"Ole Olson Jr." at the opera house tonight.

According to the new law the coming election in Oregon will be held on Monday, June 2nd.

Al E. Markham, manager of the New York Theater Co., arrived from the north Tuesday.

W. F. Grob and J. H. Turpin, two roasting sheepmen, arrived from the desert last Friday.

Read the advertisement of The Oregon in this issue, and try a meal and a night's lodging there.

J. Newsom, commercial traveler of San Francisco, was at Hotel Lakeview several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sherlock are soon to return to Lakeview from Thousand Spring ranch.

Equitable Life Strongest in the World Assets $30,020,000; Surplus $70,000,000.

Ike Dawson of Paisley and J. H. Gowdy of Silver Lake, were visitors in the county at this week.

Walter Duke, the Davis Creek landlord, who feeds the traveler well, came up from his home Monday.

It is expected that the lynching case at Alturas will go to the jury today. A conviction is not looked for.

George Swasey of New Pine Creek is driving on the Southern into Lakeview, and Mrs. Swasey is stopping in town.

Mrs. Ella Grob has been suffering for some time from inflammatory rheumatism but is reported on the improve this week.

J. L. Smith, local agent for the Equitable, has moved with his wife into the Turpin residence and are now keeping house.

Konic, owned by Caesar Young, and ridden by Lee Jackson, won the $10,000 Burns handicap at Oakland on the 15th inst. Time, 2:10 1/4.

When they operated on a Georgia boy the other day the surgeons found a tattoo in his interior. Just like a boy—always mislaying things.

Get your reserved seats at Beall's for the performance tonight. Chairs furnished by the management. Reserved at 75 cents. Careful ushers will see that you get the seats you buy.

It is understood that a force of 250 men will be put to work on the Che-waucan Land and Cattle Company's canal early in the spring.

After delving 1000 feet into the bowels of the earth near Redding, in search of oil, the promoters lost their drilling tools in the long hole, and have quit boring.

W. O. Stone, of Weed, Cal., arrived here last Friday and went on to Paisley to pay a visit to the family of his brother-in-law W. A. Bagley. Mr. Stone is a property owner in Lake county, and is a constant reader of The Examiner.

Mrs. F. M. Miller has been quite ill at Hotel Lakeview for a week past.

M. P. Barry, retired woolgrower, was spending the week here with his many friends.

Announcement of the exact date for the Woodmen ball will be made in The Examiner next week.

Since our last issue on the 20th inst., there have been .77 inches of rain. Five inches of snow fell during the week, the heaviest fall occurring on Tuesday night.

Lakeview theater goers will have three nights of first-class amusement. The New York Theater Company opens tonight in "Ole Olson, Jr." Popular prices.

Dr. Steiner was called to Rock Creek last Tuesday night to attend a serious case of sickness in the family of Dave Young. The Dr. started on his 70 mile ride at 10 p. m.

The "yellow flag" no longer floats to the breeze in Lakeview. As The Examiner stated last week the smallpox has been completely stamped out and eradicated here.

Jonas E. Norin, the sheepman, arrived from the desert Sunday and returned yesterday morning. Norin says sheep on the desert are doing well, and there have been no losses.

A private letter from C. A. Cogswell dated at Portland, February 20, says among other things: "It is raining here. Extraordinary?" Yes, quite extraordinary for Oregon's metropolis.

You have as good a chance as your neighbor to win one or two of those prizes at Ahlstrom Bros. Get a ticket with every 50 cent purchase. Every prize is useful. See big advertisement on fourth page.

There is a proposition on foot to build a wagon road from Paisley to Casebeer's station at Bly. It is understood to be a private enterprise to be assisted financially by Klamath county.

Mrs. Bradley Martin, noted for the "400 Bradley Ball," will not wear a coronet at King Edward's coronation. This is certainly a distressing piece of news to be flashed over the wire from Gotham. It's awful!

J. S. Field is now bedfast at Vallejo with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. It is his intention to spend a time at Lincoln, Placer county, as soon as he is able to move, and then to return with his family to Lakeview.

