

Stock Taking Begins Here Jan. 1st.

The opportunity for Bargains is now on hand.

All left overs—Odds and Ends, Remnants, etc., will be sacrificed.

Every Department offers special inducements to money savers, at Bieber's Store.

LAKEVIEW LIVERY

WM. K. BARRY & M. W. J. BARRY, Props.

Feed Stable in Connection

Horses boarded by the day or month. First class turnouts and saddle horses. Our specialty is the quick and safe delivery of passengers to all points in the district.

Hay and Grain for Sale.

Proprietors Barry's Opera House Only place in Lakeview for holding public entertainments

S. J. STUDLEY F. E. HARRIS

STUDLEY & HARRIS LAKEVIEW FURNITURE CO.

Full and complete stock of Everything in the line of FURNITURE

JUST OPENED. GOODS ARRIVING ALL THE TIME. Snider Building on Water St. ...LAKEVIEW, OREGON... CALL AND SEE OUR STOCK AND GET OUR PRICES

NEW YEAR'S OF OLD.
 Antiquers over to the other service. The prompt manner in which the militia banded the interlopers over to Washington had much to do with the speedy compliance of congress with their just demands. It was a happy turn in a most embarrassing affair.
 On New Year's day, 1815, during the second day of the battle below New Orleans, the British made the most determined of their three assaults and lost the flower of their army. From this day until 1802, from some strange freak of fate, which seems to bunch her important events on certain days, few things of note occurred. But in 1802, the second and most critical year of the civil war, congress entered some thing which will forever be memorable to many general economists—the suspension of specie (money) until further notice. Just now such a huge machine managed in eight months New Year's day, 1870, which specie payment was resumed, will be a matter of oppression went among the economists of the future.

A Queer Berlin Custom.
 One of the queerest New Year's customs is the unwritten privilege of the Berlin riddle to smash any silk hat that appears in Berlin's streets on New Year's day.

Saddle Horses Wanted.
 *I want saddle horses 14-2 to 15 1/2 hands high, 5 to 8 years old. I will buy at Bly, Or., January 7, 1902; Ft. Bidwell, Jan. 10; Lake City, Jan. 11; Cedarville, Jan. 12; Alturas, Jan. 13 and 14; Davis Creek, Jan. 16; Crooked Creek Jan. 18; Paisley, Jan. 20.
 O. P. BERNIER,
 Lakeview, Or., Jan. 1, 1902.

Stolen Horse Recovered.
 On Oct. 13, 1901, there was stolen from Edson Bros. of Beswick, Cal., a bay horse, 7 years old, by a barber, who happened in that neighborhood, named Maynard, alias Miles. Notice was duly sent to Sheriff Dunlap to be on the lookout for the thief, and his vigilance was rewarded about ten days ago by the discovery that Maynard alias Miles had stopped at Summer Lake and traded the Edson horse to D. B. Conrad of that place, for another animal, then proceeded to Lon Long's place at Christmas Lake where he remained over night. The next day he proceeded to Wagonville, where he worked at the Egli ranch up to about three weeks ago. He left there on the horse he got from Conrad and said he was going to Idaho. He had too long a start of Sheriff Dunlap, and that officer concluded it was useless to pursue him. Edson Bros. offered $25 reward for the recovery of their horse, which reward was due Sheriff Dunlap. Mr. Conrad willingly parted with the horse when he discovered he was stolen property, and the animal was sent down last week, and forwarded in charge of the Western Stage Company to Edson Bros. at Beswick. Upon receipt of the $25 reward Sheriff Dunlap will turn it over to Mr. Conrad to partly remunerate him for the loss of his animal which was ridden away by Maynard alias Miles.

DIED BY HIS OWN HAND

Jesse Combs Adds Another to the List of Sunday Morning's Sad Tragedies.

