COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Entertainments this Week.

Lovers of comedy, music and farce were entertained by local talent two evenings during the week. On Monday evening local players, under the management of Messrs. Phelps and Holmes, produced the high class comedy "Captain Racket" before a fair sized audience. The efforts of the players appeared to please, and the entertainment was spoken of as a success. On Tuesday evening a fine musical program, in which some of the best local talent was engaged, was given to a large audience. Judging from the hearty applause everybody was pleased, and well they might be, for no better musical program was ever given in Lakeview. The Examiner has not the space for an extended account of the entertainments—it would take a column to do the affair justice. As a warming up part on Tuesday evening the entertainment concluded with the side-splitting farce, "A Mock Trial," by twenty young men, which was well played.

We understand that yesterday afternoon George Whorton and Joe Fuller had received subscriptions to the amount of $650, and expected to raise the amount to $750, for races in Lakeview during Fourth of July week. This will insure $1,500 for purses, as the Lake County Agricultural Association will offer an amount equal to what is raised by the citizens.

Though defeated for the nomination for Governor of Oregon, Governor Geer is a lively candidate, put forward by his friends, for Senator of the United States.

A license to wed was issued from the office of the county clerk last week, authorizing the marriage of D. R. Jones and Miss Reta Vinyard. The bride is under age and the consent of her mother was given to the union. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride in Warner Valley, Judge W. K. Barry officiating in his usually happy manner.

Senator Mitchell of Oregon opened the debate on the Chinese Exclusion bill and made a masterly speech in favor of the bill.

Elmer D. Lutz and S. A. D. Porter, two stockmen of Silver Lake, were business visitors in the county seat last week.

A CARD.

Lakeview, Or. Apl. 5th, (To the Editor):—In the last issue of the Lake County Examiner a long article was devoted to the subject of smallpox being at the Hotel Lakeview and the idea was conveyed, by innuendo or otherwise, that proper precautions were not taken in the interests of the public, and that the Indian, who had the smallpox at the Indian camp, contracted the disease by washing clothes at the hotel. Now, in justice to myself, and to the people of Lakeview, I wish to say, that I have this day interviewed every physician, who resides in the town, and each one has assured me, that there is not now, nor has there been a case of smallpox or any other eruptive disease in Lakeview or anywhere else within fifteen miles of this place for the last five weeks, except at the Indian camp, and that there is but one very mild case there at the present time.

The last case of sickness at the hotel, which showed any eruption or rash, was my niece, Miss Lulu Garrett. On Sunday, Feb. 23rd, while sitting in the parlor, one of the ladies present noticed a few pimples on her face. My wife at once sent her to her room. That evening I told one of the physicians, who was dining at the hotel, that Lulu had an eruption on her face, but otherwise she was feeling perfectly well. He said "be very careful and establish a strict quarantine by keeping her in her room; to lock the door of the same and to keep her there until she got well and when she did get well, to thoroughly fumigate, not only herself, but the room and its contents." All of which was done and as every guest of the hotel well knows.

Miss Garrett was sick but a few days and never ill enough to be confined to her bed, and the very fact that the disease did not spread and that no other case of any kind of eruption has appeared in the hotel since that time shows how thoroughly and effective the quarantine was kept.

Now, as to the Indian woman contracting the disease by washing clothes at the hotel:—On Feb. 19th, the books of the hotel show that the Indian woman was discharged and that Mr. and Mrs. Fernham were employed to do that work in the laundry, and are still so employed.

As Miss Garrett was not taken sick until Feb. 23rd or five days after the discharge of the Indian woman, it therefore seems impossible that the Indian woman could become infected by anything that Miss Garrett had.

In view of these facts, which are well known to every guest of the hotel, it is a great injustice to me, as well as to the entire interests of Lakeview, to publish a lot of stuff, based on alleged street rumor, about the existence of such a serious disease as smallpox.

JOHN ALLEN WITHERS

The Paisley Post has a brief biography history of the late John A. Withers, whose death at Paisley was announced in The Examiner last week, from which we take the following:

"John Allen Withers was born in Benton county, Oregon on May 1st, 1854; Came to Lake county in 1871; he was married to Miss Melvina Hadley in 1875. Three children was the result of this union, one, a girl died several years ago, and two sons, Chester L. and C. Wayman, survive their father and are at present interested in the merchandise business in Paisley." He was nearly 48 years of age. His death shocked the community where he was so well and favorably known. He was a man with an unsullied character; a man who knew what honesty was, and who practiced it all his life. Of kind and gentle manners, loving in the family circle, true to his friends and generous to his acquaintances, he was much respected and greatly admired.

Judge Harrington intends to leave Modoc county, it is said. The public will not be surprised to learn of his departure. It is expected to return to Kentucky, said.
