A bargain in sheep. Read advertisement "For sale—1400 sheep."

Read the new ads in this issue. Now see if you can pick out the ones that have been changed.

The annual meeting of the Lake county Telephone company will be held at Paisley next Monday.

No sideboard is quite complete without a bottle of "Jesse Moore" rye or bourbon whiskey. It is better than the kind you have always considered best.

You won't find "Jesse Moore" Whiskey in cheap places—it isn't made for cheap men to drink. It is the best and demanded by the best people.

Roadmaster Heryford has been in the north looking after the county roads and to determine the character of work that should be done.

Frank Lane and Will Steele, with their families, have moved to the Lane ranch below Deadman. Great improvements are going on there.

A gentleman who arrived from Paisley Monday informs The Examiner that "Col. Bud" Carrier had a big audience at Paisley last Sunday, and George Hankins passed the hat.

H. R. Schlager was kicked on the arm by a young horse that he was breaking, a few days ago. Mr. Schlager then took cold in the wounded arm, and was threatened with blood poisoning, so last Saturday he came to town to consult Dr. Blondin in regard to it.—New Era.

It is understood that W. Z. Moss has purchased the photographic apparatus of the late Mrs. John Hammond, and has also leased the Hammond residence property at Paisley. He expects to move his family to Paisley where Mrs. Moss will conduct a studio. Mrs. Moss has become an artist of local fame, having perfected herself in the art.

The Post says that A. B. Schroder bought 87 head of cattle from J. C. Hotchkiss for J. W. Howard of Silver Lake this week; 30 yearlings and the rest were 2-year-olds. The price paid was $18 for yearlings and $25 for 2-year-olds. Mr. Schroder bought 22 yearlings from Dobkins at $19 per head. Mr. Schroder also purchased 155 head of 2-year-old steers from Jack Partin, Jr. at $25 per head. He received the Hotchkiss cattle in Chewucan last week.

The Nevada, California & Oregon railway ran a train up to the new terminus, Madeline, March 31st, and on April 1st started regular trains from there, Sunday excepted. The road bed is said to be solid and safe for heavy trains. The terminus is now thirty-five miles from Alturas and 100 miles from Lakeview. A commodious depot is being built, and Dick Russell, formerly of Lakeview, is the landlord of the big hotel there.

F. D. Wright, the Ashland monument man, has gone to Modoc county, and will return next month.

Drop in at the Palace and see George and Fent. They treat their patrons right. Fine billiard table. 2:1f

L. C. Estes, a pioneer of Modoc county, died at Alturas on April 1st, aged 77 years. He was a highly estimable citizen.

Stock Inspector Clarkson is in the Warner section to watch the bands of sheep as they move from the desert to the shearing pens.

The Post says that Contractor Holaday may use an automobile for carrying the mails and passengers between Paisley and Silver Lake.

Connoisseurs of perfect goods appreciate "Jesse Moore" Whiskey for its purity and a delightful flavor. It is without a peer. Sold by Jammerthal.

Jim Handley and John Basey found good trout fishing in Drews creek last week. They will try Sprague river next week.

Get a good, clean, hot bath at Frank Smith's shop. When you come out of the bath plant yourself in the chair and get a clean shave, after which try his sure dandruff medicine. 52-1f

Lost—Women of Woodcraft pin, shape of an ax, in Lakeview, recently. Finder please leave at this office and get reward.

Claud McCall, the stalwart son of Hayes McCall of Silver Lake, and U. Reeder, another young man of the North end, sojourned in Lakeview several days during the past week.

The wise man once remarked that "all whiskey is good, but some better than others." This is eminently true. Others may extol the virtues of their wet goods, but those who use the famous Kentucky Favorite, furnished only Post & King by the old reliable firm of Spruance, Stanley & Co., will use no other—no, never! 12-2

W. D. Sharp, the cigar manufacturer, has purchased the household goods of Dr. F. E. Smith, and upon the return of his wife from Portland they will go to housekeeping in the residence vacated by Dr. and Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Sharp is rapidly regaining her health in Portland, and is expected home next month.

The "Palace" is as popular as ever. Whorton & Smith have a host of friends and their resort is a meeting place. The Palace has the reputation of dealing out the best in every thing. The Palace billiard room has the finest billiard and pool table in town. 2-1f

W. W. Watson, brother of Ex-District Attorney C. B. Watson, has purchased the Miner, a newspaper of Prairie City, Grant county. The Miner is one of the handsomest publications that finds its way to our editorial den.

Wanted—Intelligent young men, from 17 to 19 years of age, having common school education, to learn mechanical trades. For full information apply to or write to Union Iron Works, 222 Market St., San Francisco. 2-2m

The question is often asked, "Is Lakeview going to have a celebration and racing this year?" The Examiner is unable to find out. If we are to celebrate it, high time the people were doing something about it.

The Place to Go.

I have two friends who keep a place in the City by the Lake. Their invitation in letters of Gold is, "Boys, what will you take?" They keep all manner of solace, Whiskey, Wine and Beer, Good Cigars—in fact, most anything The weary heart to cheer. And now my tale is nearly told; 'Twixt chance and a sure thing, Just take your choice, but my advice is, Go to Post & King. THE ROVER.

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

Try Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, the best physic. For sale by Lee Beall Druggist.
