

GO WAY BACK AND SIT DOWN

The following from the New York Sun describes the origin of the song "Go way Back and Sit Down." "The popular phrase "Go way back and sit down," has been credited to many sources," said the music publisher, "but the true story has never been printed.

"One night about a year ago, several colored sports gathered in a saloon in the Tenderloin, owned by a negro, and patronized chiefly by men of his own race. In the party were Smithy, the tenor, and Bully, the toot. Smithy came from the west and dressed in the height of fashion, while Bully's home was in the South.

"Bully had quite a turn of ill luck, and his attire suffered in consequence. Smithy began kidding him about it. Finally Bully got angry. He sized Smithy up from head to foot for a few seconds and then sailed in:

"Yo, am er dude, yo' am' he began, contemptuously. "Yo' done come 'round here and try t' lit de folks know dat yo' am liven' on easy street."

"Say, nigger, do yo' see dat chair yonder by dat stove? Take mah advice an' go 'way back an' sit down, an' w'en yo' git dere, stay dere an' don't come back no more t'-night. Understand, honey?"

Al Johns, a colored musician, who was present, thought the phrase was unique, and the next day he told Elmer Bowman a negro song writer about it.

Johns thought it would make a good title for a song, so Bowman wrote some verses which Johns put to music.

Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. F. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold, or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. Shingle Mill For Sale.

The only exclusive shingle mill in Lake County is offered for sale. The owner has concluded to dispose of it and engage in other pursuits. The mill is located 12 miles northwest from Lakeview, and is situated on a creek in a delightful summer location. The mill is run by steam and is complete with machinery and everything necessary for the manufacture of shingles. It has a capacity of 10,000 shingles a day for two men. With the mill will be sold 40 acres of deeded timber land, as fine as can be found in the county. For further particulars inquire at The Examiner office. 8-1f

Chronic Diarrhoea.

Mr. C. B. Wingfield, of Fair Play, Mo., who suffered from chronic dysentery for thirty-five years, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy did him more good than any other medicine he had ever used. For sale by Lee Beall.

HOPEFUL VIEW

The hopeful view consumptives take of their own cases is strongly in their favor. Each year is showing a larger percentage of cures.

One of the best reasons for good hope is the record of Scott's Emulsion as a medicine for consumptives. So long as the system is strong enough to use medicine of any kind it can use Scott's Emulsion.

The reason for its helpfulness in this disease is because of its long tolerance by the patient; one does not tire of it as quickly as other medicines and that is where the great benefit comes.

BILLET DOUX FROM CONGRESS SAVED HIM.

At last a man has been found who appreciates the Congressional Directory for what it is worth. A promising newspaper man editor of North Wash., acknowledges the receipt of one of these valuable books, sent him by Representative Cushman, in the following language:

"I am in receipt of your billet doux about the special edition of the Congressional Directory, hand-tooled, bound in leather, illuminated initials, laminated sides and bottom, ivory handled, fitted with a corkscrew, geared to 86 revolutions a minute—and all mine because my name has been stamped on it in letters of enduring gilt at the expense of the government and at the request of my congressman. You have my thanks—my vote and my enthusiastic support were yours, anyway—forever. You touched me off with this directory, at the proper time. I am under everlasting obligations. I was downhearted, bilious, had lost all desire. My tongue was coated with yellow fir, and the world seemed slipping gently hence. Farewell my own sweet love, land of Pierpont Morgan and home of octopus! I thought I was a 'goner,' soon to be like the fairest flower of the meadow nipped by an untimely frost. Then came your letter, and then later came the directory, and I took the same according to directions, and now I feel like a new man. That was all I needed, and when next you see me you will behold one who was given up for lost by all the local physicians and nearly all the crowned heads of Europe, and was saved by the Congressional Directory."

Never Budged Us.

