Interesting Notes Gathered During
The Week and Stated Briefly
For Examiner Readers

born—in Alturas, Cal., April 10, 1902. the wife of Wm. Bush, a son.

P. Patterson of Willow Ranch was the Oregon last Friday.

The Chewaucan cattle herds have been sent to Sican and other summer ranges.

Take no other, have no other, use no other whiskey than "Jesse Moore." It's better than any other, and you can get it for the asking, but get it.

B. Schroder bought 40 head of steering steers from Harris Bros. of Summer Lake and 19 head from Z. G.
Parks, Tuesday, paying 19 per head.
The cattle are for J. W. Howard of Silver Lake.—Post.

When you ask for Jesse Moore Whisky be sure you get it. Don't let any one tell you they have something just as good.

McShane, right hand man for Harvey the Summer Lake woolgrower, has arrived in Goose Lake valley with two hands of Mr. Harvey's sheep, which will be turned into the shearing caravans.

Whisky—
More whisky—
"Jesse Moore" Whisky—the best.

J. D. Farra of Paisley last week found one of his cows dead, and becoming curious to know the cause, performed an autopsy on the body. He found a piece of barb wire seven inches long lodged at the entrance to the stomach.

If you knew that "Jesse Moore" Whisky was the best and purest on earth you'd have no other. It is the best, but we cannot prove it except you try it.

Joe Morrow of Warner will soon leave for his mines in Idaho. He has leased all his ranches in South Warner, and was in last week to arrange papers on the last one. Joe expects to strike it rich in the mines.

Drop in at the Palace and see George and Bent. They treat their patrons right. Fine billiard table. 2-11

W. H. Cooper, who was in from Adel last week, says everything looks prosperous in the "lake" region, and that the "settlers" will probably have an abundance of water for irrigation of their hay ranches this season.

At the city election held in Alturas on April 14th, John W. Cummings, A.
B. Estes, Alex Gibson, J. T. Laird and J. M. Thompson were elected trustees, R. M. Sage, clerk; R. T. Taylor, marshal; Ben Lauer, treasurer.

W. H. Barr and Chas. Oliver were here from New Pine Creek yesterday.
Mr. Barr has moved from Lakeview back to his home in Goose Lake Valley, and informs us that his wife's health is much improved. He and Corwin Vinyard will run cattle together in the future on the Barr ranch.—Alturas New Era.

Geo. Leonard and son Roy, of Davis Creek, stopped here Monday. Geo. will remain here a few days to help Ches.
Parker through shearing, says the Post.
Mr. Leonard will try to buy the race horse "Jim Foster" from the Foster ranch, and intends going in the northern part of the state on a sporting expedition.

The next bottle of whiskey you resolve to try the "Jesse Moore." You've heard it was the best; prove it by practical test.

Fred Foster and others of Summer Lake are boring for artesian water on the desert north of Silver Lake. The drill has gone through several feet of stone, and it is thought that when they get through the hard substance gravel and a flow of water will be found. It is to be hoped that the efforts of these gentlemen will be successful, for artesian water on the big desert surrounding Lake county means much for the county's welfare.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt.
Crawford, Va. This remedy is for sale by Lee Beall.

James Vincent and family, who have spent some time at Milton, this state, left that place on the 13th inst. for their old home at New Pine Creek.

Dr. A. A. Witham, the resident physician of Paisley, has been a very sick man, and was still quite ill when Dr.
Steiner left him last Thursday. He is suffering from smallpox, in a light form.

He Kpt His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctor urged amputation, "but," he writes, I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 112 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever."

Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders

The Place to Go.

I have two friends who keep a place In the City by the Lake, Their invitation in letters of Gold Is, "Boys, what will you take?"
They keep all manner of solace, Whiskey, Wine and Beer, Good Cigars—in fact, most anything The weary heart to cheer.
And now my tale is nearly told;
'Twill chance and a sure thing, Just take your choice, but my advice is,
Go to Post & King. THE ROVER.

Try Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, the best physic. For sale by Lee Beall Druggist.

Have you had a kindness shown?

Pass it on.

'Twas not given for you alone.

Pass it on.

Let it travel down the years.

Let it wipe another's tears

'Till in heaven the deed appears,

Pass it on.

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

"Some years ago," said a preacher "we inaugurated in our Sunday school the practice of our children quoting some scriptural text as they dropped their pennies into the contribution box.
On the first Sunday in question a little shaver walked up and said: 'The Lord loveth a cheerful giver,' and in dropped his penny. 'Charity shall cover a multitude of sins,' and in dropped the next.
'It is more blessed to give than to receive,' quoted the third, and so on. Just then up walked a little fellow with the unmistakable remnants of molasses candy on his chubby face and as he dropped his cent brawled out: 'A fool and his money are soon parted.'"
