The wool situation has been materially strengthened by increased consumption in the United States, as well as by an advance in price abroad where the long industrial depression is at last yielding to the reviving influence of an improved demand for almost all classes of goods.

The San Francisco Examiner, in fighting against the exclusion of the Chinese, shows on its face the money check its publisher received for securing the friend of the Mongol and the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. That paper is thoroughly dishonest and dirty in every way and is an enemy to the Pacific Coast.

Oregonian: Your registration of two years ago is useless for this year. You can't vote this year unless you register this year, and you can't vote in the primaries, which is the actual election, unless you register before the primaries are held. Within the next 60 days everybody who is to participate in politics this year must be registered, and since there will be a press and crush toward the end, you had better register now.

The father of Miss Murry, the Missouri 8 foot giantess, has at last found a suitable mate for his daughter in the person of one Edward Beaupre of Montana, who is no hantam, being twenty-two years old, eight feet high and weighing 365 pounds. His shoes are number 22 (don't say how wide but presumably XXX). It is hoped the match will be consummated as it would interest science to know what the harvest would be.—Willows Journal.

The St. James Gazette says the English Government has been swindled. "Horses, or at least four-legged creatures," says the Gazette, "have been bought for £33, when only worth a quarter of that sum. The difference, three-quarters, has gone into the pockets of certain persons. If they can provide the money got there properly, well and good. If not, the conclusions are obvious. There must be no whitewashing." The "Renoum" or army horse scandal has created one of the sensations of the day in England.

The "Lynchers' Comedy" still holds the boards in Altura with Judge Harrington playing the part of injured justice, and little "Johnny Baker" the roll of heavy villain. The prisoners at the bar are introducing many startling events in the history of their lives, while the people of Medoc are divided, but paying for the comedy to the tune of about three hundred dollars a day. If the comedy does not turn into a tragedy before the curtains fall it will be a wonder, for the good thing brings another year away.—Reno Gazette.

Kavanaugh is becoming well placed for gun practice. On February 14th a shooting affair centered there. Dolbear, Sr. and a well-known Moose being the principals. The result is not stated, but it is presumed a killing was avoided owing to bad marksmanship. The Yuba Journal says that Rhodes, who shot and killed Charley Sears at Healy some weeks ago, and was himself seriously battered over the head with an iron spittoon by Sears after he was shot, is slowly improving at the county hospital, but is not out of danger yet. He shows great vitality, considering the large gash in the top of his head, with another dangerous looking wound on the side of the head.

A BLOODY DUEL.

One German Insults Another and the Results are Awful!

"Sir, you haf insulted me!"
"So! How did I did it?"
"You wrinkled your nose by me."
"So! You mean like dot, and dot?"
"Scoutrel! Ve vill fight. Vat is your peesness?"
"Dot's my peesness. Vat is your peesness?"
"I am a Cherman lieutenant."
"I am sorry for de army."
"So! Und you will fight yet?"
"Oh I vill fight ven you are retty."
"Vat is to be de weapon?"
"I haf my choice, of course."
"Not unless you choose pistols."
"Und vi do you prefer pistols?"
"Because I am a putty good pistol shooter."
"I see. Den I vill not fight you."
"If you do not fight and let me kill you, I vill prsrd you as a coward."
"If you prand me as a coward I vill pull your nose right before your face."
"You are as goot as a dead man."
"I am vorth a thousand dead men, you gooseneck monkey."
"Himmel! You haf insulted de army and ven you insult de army you insult de Emperor."
"Go vay from me, you pinheadet spindlelecks."
"You are no gentleman."
"I am glad of it."
"I vill see you later."
"Vot a pity."
"Bah!"
"Pooh!"

Had To Conquer or Die.

"I was just about gone," writes Mrs. Rosa Richardson, of Laurel Springs, N. C. "I had Consumption so bad that the best doctors said I could not live more than a month, but I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by seven bottles and am now stout and well." It's an unrivaled savior in Consumption, Pneumonia, La Grippe and Bronchitis; infallible for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Hay Fever, Croup or Whooping Cough. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Lee Beal's drug store.

James O'Neil the actor is a general favorite on the stage and is supposed to be a gentleman. He is either an over sensitive personage off the stage or he is a shrewd advertiser of himself. Only recently he has shown one or the other of these qualities. While taking the first honorary degree in the Order of Elks he objected to being hit with a stuffed club, and left the hall in a huff, but before going told the big-horned gentlemen present what he thought of them and their order. Of course any man with horse sense ought to know that the Elks would not do anything half way, and that they always give a man a run for his money. Jim certainly ought to have been aware of that before he engaged passage. However, the Elks committee suggest that Jimmy try it again and let the boys promise not to use the stuffed club on him, but give him the genuine article in broken doses.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Lozenges, Broms Quinine Tablets. All druggists furnish the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box, 25c. 419

You will never find a busy man meddling with other people's business nor one who is versed in general science. A well stored mind has not the room for gabbling nor has the mind of a busy man space for the needs of tale bearing. Education and business preoccupy and help benefits above such low and degrading prating. It is the iller who becomes the worse prater. He has a constant way along the devil. Locking the shutters, gossiping and trying to put members of a busy and intelligent mind. Take the course and vulgar and you will find where they dwell, discord, discussion, division and trouble. There is a peculiar characteristic of gossip—they never attack the characters of their equals, possibly because they have none, but like the night fly attack the candle, so they make their thrust at some one who stands preeminently above them and shines resplendently brighter than they.—Ex.