Referring to the earthquake that shook up Lakeview and Asia-Minor a few weeks ago, the Paisley Post says: Lakeview had several shocks from earthquakes last week at intervals from Thursday night the 6th to Monday night the 10th. Some of the shocks were quite perceptible and was cause for considerable excitement. The shaking must have been intended for Lakeview, as no shock was felt in Paisley, or else the fact that Paisley people are always on the jump prevented any notice being taken of a mere earthquake.

Spirited Town Election.

In the town election at Klamath Falls on March 10th, opposing forces had a lively "scrap." A mass meeting of citizens nominated a ticket, and all went swimmingly until the eve of the election when another ticket was put up on the quiet. A strong fight was made by the "quiet" boys on election day and they won out. The town trustees elected were Alva Beals, George Hurn, John Campbell, Joseph Pierce and Wm. Torrell; recorder, Fred Schallock; treasurer, J. W. Niemann. The Klamath Republican in commenting on the election says:

"The mass convention was urged as eminently the fair and proper manner to prepare for a town election—a fact which would doubtless be conceded even by those who favor hatching a ticket in the dark and springing it on a usually indifferent public on the eve of election.

Now, it is different over here in Lakeview. There are no glittering inducements offered in the election of town trustees, and the office has to run fast to catch the man. No one wants the job and it simply goes begging.

That Telephone Line.

Our Lakeview neighbor The Examiner, wants to wager that the telephone line from Ashland to Alturas will be built by fall, and says that it will be run to a place that will "yield good returns." The Record will hazard the cigars on the proposition and will also wager a large number of "promises to pay" that the line is not built by that time, besides will put up several cords of wood that we have standing out in the timber. So, dig up now, or come down off the fence.—Cedarville Record.

We will meet the Record on the cigar proposition—they must be Sharp's Lakeview smokers, best in the shop—on our original proposition—Ashland to Lakeview.

Wallace Taylor, superintendent of the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Company, has gone to Portland on business.

I KISSED THE COOK.

I kissed the cook—ah, me, she was divine! Cheeks peachy, dark brown eyes, lips red as wine!

Long apron, with a bow, A cap as white as snow— By far too tempting, so I kissed the cook.

I kissed the cook, this angel from the skies, And yet I did not take her by surprise.

'Twas meant, I tell you, But if you'd make the vow To keep it, I'll tell you how I kissed the cook.

I kissed the cook—poor, helpless little lass, The chance so good I could not let it pass!

Her hands were in the dough; She dare not spoil, you know, My Sunday suit, and so I kissed the cook.

I kissed the cook, I might have been more strong, But I guess it wasn't very wrong.

For, just 'twixt you and me, The cook's my wife, is she, So I'd a right, you see, to kiss the cook.

WOMAN'S RELIEF

A really healthy woman has little pain or discomfort at the menstrual period. No woman needs to have any. Wine of Cardui will quickly relieve those smarting menstrual pains and the dragging head, back and side aches caused by falling of the womb and irregular menses.

WINE OF CARDUI

has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 women who suffered every month. It makes the menstrual organs strong and healthy. It is the provision made by Nature to give women relief from the terrible aches and pains which blight so many homes.

GREENWOOD, La., Oct. 14, 1900. I have been very sick for some time. I was taken with a severe pain in my side and could not get any relief until I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. Before I had taken all of it I was relieved. I feel it my duty to say that you have a wonderful medicine.

requires physical and mental ability of a high degree to withstand its hard labors. The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, has a depressing effect, and soon headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. Such was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweinhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says:

"An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pains that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to give

The inhabitants of the village of Chetwynd and others near by have a unique way of receiving and sending mail. Recently orders were received to discontinue the post office at Chetwynd because of rural mail delivery passing within half a mile of that place, and so a large elm tree at the cross roads was utilized and made to serve as a post office. There are 17 boxes attached to the tree, besides the government mail box, which is used solely for money orders, registered letters, etc. Chetwynd gets all its mail in a large box on the left of the tree, and fully 120 people receive mail at this tree. The elm is a magnificent specimen of its kind, rising fully 100 feet, without a limb within 30 feet of the ground. It is three feet in diameter at the bottom.—Indianapolis News.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors have prepared Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.