It was destined that Lakeview should have a chapter of tragedies last Sunday. It was not enough that two bright boys should lose their lives in the waters of Goose Lake, but another shocking event must take place to cast sorrow and gloom in our town and in another household. At 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, at the Tamatac ranch owned by Pierce Combs, fifteen miles northwest from Lakeview, Jesse Combs, second son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Combs, came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by himself, probably with suicidal intent. The young man was aged 21 years, 6 months, and 22 days. He had been residing at the country ranch with his brother Arthur. About seven o'clock Arthur arose and prepared the morning meal. He told his brother to get up and have breakfast, but Jesse informed him that he wanted nothing to eat. The younger brother says he had about finished his meal when he heard his brother say: "I am going to kill myself." The boy says he had heard Jesse make the same remark so often before that he paid no attention to it, but the threat was soon carried out, for within thirty seconds thereafter a pistol shot rang out, and when the brother rushed to the room he found Jesse gasping his last. The bullet from a 38 calibre revolver had plowed through his forehead into the brain. The brother remained with Jesse about twenty minutes before starting to town to notify his parents, and was satisfied that death was almost instantaneous. Some who know Jesse Combs most intimately think it might have been an accident, but the circumstances go to show that it was doubtless a deliberate suicide. The young man had been in miserable health for a long time and was a victim of catarrh in its worst form. He undoubtedly brooded over his ill health and suffered very much, realizing that there was small prospect for a restoration to health, and in a melancholy moment decided to end it all on that fatal Sunday morning.

The parents, accompanied by Dr. Daly, started for the scene of the tragedy as soon as the news reached here. They found the young man in bed where the deed was committed, and there was every evidence that life had departed within a few seconds after the fatal shot was fired. The remains were brought to town and preparations were made for the funeral, to take place on Monday at 2 p. m. All was in readiness at that hour, when word arrived from the cemetery that through a mistake the grave had been dug in the wrong place. The funeral was consequently postponed until 10 a. m. Tuesday. It was a distressing mistake, and the sorrowing mother was compelled to pass through another ordeal of suffering as a result.

Jesse Combs was a good, hard-working boy, who had suffered much in bodily health. He had frequent spells of melancholy and despaired of ever getting well. Those who were best acquainted with him say that he had many good traits of character and always tried to do right. The funeral was held from the family residence in Lakeview and services were held at the home by Rev. C. W. Holloman. Many friends of the family attended. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Drama at Crane Creek.

"Jerry the Tramp, a Noble Outcast," a thrilling drama, in four acts, was presented by local talent at Crane Creek last Saturday evening. Quite a number of people from Lakeview attended, and all say that it was a splendid entertainment and the drama was well rendered. The attendance was good. The admission was only 25 cents for adults, which accounts for the small receipts, $23. The proceeds will be used to purchase a bell for the school building.

In Memory of a Hero.

TO EXAMINER EDITOR:
 DEAR SIR:—No doubt there are numerous warm friends of the late Fred Snelling who, like myself, would be glad to express in some way, their love and great admiration for that noble boy. This feeling could not be expressed in a better way than by erecting a monument, suitably inscribed, to the brave young hero who lost his life in attempting the rescue of a drowning comrade. Although he knew full well all the risk to life, he accepted that risk without hesitation. To all mutual friends and admirers of this remarkable boy, I would respectfully suggest that we authorize the Lake County Examiner to receive subscriptions for a monument to his memory, and I hereby subscribe the sum of twenty-five dollars.
 Very Truly,
 T. V. HALL, M. D.

Bob Ogleby was released from the penitentiary yesterday.

Frank Leonard and G. S. Farra arrived from Bly last Saturday.

Miss Essie Gupton has gone to Prineville, Crook County, to join her father.

Everything but whiskey at The Excelsior.

Lilburn Morris is at Harris Bros. ranch at Summer Lake, doing carpentering work.

W. H. Shirk, land agent, returned Friday from a business trip to Klamath Falls.

There is much talk of the Sumpter Valley Railroad being extended to Burns next year.

Those desiring fine dressed lumber should see F. E. Russell.

The people of the Davis Creek section enjoyed a masquerade ball on Christmas night.

Born—In Lakeview, December 26, 1901, to the wife of Frank W. Hutchins, a daughter.

John R. Rogers, governor of Washington, died on the 26th ult. at Olympia, of pneumonia.

See the beautiful line of mufflers and silk handkerchiefs at The Monogram.

Misses Etta and Nettie Vinyard, the Lake City teachers, were visitors in Lakeview Monday.

Samuel Dixon has been appointed P. M. at Olene, Klamath county, Or., vice G. E. Anderson, resigned.

