

LAKEVIEW SHAKEN
BY A SERIES OF FORCEFUL QUAKES

The Trembler Did Business Enough to Shake Its Visit the Theme for a Week Past.

The people of Lakeview have been aroused to a high pitch of excitement during the past week—in fact the excitement borders on terror with some people who have before experienced the vibrations from earthquake shocks, where they have seen buildings topple over and fall about them and the earth come up and "shake" hands with them.

No such calamity has thus far sent the people of Lakeview terror-stricken to a place of safety, and doubtless no such thing will occur. But it is true, nevertheless, that our people have for the past week experienced forcible vibrations of the earth. Some say the first shock was felt last Thursday night, but the heaviest one occurred at 10:38 on Saturday evening, followed by light vibrations at early hours on Sunday morning. Again on Sunday evening at 9:07 a light shock was felt, and on Monday night at 10:30 the earth trembled. The Saturday evening shock "rattled" things up considerably—including the nerves of the more timid people. Some believe that the quake widened the breach in the south wall of the Odd Fellows hall, or the Field building, while others who have been watching the break think the wall was not affected much by the quake.

At any rate the trouble has caused a sensation in Lakeview, and the strange visitor is much talked about.

Buick's Hard Trip.

The Redding Searchlight says: C. D. Buick, brother of John H. Buick, the well-known wood and timber contractor, arrived Monday from his home near Roseburg, Oregon. He brought down seven head of horses and experienced considerable difficulty in reaching this city. When he had reached Baird Spur he learned that he would be unable to cross the Pitt river ferry and secured the services of J. F. Gregory to guide him over the trails from Baird Spur to Kennet, along the west side of the Sacramento River. At Kennet he found the creeks unfordable and after waiting three days for them to subside, he shipped the animals to this city by rail. Gregory accompanied him to this city. Mr. Buick formerly resided at Silver Lake, but removed to Roseburg a year ago.

Mrs. Frank Ross left this morning for Echo, Oregon, where she will visit her mother and sisters for the next six months.

George W. Noble and C. C. Cannon, two of the best Republicans in Lake county, or in the Nation, for that matter, and old wheel horses in the ranks, were in Lakeview last Saturday attending the Republican central committee meeting.

In the probate court, Tonningesen, Judge, the matter of a rejected claim against the estate of Ruby Clark, deceased, by the administrator, F. M. Miller, was heard last Monday and Tuesday. The claim was made by a New York woman named Jewell, through her attorney C. H. Dalrymple, for $700. L. F. Conn is attorney for the administrator. The court decided against the claimant.

J. W. Howard, the cattleman of Silver Lake, remained over several days in Lakeview, as he was threatened with la-grippe. While here he discovered that there were three J. W. Howard's in Lake county, and upon his next visit will have a reunion of the "Howards". The Silver Laker is a jolly good fellow, and made many pleasing acquaintances in Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry A. Stanley arrived from Callistoga, Cal., last Monday and are now visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stanley, at Cogawell Creek. Mr. Stanley spent his boyhood days in Lake county and is pleased to visit his old home. He is an electrical engineer, and has for some time had the position of chief engineer in a big mine near Callistoga.

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

The Lake County Democratic Primaries will be held on Saturday, March 22d, and the County Convention on March 29th.

Jow Howard, the Lewis Valley stockman, was an arrival in Lakeview yesterday. Mr. Howard is quite a stranger to Lakeview.

Mrs. Lulu Gunther withstood an operation for appendicitis in a Portland hospital on the 6th inst., and at last reports was getting along nicely.

Lost—In Lakeview, about March 8th, a Women of Woodcraft pin, shape of an ax, with the words "Wisdom, Love and Truth." Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the pin at this office.

George Conn, merchant of Paisley, was visiting the county seat this week. Mr. Conn says the prospects for a good crop season in his section is excellent, and he is preparing to plant a big acreage to alfalfa.

J. W. Brown, the sheepman, arrived from the desert this week, and reports the flocks grazing on excellent feed. Mr. Brown says the young grass is growing nicely. His flock is away out near the P ranch.

The Alturas Plaindealer gives Mr. Post, for the state, Danny Miller, gun fighter, Rev. Simmons, of confessorian fame, and the whole "kit and caboodle" for the prosecution in the lynching case, an awful "roast" at the conclusion of the trial. The trial cost Modoc county $16,940.37.

The burning of the 1375 coyote scalps in the court house yard last Saturday morning purified the atmosphere of the town somewhat, and was much pleasanter than the aroma which has permeated the atmosphere in the vicinity of the two center blocks of Main and Dewey streets for several weeks past.

George McGrath arrived here from Alturas Tuesday morning and will remain here until after the Woodman ball on the 21st. He will then go to Montague to reside. George says they know nothing about earthquakes in Alturas, and he had heard nothing of the "trembles" in Lakeview until he arrived here.

Dr. T. Vinton Hall left yesterday morning for New York City to take a three-months' course of lectures in the leading medical college in that city. Upon his return Dr. Hall will be finished in all modern methods of medical science. Before going east he will visit his relatives at Myrtle Point and will also go to Portland.

Joe L. Hampton, one of the best men of the North End, arrived with Mrs. Hampton from New Pine Creek last Tuesday, and went on to Paisley yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith at New Pine Creek. The two ladies are sisters. Joe says he had an enjoyable visit.

C. W. Embody and John J. Cusac, searchers for timber land, were here from Portland this week. They went to Bly yesterday, and will return next week to file. There will soon be a rush on for timber land, and many will get "lost in the shuffle" when the word is given out that no more filings can be made under the old law.

Marx Lauer returned last Wednesday from San Francisco, where he has been for the past month. Marx combined business with pleasure and had a jolly good time while he was away. He says there was a very severe storm while he was in the city, and the wind blew so strong that several street cars were blown from the track.—New Era.

The district attorney of California have organized in an effort to have a law passed by the next legislature which will give the state the privilege of moving for a change of venue in criminal cases. If this law is passed it will be a hot one for the men accused of lynching in Modoc county. The movement on the part of the California prosecutors is probably the outcome of the Modoc trial.

The Place to Go.

I have two friends who keep a place in the City by the Lake. Their invitation in letters of Gold is, "Boys, what will you take?" They keep all manner of solace, Whiskey, Wine and Beer, Good Cigars—in fact, most anything The weary heart to cheer. And now my tale is nearly told; 'Twill chance and a sure thing, Just take your choice, but my advice is, Go to Post & King.
