

LOCAL & PERSONAL COMING & GOING

One half the amount of your county taxes can be paid in county warrants from now until first Monday in April.

Felix M. Green has returned from a business trip to Sacramento. He says the N. C. Ry. track has been completed to Madeline and further work is suspended on account of the weather.

An elegant supper and all night dance by the Woodmen of the World in Lakeview on Friday, February 21st. Supper to be donated by the Women of Woodcraft. Tickets, ball and supper $2.50.

Everybody will go to the ball and supper at the McCulley place, three miles north of Lakeview, Friday evening, Feb. 7th, because it is for the benefit of the public school in that district.

S. P. Moss and family returned last Thursday from California. They visited San Francisco and other points of interest in the Golden State, and Mr. Moss has been physically benefitted by the trip.

The quarantine station has been moved from the bridge at the north end of Paisley to a point south of that town, owing to the prevalence of the disease there, and to punish people living this side of Paisley.

A deed is on record at the County Clerk's office which conveys from Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil to J. H. Lechman their home place on Kelly Creek, near the state line. The price paid was $6,000. It is a fine ranch.

A "partyless" local paper is trying to palm off the Salem Sentinel as a "Republican paper." It won't do. The Sentinel is a calumny howling populist publication that finds a purpose in slandering Governor Geer.

"Who's got any potatoes or apples to sell?" Whoever has can make money by calling on the majority of residents of Lakeview. Potatoes, particularly, are in great demand since the night the mercury rushed down the course to 13 below.

Prepare for the grand ball and supper to be given by Lakeview Camp, No. 526, Woodmen of the World, on Friday evening, Feb. 21st. No effort will be spared to make this, the third anniversary ball, the swellest ever given in Lakeview.

Oregon is getting a big reputation as a wheat raiser. Ship after ship is sailing to Oregon's chief port to load with the cereal, and they are coming so fast that the state cannot accommodate them, and they will be held at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Finchart of Crooked Creek arrived from Surprise Valley last Saturday morning on their return trip, after visiting ten days with relatives. They came in on the coldest morning of the season and were anything but comfortable.

The Plaine dealer says: R. M. Russell has sold his bar fixtures in the Grand Central to Mrs. Jones. Mr. Russell will leave in a few days for the new town of Madeline to take charge of the hotel at that place. "Dick" is a good man and knows how to "keep hotel."

G. M. Sain, president of the Oregon Potash Company, is the author of a new novel, "The Serpent," which will be published before the first of February by the Apollo Book Company of Chicago. Mr. Sain has also been appointed postmaster at Lovelock, Nevada.

F. I. Everett, representing Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co. of Chicago, one of the largest hardware houses in the world, was in town several days during the past week, in the interest of his firm. Mr. Everett is making a tour of the Surprise Valley towns this week.

J. S. Parker, attorney, has located in Alturas. Mr. Parker is from Missouri but you don't have to show him. He can see for himself during the progress of the lynching cases.

Yesterday, January 29th, was the anniversary of the birth of William McKinley, ex-president, patriot, martyr and beloved citizen. The Lakeview public school observed the occasion.

Saturday night, January 25th, when the mercury reached 13 degrees below zero, the heavy wire on the Lake County telephone line snapped in twain, near Crooked Creek. The break was found and repaired early next morning, and business on the line was not suspended.

The Quaker Doctors, O. Stratton and W. H. R. Huff, accompanied by their troupe of performers Maud and Harry Holmes and Harry Howard, are now in Lakeview giving free performances every evening. The show is really good—in fact much better than the average traveling shows at 50 cents per seat.

Winter will be here soon? Don't let your feet get "nipped in the bud," but go to Ahlstrom Bros and get your rubbers, acetone and warm "socks." 4-1

C. C. McCray, the "Missouri drummer," created a big sensation in San Francisco the other day by breaking out with the smallpox, at the Russ House. The hotel was quarantined and all the guests and visitors at the establishment were treated to compulsory vaccination. McCray is now an inmate of Frisco's pest house.

"Grandma" Chandler Hurt.

Mrs. B. S. Chandler ("Grandma"), met with a serious accident last Friday. She went out to the chicken yard to feed her flock when she slipped on the ice and fell heavily to the ground, where she remained for a half-hour or more, before she was found. She became unconscious from the fall, and was carried to the house when discovered. The aged woman is rallying from the shock, but it is feared a long time will elapse before she entirely recovers her wonted activity.

Silver Lake Nuptials.

January 22nd a license was issued by County Clerk Gunther authorizing the marriage of A. A. Martin and Miss Cora A. Wardwell, both of Silver Lake. It is presumed that the wedding has already taken place. The groom is a son of County Commissioner J. M. Martin, and is an excellent young man. The bride is the daughter of G. B. Wardwell, and is a highly esteemed and accomplished young woman. The Examiner joins with many friends in wishing the young couple a long life of happiness and prosperity.
