

SCHOOL PAPER.

ISSUED WEEKLY, for and by the pupils of the Lakeview Public School.

JORIE HARVEY, Editor.
EDNA CLOUD and P. F. A. BOCHE, Associates.

Re-rk! Re-rk! Re-rk-lu!
Tip-top class of 1902!
Who?
US!

Two new members in our Club.

A few sleepy students this week.
Wonder why?

Miss Butler, the teacher, was taken suddenly ill last Friday.

Edna Hoeyford has been compelled to quit school on account of her eyes.

The Seventh and Eighth grades had a spelling match last Friday. Eighth won.

Grace Stripin, while at school two weeks ago, was taken seriously ill. We are glad to learn that Grace is able to be out again.

Several students of the 8th, 9th and 10th grades are preparing to take the teachers' examination to be given in August.

Any one thinking he or she is bright in arithmetic, and desiring to find an equal, should apply to some of the high school pupils who will work with the applicant on one problem, again—which the h, c, p. thought quite simple; but it seems the problem remains unsolved.

Club meeting Tuesday, February 4, for the first time in two weeks. Club called to order by Chairman Genie Snelling. Prof. J. R. McCormack proposed to the Club that they have an editor and two assistants. Motion carried that the chairman appoint the same. The chair appointed Josie Harvey editor-in-chief, and Edna Cloud and Phillip Boche associate editors. As the time of the officers of the Club had expired, the Club proceeded to elect new officers as follows: Genie Snelling, chairman (re-elected); Tom Burgess, secretary (re-elected); R. Kooser, treasurer.

Woodmen Postpone Ball.

Owing to the prevalence of so much sickness, and the fear of smallpox, Camp No. 26, W. O. W., has very wisely concluded to postpone its grand ball and supper to the evening of March 17.

E. P. Reeves of Klamath Falls has purchased a fine standard-bred mare in California, paying $1200 for the animal.

W. Z. Moss bought twenty head of horses during the past week from Wm. Currier, Gus Schroder, Lutz & McCarty and Willis Barnum. He and Jim Dodson drove in 100 head from the north Tuesday night, a portion of the band having been purchased for Benefiel, who is buying for the English government. The latter will be driven to Reno for shipment, and the Moss horses will go to Bidwell for pasturage.

We presume from the following, taken from the Klamath Express, that John Odum of Lakeview has returned from his visit to the South: "Mr. and Mrs. John Short and her brother from Lake County, returned the middle of last week from their old home in Georgia, where they visited for a month. They say that during their stay the weather was colder there than it is here in the winter time, and much more disagreeable.

An effort is being made to check the noxious gases that flow from the cesspool in the rear of Hotel Lakeview, and which contaminate the atmosphere for a few blocks along the center of Main street. Much complaint has been made regarding this nuisance, and the Town Council has made an order allowing the owners of the property to run a sewer-box from the cesspool to the flume to drain the pool, the sewer-box to be opened and flushed out at stated intervals while a flow of water courses through the big flume. The Council will look after the matter and will only have the box opened when high water runs in the flume.

MRS. M. E. MUNROE.

Mrs. M. E. Munroe died at her home at Ft. Bidwell, Cal., on February 8, 1902, after a long and lingering illness with an incurable disease. She was the wife of Marshall Munroe, a pioneer of Modoc county, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. Deceased was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1845. When a child she came with her parents to America and located at Yonkers, N. Y. In 1868, having previously been married, she came to Surprise Valley with her husband, where they lived together until his death in 1880. Four sons and three daughters was the issue of this marriage, one daughter having succumbed to scarlet fever when quite young.

Deceased was admired for her many womanly virtues and her kind-heartedness, and her death, though anticipated for some time, cast a gloom upon the community in which she lived. Death to her was a welcome visitor. She was a great though patient sufferer for many months before the final summons came to relieve her of her earthly troubles. When told she was dying the good woman resigned herself to the Creator and passed away peacefully. The funeral was held on the 8th inst, at Ft. Bidwell, and the remains were placed by the side of her husband.

Deceased leaves to mourn her death two daughters, Mrs. Geo. H. Ayers of Lakeview, and Miss Bertha Munroe of Ft. Bidwell; also four sons Edward, Roger, Alexander and William Munroe of Surprise Valley. She also leaves many warm personal friends who deeply regret her death.