A crew of railroad surveyors have reached a point near Redding, having started at the Oregon Short Line connection in Idaho, and running through this state. It is believed to be a gang of Eureka & Eastern railway fieldmen.

The Equitable is in business to pay losses. It was not organized to engage in litigation with widows and fatherless children, or to make money by receiving interest on what may be due them, or by discounting policies that should be paid immediately and in full.—Statement of Henry B. Hyde—Founder of the Equitable Life.

Are there more Oregonians becoming crazy, or do they come from other localities half crazy and wind up in our asylum? There are at present 1228 patients in the insane asylum at Salem, the largest number that have ever been confined in that institution at any one time, since it was established.

NEW YORK COMPANY.

The New York Theatre Company Open at the Lakeview Opera House Tonight.

Al E. Markham's New York Theatre Company will open at the opera house tonight for 3 days engagement. The performance will open with a play never before seen in Lakeview, "Ole Olson Jr." This company comes with first-class recommendations. A popular play is put on each night; an entire change of program. There is plenty of singing and dancing to fill in, and everything is up-to-date. The company stopped over one night at Silver Lake and J. Q. Willits, who witnessed the performance, sends word ahead that it is high class in every particular, and that the trick bicyclists alone are worth the admission fee. The Prineville Review says the company is first-class and that Al Markham as "Ole Olson Jr." is a show in himself, and that Mrs. Markham is a talented actress.

The Review also says:

"Messrs Tossell and Mosier, known to the world as The Carroll Bros., are trick bicyclists. Their performance upon the bicycle seems marvelous. Mr. Mosier performs the difficult feat of turning a complete somersault and lighting upon the seat of his bicycle and riding right off. The company is good, and it is well worth any one's time to go and hear them."

The New York Theater Company will give a good bill during the week presenting such plays as "East Lynn," "Mavourneen, or Katie the Pride of Killdare," "Ole Olson Jr." on opening night, and other high-class plays. Be sure to see the opening performance tonight. Popular prices. Reserved seats at Beall's drug store.

The "Tonapah Fever."

Andy Devine has the Tonapah fever badly and expects to visit that mining camp within the next few weeks. Andy is a pretty good judge of minerals, knows gold when he sees it, and mining is his hobby. Manley Whorton, D. R. Jones, and other young men here are also affected, and intend to seek their fortunes at the desert camp. George Wingfield, who is said to have made $15,000 at Tonapah, has been writing his friends here, advising them about the chances there to make money. Another rich strike was recently made near Tonapah, and the claim was bonded to a company of capitalists for ninety days for $400,000. Wingfield says the sickness which has prevailed there owing to bad sanitary conditions has nearly abated, and the camp is taking on new life. Tonapah is likely to be an unhealthy place, however, the coming summer. And—there are other places, too, that are going to be hot holes of disease this summer because of bad sanitary conditions. Of them, more anon.

Moonlight in the Garden.

The day still dozes on, and in the shade, the bushes nod in silence, half asleep. Across the lawn the housewife shadows creep. Till now, at last, the evening bed is made. The sunflower droops, the yellow daisies fade, the winds, with gentle harpings low and deep, the quivering branches of the plane trees sweep; the birds, besought to silence, have obeyed. Now looks the moon across the dotted sky, to find this quiet Garden dark and fair, lying, a bridal maiden in the night; the bright faced lover sees him from on high, and down he drops a silent ladder there, depends, and fills her waiting heart with light!—Gelett Burgess.

Shingle Mill For Sale.

The only exclusive shingle mill in Lake county is offered for sale. The owner has concluded to dispose of it and engage in other pursuits. The mill is located 12 miles northwest from Lakeview, and is situated on a creek in a delightful summer location. The mill is run by steam and is complete with machinery and everything necessary for the manufacture of shingles. It has a capacity of 10,000 shingles a day for two men. With the mill will be sold 40 acres of deeded timber land, as fine as can be found in the county. For further particulars inquire at The Examiner office.
