

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

Oliver E. Charlton was up from New Pine Creek this week.

R. W. Marple, liveryman from Klamath Falls, was in town this week.

Born—At Bonanza, Oregon, last week, to the wife of Marion Bennett, a son.

Born at Lake City, Cal., January 19, 1902, to the wife of R. E. Jones, a son.

Judge Harrington of Modoc was too busy yesterday to send Judge Harris to jail.

Creed McKendree, the fly stockman, was a business visitor in Lakeview last Saturday.

Ed. Hartzog, merchant of New Pine Creek, was a business visitor in Lakeview last Friday.

"Poison Creek Notes" in the last issue of Burns Items has evidently got the "Cholera," whatever new disease that is.

Miss Frances Jones of Paisley is visiting friends in Lakeview, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson.

Gardner fouled Root in the seventh round in San Francisco last Friday night, and the latter was given the decision.

Last Sunday was ground-hog day. The little weather prophet came out, but went back in his hole for another six weeks.

"Two souls with but a single thought," from all outward appearances, can be seen daily passing by our sanctum window.

A correspondent says that I. E. Davies postmaster and merchant of Dairy, is a rueler, and is instrumental in making Dairy a good town.

O. L. Stanley, sturdy farmer of Cogswell Creek, and Mr. Rice, proprietor of the Fandango saw mill, were in Lakeview Tuesday on business.

"Grandma" Chandler is recovering slowly from the accidental fall she received last week. She was on the road to recovery at last reports.

C. M. Idleman Ex-Attorney General of Oregon, was a business visitor in Lakeview last week, returning to his home in Portland via the west Monday morning.

The amount of subscription to the Fred Snelling monument fund at this office, to date, is $220.00. R. R. Tandy, of North Yakima, Wash., is the latest subscriber to the fund with $5.

Hon. R. A. Enmitt of Keno, who last year surveyed a big tract of government land near The Dalles, has a contract to survey another large body near Bend, Crook county, the coming summer.

It is reported that contractor Yadin, of the Ashland-Klamath Falls mail route, has been awarded the contract on the Klamath Falls-Lakeview route for carrying the mails. This is merely a rumor.

Bert Nichols and wife, and the latter's sister, Jennie Grimes, left for Klamath Falls Monday morning. If the roads don't break up they will continue on to Medford, near which city Mr. Nichols will engage in farming.

Albert Tozier, President of the National Editorial Association, has returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he has been booming the great Oregon Fair all along the line. Tozier is a boomer from Boomerville.

The San Francisco Chronicle of last Friday announces the divorce proceedings of Allie Mabel Hopkins vs. L. L. Hopkins, on the grounds of failure to provide. Plaintiff asks that she be allowed to resume her maiden name, Mabel White.

Mr. Leasing Bill Lusk of Chico and the P ranch has called a meeting of his cohorts in Washington to put up a fight for the Land Leasing Act. All the stock wealth of the West is at Washington haunting the halls of Congress, and "buttonholing" Eastern members to stand in for the robbing scheme, but thank God the West has a coterie of Congressmen who are able to cope with them on any issue they may bring up.

Miss Carlwell, one of the teachers in the Klamath Falls school, has been called to Jacksonville by the death of her mother, leaving for there last Friday. Her place in the school is being filled by Miss Minnie Applegate.—Klamath Express.

Charlie Bernard, one of the gay boys from Alturas, was with his Lakeview friends a day or two this week. Charley says Alturas is quiet, apparently, but once inside the Court of Justice pandemonium reigns, and there is "something doin'" all the time.

The Woodmen will have the opera house beautifully decorated for the ball on Friday evening, Feb. 21-3.

Of all men the liar is the most miserable. The thief likes a thief. The robber fellowships with robbers. The drinking man flocks with the drinking men. The gossip associates with the gossip, but even the liar hates the liar and will have as little to do with him as possible. Fact!

The Redding Searchlight says that the cattlemen of the country are anxious to have the land leasing bill passed. The Searchlight might amend this statement by adding, "the wealthy stockmen." No small stockman, rancher or homesteader favors any such proposition.

