... C. U. SNIDER ...

Wm. Metzker is visiting his daughter Allie in Paisley.

"And thus the curtain falls upon the greatest treat the world has ever known" is the way the New Era puts it.
Guess it was.

Spring will soon be here. Get your garden seeds at Schmincks. They are the best. A fine assortment. 8-2

Many cattle in Southern California have died on account of the drought this winter.

Wise men drink "Jesse Moore" Whiskey; fools drink anything the bartender foists upon them. Be wise—select your own beverage.

Prepare for the grand ball to be given by Lakeview Camp No. 526, Woodmen of the World, on Friday evening, March 21st. Tickets, ball and supper, $2.50.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hammond of Paisley have gone to Salem. Mr. Hammond will attend to business before the State Land Board, and Mrs. Hammond will go to Portland for a time to receive treatment at an hospital.

It has been said that "all whiskey is good." But "Jesse Moore" is better than others. Found at Jammertals.

Get a good, clean, hot bath at Frank Smith's shop. When you come out of the bath plant yourself in the chair and get a clean shave, after which try his sure sure dandruff medicine. 52-11

The quarantine stations have been withdrawn at Paisley by order of County Judge Tonningesen, as the small-pox has been stamped out there. It is said to say now that there is not a single case of the disease in the entire county. Those on the West Side have recovered, and the quarantine has been raised.

Wanted—Intelligent young men, from 17 to 19 years of age, having common school education, to learn mechanical trades. For full information apply to or write to Union Iron Works, 222 Market St., San Francisco. 2-2m

The city of Prineville doesn't know "where it is at." Mr. Adamson bought a piece of ground from Mr. Smith, supposed to be located in Prineville, but he can't find it. A corner stone of the town limits has disappeared, and several surveys have been made, no two of which are alike.

They had been talking of nicknames, and a New York teacher, whose school is on the East Side, said: "A boy of 7 came into my room. What is your name?
I asked him. 'Stub Williams.' After long questioning, I discovered that his name was Arthur. 'What is your father's name?' I asked. 'Beely Williams,' was his response. There his knowledge halted. He could not tell me more, because he did not know.
'Beely' was the only one he had ever heard. I told him to get the name for me. The next day he brought a note, scrawled on the margin of a newspaper.
'My name is James W. Williams,' it said, but what in h—l is the matter with Beely?"

Your chickens are "lousy" and your chicken house is full of insects. Your hens don't lay, no matter how much you feed them or how well you care for them. Makes you mad don't it? Well just go to Schminck's and get a can of that "lice killer" and watch the results.

C. B. Parker and family of Paisley are visiting relatives in Modoc.

Remember, the Woodman ball in Lakeview will be given on Friday evening, March 21st.

Drop in at the Palace and see George and Fent. They treat their patrons right. Fine billiard table. 2-11

Flavored and seasoned in wood, rich and elegant with the best materials used by Distillers, it is no wonder that Jesse Moor is the leading whiskey in the world. 33

Deputy Assessor W. S. Blair started upon his duties in Lakeview last Saturday, the law compelling the County Assessor to begin his duties on the first day of March. County Assessor John B. Blair will begin his work in the Silver Lake section.

"Jesse Moore" Whiskey has been the Kentucky standard with which all others have been compared since 1851.
It is the best. Get it at Jammertals.

C. C. O'Farrell, who years ago resided in Summer Lake valley, has returned to his old haunts on a visit. Mr.
O'Farrell has been delving in the mining region of British Columbia for many years, and has uncovered some good properties.

The "Palace" is as popular as ever.
Whorton & Smith have a host of friends and their resort is a meeting place.
The Palace has the reputation of dealing out the best in every thing. The Palace billiard room has the finest billiard and pool table in town. 2-11

A young lady in the new county of Wheeler, this state, writes an affectionate letter to her cousin at Prineville, Crook county, as follows: "Dere Kuzzen:—The wether whar we is air kold, and i suppose whar you is it air kolder.
We is oll wel, and ma's got the hister-riks, bruther has got the hoppin kof, and i hoap these fu lines will find you in the same kondishun. Rite sune.
You ophechnate Kuzzen, Kate." They are going to establish a high school in Wheeler.

You will never wish to take another dose of pills if you once try Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect. They cleanse the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels. For sale by Lee Beall.

Dr. Immanuel Pfeiffer, the leader of the fight in Boston against the vaccination, who recently visited the pesthouse to expose what he termed the fallacy of the theory of contagion in smallpox, is now suffering from the disease in its worst stages. Dr. Pfeiffer got the privilege of visiting the pesthouse because he was a physician. On his return, two weeks ago, he announced that he had exposed himself as much as possible to the disease, and although he had not been vaccinated for 65 years, he announced that he had no fears of being stricken. Nevertheless he has the smallpox. —Oregonian.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, improve your appetite and make you feel like a new man.
They are easy to take, being sugar coated, and pleasant in effect. For sale by Lee Beall.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The members of the Democratic County Central Committee of Lake County, Oregon, are hereby called to meet at the Court House in Lakeview, Oregon, on SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1902, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Business of importance will come before the meeting and a full attendance of members is requested. J. S. LANE, S. P. DICKS, Secretary. Chairman.

The Chauffeur.

The day was gloriously bright—
A royal, perfect day.
When peace and joy in golden light On crest and valley lay.

Lo, sudden through its midst there veered
A whirling, huge machine Wherein was crouched a goblin weird, Swathed, visored, goggled green.

Athwart a flow'ry vale he tore,
He scurried up a hill,
And down again like mad he bore All reckless of a spill.

The fields, high arched by tender skies, Stretched fair on either hand; Alas, in vain they wooed his eyes;
'Twas but his watch he scanned!

A trail of dust behind him spread And oaths and shouts and groans; He stayed for living nor for dead,
For ruts nor sticks nor stones.

He grasped his lever with a smile, Betokening his glee.
'By Jove! I almost did that mile In sixty-nine!' said he. —Life.

An Accident.

"Oh, John," exclaimed the bride as the engine pulled ahead and whirled them away from their friends, "I've torn my dress!"
"I thought something would happen when you stepped on the train," he replied.—Baltimore News.

How It Was Done.

"I'll match you," said the sporty girl,
"to see whether I shall accept you or not."
"Alas," replied the foxy suitor, "you're more than a match for me."
Thus by his compliment he won her.
—Chicago Post.

A Trouble Maker.

Mr. Pitt—The embarrassment of the corn king was caused by trying to corner the rye.
Mr. Penn—Well, dallying with rye generally makes trouble.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.
