Last Sunday was a delightful day in Lakeview and everybody was out to enjoy it.

When you want new harness of any kind take a look at Cheney's stock. 15-2

Charles Branch and family have been visiting in Lakeview for a few days this week.

See those late styles in gents hats at Ahlstrom Bros.

Louie Gerber, the Klamath stockman, with his wife and little son are visiting in Sacramento.

You enjoy a good smoke, don't you? Try an "El Symphonie" at Lee Beall's Delightful Fragrant! 12-2

T. B. Wakefield and John Maupin were visitors from Adel last Thursday and Friday.

The attention of horsemen is called to the fine line of saddles at Cheney's. They are of fine finish and gorgeous trappings. 15-2

R. M. Russell, formerly of Lakeview, now of Madeline, has been adjudicated a bankrupt.

Pack saddles at Cheney's harness shop. 15-2

The Palace Club Room windows are now ornamented with handsome window shades.

See the beautiful hosiery for ladies and gents—latest style—at the Monogram.

Mrs. George Winkleman of Summer Lake arrived at The Oregon last Monday for a brief visit.

For anything in the Bicycle Supply line call on Hudspeth & Cloud.

J. C. Basy and James Handley have gone to Sprague river to whip that stream for speckled beauties.

Latest styles summer shirts and neckwear at the Monogram.

Senor Ricardo, of the Moore company, sang beautiful solos at the M. E. Church last Sunday morning and evening.

Get one of those 1902 Ramblers of Hudspeth & Cloud. Just arrived.

J. N. Watson attended church at Paisley last Sunday and listened to the funeral sermon preached by Rev. Stark in memory of the late John Withers.

Dr. Steiner was called yesterday at noon to attend the little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Conley, of Paisley. The little one is reported dangerously ill.

Hudspeth & Cloud have bicycles to rent.

Mrs. C. C. Pratt is reported seriously ill at the Pratt home south of Lakeview. The aged lady is threatened with pneumonia, and to add to her illness she had the misfortune on Tuesday to fall down a flight of stairs.

Just arrived at the Lakeview Soda Works an assortment of Bicycle supplies, Sundries, etc.

Maurice Wingfield and Miss Nadie Bussie were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Reynolds in Lakeview last evening. Rev. C. W. Holloman of the Baptist church tied the nuptial knot.

You never miss it when you call for the famous Kentucky Favorite whiskey at Post & King's. They can boast of other brands, but the Kentucky Favorite is never turned aside after having once been used. It must be good when physicians recommend it for their patients. Found only at Post & King's. 15-11

Jim Guy, who has had a long and hard siege with typhoid fever and later with lung trouble, is once more able to be out. Jim was laid up for six months, and was bedfast over three months.

Messrs. Phelps and Holmes, who so journeyed in Lakeview for three weeks past, left for Klamath Falls last Monday. They are worthy and deserving young men, and made many warm friends here during their stay.

Farmers in Lake county are jubilant over the prospects for a bountiful crop of everything grown on the farm. The ground is thoroughly soaked for the first time in years owing to a lack of the usual freezing weather during the past few months. Snow is packed heavily in the mountains insuring a good supply of water until late in the summer. It should be a prosperous year in every line of business in Lake county.

Phil Price, a young cigar maker from Portland, and a clever young man, has accepted a position in Sharp's Lakeview factory.

E. A. Cheney and family have moved from the residence recently purchased by J. E. Bernard from J. S. Field, and have taken up quarters at the residence of Miss Snelling.

Some of our people may not have understood the announcement in these columns last week of the marriage of Miss Mitchell and Mr. McMillan at Klamath Falls. Miss Edna Mitchell, the bride, is the charming young lady who resided in Lakeview about a year ago.

John Duckworth returned last Sunday from a visit at his old home in Arkansas. He returns well pleased with his trip and certainly looks as if the journey did him much good. Mr. Duckworth has purchased the city express business in Lakeview and will conduct it himself.

Dr. Steiner, by prompt response to a call, saved the life of Mrs. Ashley Follett yesterday at noon. The unfortunate woman desired to end her life's misery and in a fit of despondency took a large quantity of carbonic acid. At last reports she was resting easily. The community sympathizes deeply with Mrs. Follett.

E. Lake, the bicycle repairer, has our thanks for a copy of the Atlantic Review, published at Atlantic City, New Jersey, and which contains a detailed account of the great fire at that place on April 4th. Nine hotels were destroyed. It was the greatest fire that city ever experienced.

Mrs. Thos. H. Flook, of Rock Creek, who accompanied her husband to Lakeview last week, is still a guest at the Hotel Lakeview, and will remain here for some time under the care of Dr. Steiner. Mrs. Flook recently passed through a dangerous illness from fever, and has not completely recovered.

Mrs. Walter Sharp and little son returned from Portland last Wednesday night via Reno. The lady withstood successfully a very delicate operation for appendicitis in an hospital at Portland, and returns fully restored to health. Mrs. Sharp's friends in Lakeview are rejoicing at her safe return.

Silas Kelley, who lives a few miles west of Alturas is the owner of a calf that weighed 114 pounds when only two days old. The New Era says that the animal is a half breed Hereford and Durham, the latter strain coming from the herd of E. Lauer and is the largest calf for its age on record.

Tehama is said to be the largest wool county in California, and a great deal of talk is being made about the great output of wool from that county. Tehama claims 1,648,750 pounds production annually. Lake county will go Tehama about 400,000 pounds better this season. It is fairly estimated that Lake will produce at least 2,000,000 pounds this year.

Miss Laura Snelling has been permitted to teach in Lake county, and will open a summer school in Drews Valley next Monday. It is Miss Snelling's first experience. She is one of Lake County's native daughters and a bright young woman. She is probably the youngest teacher in the county, and her friends hope she may make a complete success in her profession.

Si Mulkey, miner and race horse man, who has relatives in Goose Lake valley, and is well known throughout Southern Oregon, recently returned to Jackson county from Nome. Mulkey is 70 years of age, but still possesses much of the vigor and strength of his sunny days. He came back from the north fairly well to do, and has fitted out a pack mule train to search the mountains in the Grants Pass section for their hidden treasures.

The Ode of Flowers

That is what a perfume should be—true to Nature, delicate, lasting. We have just received a fresh lot from the place where the flowers grow. These are among the most delicate extracts made; they convey an air of refinement. If you have never used any of our perfumes, come in and sample them. A large variety to select from.
