LAKEVIEW, OREGON, MARCH 27, 1902.

One of the pleasant things of life is to have a man with long whiskers, who chews tobacco, whips a secret in your ear.

I isn't always the early bird that catches the political worm without a contest. Sometimes the worm turns and shows fight.

When the politician wants a thing told to the other fellow he enjoins secrecy and picks out the right man. The right man is always to be found.

One advantage in having a bad cold in Lakeview just now is that you can't smell. Many who are not susceptible to colds wish they could catch a good one in the head.

In the death of Ex-Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, there passed away a man who at one time was more talked of than any other in the country. While Governor of Illinois he pardoned the Chicago Anarchists.

The supervisors of Plumas county, Cal. have petitioned Congress for an appropriation of five thousand dollars to "meet the necessary expenses already and hereafter to be incurred in the support and care of the Indians" of that county afflicted with smallpox.

Don't say that you haven't time to attend to your advertising properly. Really, you haven't time to do anything else. Advertising is the most important thing about any business. It is the vital spark. What good does it do you to have the very best thing or the greatest bargain on earth if people do not know it?—Printer's Ink.

Those rumors of a revolution in Ireland. The Vatican has received confidential news of a serious situation there. The Fenians have for some months been engaged in an active propaganda with the view to organizing for a general rising. It is said that the Vatican will instruct the Irish clergy to hold aloof from the revolutionary agitation. Under these conditions Ireland will never be free. Could the religious elements be brought together in one common cause there might be a chance for Irish freedom—but not otherwise.

The determination of the President to break the so-called "merger" of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern Railroads decided in one way neither a popular prejudice against large railroads nor a desire to hamper large legitimate enterprises. It is, however, decided of having a question tested by a federal judge in that country, notwithstanding the fact that any violation of law they may be punished; on the other hand, if they are not, a special stop will be put to the popular indignation against legitimate corporate enterprises.

Our friend of the Rustler has a happy habit of "getting next" to some of Lake County's staunchest Republican and for an editor of an "independent" political newspaper he is having lots of fun with himself in telling the readers how Republican "machine" politics work in Lakeview. Of course there is no Democratic-Populist "machine," or "ring," in town, (?) so we will not have the pleasure of reading how our political opponents do politics. It was expected that the old "barn ring" gag that choked the Rustler to death politically during the last election would not have been resorted to again. The name "ring" should have no pleasant sound for our contemporary.

The friends of M. T. Walters, the straight line Democrat who has always stood upon his political record and never flirted with the side issues of "Independent" or "Populist"—and who with David B. Hill can truthfully say, "I am a Demo-rat"—are doing some tall figuring on the chances of the old Democrat for the nomination for County Judge. They claim that Mr. Walters' demands upon the party for political honors have been modest in the extreme, and that he is deserving of recognition on account of his honesty and fealty, and his straight Democratic principles. Mr. Walters was chairman of the local organization for a long time, and has never deserted the old ship in trying times, when political storms have rocked her and threatened her destruction on the rock bound coast. All these things are claimed for the veteran by his friends and an effort is being made to have the past services recognized and rewarded in the coming Democratic county convention.

A little the smoothest thing Kansas has ever known in the way of a "card of thanks" recently appeared in a Topoka paper. "We extend our heartfelt thanks" said the sorrowing family, "to the pastor who officiated, to the choir which sang, to the friends who sent flowers, to the undertaker who so delicately performed his sad mission, to the friends and relatives who mingled their tears with ours above the bier." Yet, as nearly perfect as this is, it is convicted with a fatal omission. The colored man who drove the one-eyed mule which hauled the coffin box ahead of the hearse to the cemetery seems to have been entirely forgotten.

In the House of Commons at Ottawa the other day a Nova Scotian with less brains than bloodthirstiness used these words: "If it is necessary to fight the Yankee, we will fight within twenty-four hours, and after six months we will capture their Capital and annex their country to Canada." Yes, just so, Mr. Canadian. Uncle Sam will no doubt shiver in his boots when he hears your awful threat. Our Sam is "awful easy to frighten."

EYES SPEAK

Volumes, at times, of woman's happiness or misery. The dull, sunken eye, with its dark circles almost surely speaks of womanly ill-health, and its attendant suffering. With the dull eye goes usually the sallow, sunken cheek, the drawn mouth, the shrunken form—the whole glory of woman's beauty marred by the effects of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which undermine the health and mar the beauty of women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and so obtain the advice of a specialist upon their disease. All correspondence is strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your medicine," writes Mrs. Pierce Geise, of 52 West Phila. Street, York, Pa. "Will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to every person who may inquire as to what it has done for me. I was troubled with female weakness, and began to think I would never be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When your treatment was commenced my weight was 105 pounds, at present it is 132. Have healthy color and my friends say I look well. My best thanks to you and my best wishes, too, for what you have done for me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.
