

FULTON'S WAY OF DOING IT.

The law under which Senator Fulton hopes to secure the nomination and endorsement of the people, for United States Senator, was enacted at the last session of the Legislature, and is as follows:

"Sec. 1.—At all general elections next preceding the election of a Senator in Congress by the Legislature of Oregon there shall be placed upon the official ballot by each of the county clerks and clerks of the county court the names of all candidates for the office of Senator in Congress that have been nominated in any of the methods now, or which may hereafter be, provided by law for the nomination of state officers of the state of Oregon, the votes for which candidates shall be counted and certified to, by the election judges in the same manner as the votes for other candidates; and records of the vote for such candidates shall be made out and sworn to by the board of canvassers of each county of the state and returned to the Secretary of the State, who shall transmit duplicate copies of such returns to the Legislature Assembly at its next ensuing session, one of which shall be addressed to the Senate and the other to the House of Representatives of the state of Oregon, one copy of which shall be delivered by him to the President of the Senate and the other to Speaker of the House of Representatives after the organization of such bodies, which officers shall open and lay the same before the separate houses when assembled to elect a Senator in Congress as now required by law of Congress; and it shall be the duty of each house to count the votes and announce the candidate for Senator having the highest number, and thereupon the house shall proceed to the election of a Senator as required by the act of Congress and the Constitution of this state."

How's This?

"Sleep Ten Years."

Jack and Annie were to get married, and she had confided to him that her age was twenty. After the ceremony and festivities were over they both went home and retired for the night. Annie's mother resided next door, and, being up early the following morning, thought she would give the happy couple a "rap up."

On the way to their door she suddenly remembered it was Annie's birthday. Knocking loudly at the door, she bawled out:

"Come away, Annie, get up; ye ken ye're thirty the day."

Jack, who was the first to hear the voice, astonished his mother-in-law by shouting:

"For goodness sake, Annie, get up, for we've slept ten years."

Chronic Diarrhoea.

Mr. C. B. Wingfield, of Fair Play, Mo., who suffered from chronic dysentery for thirty-five years, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy did him more good than any other medicine he had ever used. For sale by Lee Beall.

AN IDLE THOUGHT.

A verse picked up in the Temple where great men usually find the inspiration. The author died suddenly, but his words live after him:

The ice man has had his turn
And made just doodles of hay;
The snow man has snow to burn
And apparently is here to stay.

A Horrible Outbreak.

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Isbill of Morganton, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25 cents at Lee Bealls.

Crater Lake.

A favorable report has been received from the Public Lands Committee of the House on Congressman Tongue's H. R. 4393, which provides for the setting aside and maintaining of Crater Lake as a National Park. Crater Lake is a part of the unappropriated vacant domain of the government, located on the summit of the Cascade range of mountains in Klamath county. It is one of the great wonders of the Pacific Coast and the delight of all visitors and pleasure seekers. Crater Lake was discovered by a party of prospectors in 1853, and is located in an extinct crater 4,000 feet deep and six miles in diameter. The lake is 1,996 feet deep, the deepest water in the Western hemisphere. It is one of the greatest natural wonders, and the people of Oregon generally are signing petitions to Congress to have it set aside and maintained as a National Park for the benefit of the whole people.

Those who desire to sign the petition can find a copy at the Lakeview Post-office. Sign at once so that the petition can be forwarded to Congressman Tongue.

Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and eleven o'clock p. m. on July 26th, 1901, A. E. Oberlin, doctor, Grange Springs, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold, or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by Lee Beall.

An Author Speaks.

The late Charles Dudley Warner—author, editor and traveler—while bathing in Great Salt Lake remarked to a friend, that in all his travels he never before saw such a glorious combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and happy children. The only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City is the Rio Grande System. It is also the "Scenic Line of the World." No European trip of equal length can compare with it in grandeur of scenery or wealth of novel interest. All Agents sell through tickets to the East by way of the Rio Grande Lines. Send for pamphlets to J. D. Mansfield, General Agent, 124 Third Street, Portland; or Geo. W. Heintz, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Lee Beall's drug store.

Jeffries and Fitzsimmons will again contest for the world's championship in the fistic arena. It is probable that the fight will take place in San Francisco. More interest will be taken in this contest than any other since the two gladiators meet before.