The Chewaucan Post went off half-cocked last week, and charged Messrs Phelps and Holmes as being "traveling swindlers." Everybody knows those gentlemen to be all right. Editor Metzker must certainly have been badly mixed up.

Jack Miller, the well known Jehu on the western stage route, and Miss Archie Keesee, daughter of Attorney H. W. Keesee, of Klamath Falls, were married at the home of the bride's father at the Falls on January 28th. The bride is said to be a prepossessing young woman with many friends.

The supper for the Woodmen ball on the 21st inst. is to be donated by the Women of Woodcraft, and will be a grand feast.

Attorney Robt. F. Bell, of the firm of Cogswell & Bell, who came to Lakeview last October to reside and look after the law practice of the firm, has gone back to Portland. Mr. Bell is a pleasant gentleman and a good lawyer, and made many friends in Lake county during his short stay.

J. Cal. Eubanks and Harry F. Adler, two popular representatives of prominent wholesale houses in San Francisco, were with the business men of Lakeview several days during the past week. Both gentlemen have a big trade for their houses here. They left for the south yesterday in a driving snowstorm.

Congressman Tongue has presented a long petition, signed by members of the courts of Oregon, the members of the Legislature, and prominent citizens generally protesting against the policy of policing forest reservations. The petitioners insist that the forest rangers now employed who understand their duties and perform them faithfully, should be retained.

Everybody is preparing for the Woodmen's grand ball and supper on Friday evening, February 21st. It will be a swell affair.

Capt. Applegate reports that work was suspended November 31st on the Modoc Point irrigating ditch and will be resumed early in the spring with a force of fifty men, says the Klamath Republican. The ditch will be thirteen miles long and will water above 10,000 acres of land. It is the first of several irrigating enterprises proposed for the Klamath reservation.

A defective flue in the Linnville house opposite John McElhinney's on Main street, came near causing what might have been a serious conflagration last Sunday morning. The fire raged for a time between the ceiling and roof but those who had the matter in hand went about the work of quenching the flames in a cool and deliberate manner, and the incipient blaze was put out with a few buckets of water, and there was no excitement.

Some people in Lakeview should remember that a tongue may inflict a deeper wound than a sword.

A Tennessee girl the other night stole out over the sleeping form of her mother, eloped with and married her lover. That kind of a wife is worth having. If she can slip out over her mother without awakening her, she ought to be able to slip out over her sleeping spouse and kindle fires without awakening him.

A man was afraid of thunder and crawled into a hollow log as a place of safety, says a truthful exchange. The thunder roared and the rain poured down in torrents. The log began to swell and the poor fellow was wedged in. Past sins began passing before him. Suddenly he remembered that he had not paid his newspaper subscription, and then he felt so small he was able to back right out.

Last Sunday there were shipped from Reno to Chicago sixteen cars of as fine cattle as ever left for the markets. The Gazette says that P. L. Flanagan had four cars, the Oakland Meat Company six cars. These cattle are all of the very highest grades and are expected to command top-notch prices upon arriving at their destination. The shipment will be in charge of Al Henderson of the Oakland Meat Company.

J. F. Willis of Sonanza learned by accident last week of the death of his son Van at Redding, Cal. The son and his wife were both in the hospital at that place, sick with typhoid fever; Van died, but the wife recovered after lingering for forty days. The family at Bonanza were never notified of the death and burial, but incidentally found it out through a friend in Merrill. The body was exhumed and brought up for interment in Bonanza cemetery.

Some time ago the editor of the Eugene Register advertised that he had found an article made of black elastic web, which looked too small for a belt and too large for a sleeve holder, which the owner could have by calling at the Register office. No fee for notice was attached. The next Sunday a young lady came and asked for the article. The editor blushed deeply, but stepping to the wall took it from the nail where he had hung it, and handed it to her. She thanked him, slipped the web over her Bible and proceeded on her way to Sunday School with a look of sweet peace that is known only to those who live pure lives and have their names written in the Lamb's Book of life.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

The Oder of Flowers

That is what a perfume should be—true to Nature, delicate, lasting. We have just received a fresh lot from the place where the flowers grow. These are among the most delicate extracts made; they convey an air of refinement. If you have never used any of our perfumes, come in and sample them. A large variety to select from.
