

DOOMED TO DEFEAT

Senator Bard Intimates That Big Cattlemen are on the Wrong Trail, and That the Law Would Injure Settlers

A Washington dispatch says that F. C. Lusk of Chico, president of the National Cattle-growers Association, and Colonel John P. Irish, chairman of the legislative committee, were presented to the President on Feb. 1st by Senator Perkins: Their object in seeing the President was to enlist his interest in the Bowersock bill, proposing to lease all the vacant public lands west of the one hundred and first meridian for terms of ten or twenty years at 2 cents per acre for grazing purposes.

Senator Bard, who, as a member of the Public Lands Committee, is conversant with the proposed legislation, said, on the 1st inst: There is some merit in the proposition to lease the public lands for grazing purposes, but I think the bill as it stands has no show of passing Congress. Nor do I think it should. It is a question that should be investigated carefully. To my mind it would be better to place the matter in charge of the Secretary of the Interior, giving him discretion as to leasing lands. It is a common complaint of small settlers in the West who have taken up homesteads and are struggling to maintain a home, that they are overridden by the grazing interests. Many settlers use the vacant lands adjoining their claims for grazing their small bands of cattle, and in many cases they are deprived of their privilege. I have heard of cases of great aggression against settlers. Therefore to pass a law giving the cattlemen a right to lease immense tracts might lead to land monopoly, infringement on the rights of home builders and, other conditions inimical to progress and justice. If a bill can be framed permitting grazing on vacant lands under proper regulations it may be a good thing.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Lee Beall. Price 50c.

The Future Looks Bright.

The Chewaucan Post has passed the first milestone and its publisher says that the paper is on a solid foundation, one that insures its continuation. Last Thursday the Post entered upon its second year. It is an acknowledged fact that the Paisley publication under the management of Mr. Metzger has been a great surprise to the public. Few believed that Paisley was large enough to support a newspaper, but it has done so handsomely because the citizens of that section are liberal and enterprising. A big change has come for Paisley and surrounding country since the advent of the Post, and though the editor modestly declines to accept all the credit for such change, still the public must acknowledge that a good, live local paper has been instrumental in making the town of Paisley and Northern Lake known to the outside world. Much activity has taken the place of little energy and less enterprise up there during the past year, and the future of the pretty little town and the north end looks bright. The Examiner congratulates the Post on its success on its first birthday.

A VAGARY.

Some day, I know, when love has cleared our eyes
Of these dull mists that now bedim our sight,
We shall have power to see and recognize
The mystic form that whispers from the night.

We shall be able, then, to penetrate
The somber curtain that conceals our lot—
The ghostly veil that now obscures our fate
And still defies the prophet's searching thought.

We shall be able to deduce the cause
And know the Whys and Wherefores of our pain—
To grasp the trend of God's enduring laws,
And in each loss discern the truer gain.

The smile of Janns shall be powerless then,
The kiss of Judas shall be cold to all;
Man will be man, among a world of men,
And hearts as true as once—before the Fall!

The pyrrhonism of this restless world,
Like dream-view vapors, will forever fade;
The somber curtain shall be upward tured,
And Doubt will stand dishonored and dismayed!

T. Shelly Sutton.

Williamson Distinguished Himself.

The Crook County Journal says: Colonel R. C. Judson, Industrial Agent for the O. R. & N., was a business visitor to our town and vicinity last Thursday. He was looking after matters pertaining to his office. The Colonel reports that the photos of C. Sam Smith's cattle that were taken at the meeting of the National Livestock Association at Kansas City, attracted more attention than any other one thing there. The eastern stock raisers could not believe that the originals of the photos had not been fed corn and meal, but had only been running on the range and eating common bunch grass. He says our coming congressman, J. N. Williamson, distinguished himself at the meeting and gained a reputation for forceful argument that will do much towards bringing Oregon into prominence.

Oyster cocktails, fresh, temperate and delicious, just received at Post & King's. This beverage is very refreshing, is good for the stomach and builds up the system. If your appetite is failing try an oyster cocktail; it is always palatable and gives an appetite for other foods. Physicians recommend it, and Post & King always have it fresh and pure, put up by the best manufacturers in the city. 45-11

It is good news to Eastern Oregon people to learn that the land leasing bill is doomed to defeat. But, we should not lose sight of this matter, for it will bob up again in the next Congress, and it will take organized effort in the West to defeat it. Had it not been so vigorously opposed at this session there is little doubt but what the law would have passed. All honor to the vigilance and energy of the Warner people in Lake county who assisted with all their might in the defeat of this bill. Let us be on guard and prepare a still greater opposition to any such measure in the ext Congress. The scheme of the wealthy stockmen to control the range and drive out the small stockman and homesteader with his few head of stock will live and flourish if it is not vigorously opposed.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Depends upon the name. Scott's Emulsion is a name that has value. Maybe it doesn't mean much to you—but to the consumptive who has been strengthened and fattened, to the sickly children who have received good health, to the weak mothers and babies who have grown strong—to these Scott's Emulsion means something.

To all of them it has meant an easy and natural return to health.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

DESERT LAND PROOF

U. S. Land Office, Lakeview, Or., Jan. 11, 1902. Notice is hereby given that Joseph L. Shirk, of Shirk, Oregon, has filed notice of intention to make proof on his desert-land claim No. 416, NE 1/4 of SE 1/4 of Sec. 26, and NE 1/4 of NE 1/4 of Sec. 36 T. 38 S., R. 27 E., W. M. before the Register and Receiver at Lakeview, Oregon, on Friday the 21st day of February, 1902. He names the following witnesses to prove the complete irrigation and reclamation of said land: William Gilman, T. H. Akkire, C. H. Deboy, of Shirk, Oregon, and F. P. Lane of Lakeview, Oregon. JAD-2 E. M. BRATTAIN, Register.

Reward of Virtue.

A California teacher not long ago gave a youthful class a talk on the subject, "The Reward of Virtue." After careful explanation she requested the little ones to write a composition under this head, and the following day a boy paralyzed her with the following:

"Once upon a time there lived a Good boy and a good butifull Girl who went to school and got their lessons. After a long time they grew up and got married and the next day they Had twins, and this is the reward of virtue"—E. X.

Cattlemen Complain.

Cattle shippers here are complaining about the lack of switching facilities of the railroad, it appearing the increased shipping of stock here has made it almost impossible for the shippers to get their cattle off within the required time limit for stock to be in the cars, says the Reno Gazette. But twenty eight hours are allowed by law that cattle may be kept in cars in transit between here and San Francisco, and after the stock is loaded the cars in many instances are allowed to remain in the yards for ten or twelve hours before they are started to their destination.