L. B. Whorton has been seriously ill for the past ten days, but is reported somewhat improved at this writing.

F. E. Russell, late of the Cottonwood mill, has a large lot of fine dressed lumber for sale. See him.

Mart Walters has been quite ill at intervals for the past three weeks, but is gaining somewhat in strength now.

Mrs. Walter Tracy of Drews Valley has been visiting friends in Lakeview for the past week, passing the holidays.

Carl Coffman came over from Cedarville Tuesday to visit his brother Fletcher Coffman. He will remain a week.

One should keep warm these cold nights. Go to The Monogram and price those fine comforters and blankets.

Mrs. Dave Miller and children of Surprise Valley, are visiting relatives at New Pine Creek. Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Rev. Vinyard.

Thos. Keir the stone mason did not go to Alturas last week as reported. He is still in Lakeview, but will probably go to Modoc soon.

Dr. F. E. Smith returned last Sunday morning from Salem and other railroad points, after an absence of three weeks on business.

Good clear dressed lumber ought to be in demand. F. E. Russell has it in large quantities. See him, or address him at Lakeview.

Principal J. R. McCormack of the Lakeview public school is reported seriously ill this week. Mr. McCormack is threatened with pneumonia.

George Parker, the boss logger, and a genial fellow whenever you meet him, spent holiday week in Lakeview. He returned to the woods last Monday.

Mrs. Louis Hersig, James Emery and Louis Smart were here from Ft. Klamath on land business last Saturday. They were guests at Hotel Lakeview.

The New Era says that news reached Alturas last week to the effect that the Southern Pacific Company had purchased the N-C-O. Railroad and would make it a broad gauge and extend the line to a northern connection. The news has not been confirmed.

See County Clerk's notice regarding Registration, in this issue.

Services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday, morning and evening. All invited.

The Reno Gazette issued a Christmas number that was very creditable. The Gazette is always up at the front in enterprise.

The case before the Supreme Court from Lake county, Small vs. Lutz, will come up for hearing at Salem on January 6th.

Ed Stewart, the mule buyer, returned to Lakeview from Modoc county last Saturday. He purchased 37 head of mules at Adin.

A. H. Hamersley purchased 80 acres of land from Pierce Combs last Saturday. The land adjoins the Hamersley place near Thomas creek, northwest of Lakeview.

Born—At New Pine Creek, Or., Dec. 25, 1901, to the wife of Frank Cannon, a nine-pound daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon are very proud of their pretty Christmas present.

It's going to snow pretty soon now. You can get the best quality of felt, overshoes and rubbers for men, women and children at The Monogram.

An enjoyable dance and supper was given at Augur Valley last Friday night. Quite a large crowd went out from Lakeview and all had a good time. They always do in Augur valley.

Albert Ward, stockman and manager of the George Freeman ranch near Ft. Bidwell, was a business visitor in Lakeview last Monday. Mr. Ward's last visit to Lakeview was many years ago.

B. F. Hackinay's big freighting outfit brought in from the railroad last Friday a large safe for the local land office as a handsome roll-top oak desk for the O. O. F. Lodge. The safe weighed 35 pounds.

W. Z. Moss returned from Tern Saturday, where he saw Mrs. Ed Moore and his wife and daughter safe on the train enroute to Oklahama. The ladies will probably visit St. Louis before returning.

Mrs. Walter Sharp left for Ft. Monday morning, accompanied by little son. Mrs. Sharp will go to hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis. It is to be hoped that Sharp will return thoroughly to health.

The finest line of medium and heavy winter underwear can be found at Monogram. Ahlstrom Bros. have almost everything but automobiles and threshing machines, and they get you either of those if you leave an order.

Rev. Virgil Vinyard, son of Rev. Vinyard, pioneer of Goose Lake, arrived from Anderson, Cal., last week and occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church at New Pine Creek Sunday. It is said that the young pastor has considerable ability and preaches an excellent sermon.

Mrs. Lizzie Chrisman died to Lakeview last Saturday. She was the Southern. Mrs. Chrisman died last summer in Portland and 8 months ago went to Auburn, Cal., with Major and Mrs. P. G. Chrisman. Her little daughter remains with her parents.

J. S. Field returned California on the 25th ult. Since here Mr. Field has seen a good the Golden State. He spent a day at Lakeport, and then went to where he located his family for winter. Mrs. Field and children enjoying excellent health when he returned. Jud will probably remain in spring.