEN'S OVERCOATS
YOUTHS OVERCOATS

Boys and Children's Suits and Overcoats

DON'T FAIL TO SEE OUR LINE OF SHIRTS & NECKTIES

MONOGRAM, AHLSTROM BRO'S.,
Proprietors