

OUR NEW ISLANDS.

HOW WE WILL UTILIZE AND GOVERN DANISH WEST INDIES.

Plans For Building on St. Thomas a Strong Fortress to Command the Key to the Caribbean—Project For Great Cooling Station.

By the signing of the treaty ceding the Danish West Indies to this country the United States comes into possession of the strategic key of the Caribbean sea. Denmark at the same time has been relieved of a steady drain on her resources. Ratification of the treaty must be delayed until it has the approval of the United States senate and the Danish rigsdag and until congress appropriates the purchase money, which is understood to be $4,500,000.

These formalities, it is believed, will be completed in a few months and the transfer of sovereignty quickly accomplished. Congress will be asked to legislate for the islands along the lines of the Foraker act, and it is contemplated that the islands will eventually, along with Porto Rico, have a common territorial government.

According to the terms of the treaty, the people are to have a voice in the question of cession. No reference to a plebiscite is contained in the treaty itself, but the Danish government has given notice that before ratification it will submit the question of cession to the people of the islands. It is learned that the United States, in anticipation of the early ratification of the treaty, will proceed to make preparations for the fortification of the harbor of Charlotte Amalie, in St. Thomas. The purpose of the government is to make this port one of the greatest fortresses in the world. The best possible cooling facilities will also be provided at St. Thomas.

Three islands comprise the Danish West Indies—St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix. They cover about 127 square miles, and the population is estimated at about 30,000. Denmark has owned the islands since 1671, but they have never been a great source of revenue, and in recent years it has cost Denmark large sums in excess of the revenue to maintain them. Charlotte Amalie is the largest town on the island of St. Thomas. Not more than 15 per cent of the population is white. The blacks are of a superior class and have the same rights and privileges as the whites. The color line is unknown. Children of both races are compelled to attend school between the ages of seven and thirteen, and intermarriage between blacks and whites excites no comment.

While the official language of the islands is Danish, everybody speaks English. That tongue is taught in the public schools and is used in the courts of justice. The population of the island of St. Thomas is about 3,000, most of whom live in the city of Charlotte Amalie.

St. Croix, or Santa Cruz, is the largest and most populous of the trio. It is situated about forty miles south of St. Thomas. Its chief towns are Frederiksted and Christiansted. They have a population of about 1,500 each. There are thirty-two sugar estates on the island.

St. John, the third and smallest of the group, has a population of only about 1,000, principally blacks. It is only a few miles from St. Thomas, and stock raising is the chief industry. Profitable stock farms might be established there, as the grazing is excellent.

Denmark has maintained an army of about 250 men on the islands. These are volunteer recruits from the veteran corps in the home country and sent to the islands for six years.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. GERMAN STUDENTS COMPLAIN.

Declare That Foreigners Are Crowding Them Out of Berlin Technical College.

The Berlin correspondent of the New York Times says that, according to the Berliner Tageblatt, the minister of education has issued new regulations in regard to the admission of foreign students at the Berlin technical college. The Germans complain that the foreigners crowd them out of the laboratories and lecture rooms, and that the foreigners are admitted without any documentary evidence of previous education. The chief offenders are Russians.

It is now reported that the minister directs that Russians are only to be admitted if they can prove previous attendance or matriculation at a Russian technical college. Other foreigners must produce a certificate of general education as well as proof that they have attended a technical college.

It has also been decided, according to the Berliner Tageblatt, that a small class of students called "hospitantes," now admitted to the lectures at German universities as guests, without the right of obtaining certificates or degrees, shall be abolished in the machine engineering department of the college, and only allowed in other departments under exceptional circumstances.

WHAT'S IN A NAME.

Depends upon the name Scott's Emulsion is a name that has value. Maybe it doesn't mean much to you—but to the consumptive who has been strengthened and fattened, to the sickly children who have received good health, to the weak mothers and babies who have grown strong—this Scott's Emulsion means something.

To all of them it has meant an easy and natural return to health.

A Horrible Outbreak. "Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Isbell of Morganton, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25 cents at Lee Beal's.

The Trailing Skirt. There has been much talk lately of street sweeping by women's skirts. Concerning the "arresting and disconcerting of the various objects which the pavement may present," the Hospital says: "We lately watched the gradual conveyance, from the neighborhood of Regent circus, Oxford street, to the door of the Langham hotel, of an inexpressibly filthy piece of newspaper, covered with grime and saturated with grease, which had probably been used to wrap up the broken victuals of some tramp, and had been discarded by him when that office had been fulfilled. No less than five skirts were required for the indicated journey, and we much regretted that a more important engagement prevented us from devoting an hour or so to the fuller travels of the derelict."

WINE OF CARDUI

145 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodore's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

Canada's Forests.

The Ottawa (Ont.) correspondent of the New York Tribune says: Canada's forests are found to be equal to supplying the world with pulp wood alone for 840 years, on the basis of 1,500,000 tons of manufactured pulp a year. This is the estimate of J. C. Langelier, superintendent of the forest rangers of Quebec. It is given in a paper to the Canadian Forestry association, reproduced in the second annual report of the association just issued. Mr. Langelier takes 1,500,000 tons of pulp yearly as his basis, that being about the total production of the United States.

Pain Murder Either Way. If a crowd is justified in lynching a man one man is justified in putting another man to death, says the Indianapolis News. In the latter instance it is perfectly plain that the act is murder, but it is just as plainly an act of murder when the victim suffers death at the hands of a mob.
