

LOCAL & PERSONAL COMING & GOING

John O'Connell is going to St. Albans, Vt., to see his mother and family. He will be absent for several weeks.

The Roman races will be held on May 29 and 30, instead of 28 and 29.

For fine seeds go to the best Seed Store. A. L. Latta is now in the city.

J. A. M. and N. E. Gray, were at the Fair last night.

Mrs. Joe Stevens has been seriously ill for several days, but is now improved.

The planting season is here. Get your fresh and best seeds of all kinds at Robinson's.

Mrs. Dolie Withers and Miss Ada Currier of Paisley were visitors in Lakeview this week.

Bert Snyder arrived from the desert this week, brown as a berry and as good humored as ever.

The desert horse ride in the north will begin tomorrow, at Brown's corral, Wagontire.

Ole Sunstrom, woolgrower, was in from the desert this week having left his winter quarters.

D. M. Bryan and A. W. Bryan were in from Clover Flat Monday. It was their first visit in several months. They stopped at the Oregon.

Tomorrow will be Oregon Day at the Charleston Exposition, and Congressman Tugue will have the honor of delivering the principal address.

J. H. Sillis, the well known representative of Lindley & Co., wholesale grocers of Sacramento, was in town during the week, and stopped at Hotel Lakeview.

Judge G. W. Hale, well known in Lake county, is the Republican nominee for Representative in Josephine county. Judge Hale is now practicing law in Grants Pass.

For a quiet drink of the finest liquor, or a pleasant smoke, drop in at the Palace and see George and Fent. They will treat you well—nothing is too good for the comfort of their friends. The Palace Reading Room is furnished with the latest metropolitan papers and New York pictorials.

The Odd Fellows of Klamath Falls will celebrate the anniversary of the order by a grand celebration on April 25th, next Saturday. Fine lithograph posters are out announcing the event.

Children Erik of the Mountrun have a handsome clock. You can't help but see it, any more than you can help from standing in front of their establishment and gazing on the beautiful window decorations.

W. W. Smith and E. E. Fitch of Elg are contemplating a new enterprise, and that is to run a fast express line between Klamath Falls and Lakeview, carrying passengers, freight and express matter. Such an enterprise, properly conducted, ought to be successful.

Ed Van Dorn, Harry Wood and Joe Page went out on a fishing trip last week and wandered on up to Lakeview. We didn't learn on which end of the pole the su—fish were, but the boys report the metropolis of Southern Oregon quiet, and say they had a good time.—Cedarville Record.

Dr. Coppage was called to likely Monday to see a 10-year-old boy, son of Frank Mackey of New Pine Creek. He found the boy suffering with a severe and well developed case of scarlet fever. Where the boy contracted the disease is not known as he had come direct from home. He is being cared for at Geo. Haggood's place at likely having taken sick there about ten days ago. A strict quarantine should, and doubtless will, be established to prevent the spread of the disease.—Aituras Plaindealer.

Social dance at the opera house next Saturday evening. Fine music. Everybody invited.

Jim Melick was in from Long Valley last week and reports everything in his section flourishing.

Again does Spring smile upon us.

Ten orrow it may snow—if not it surely will on the 3d of June.

Fresh alfalfa seed at the Lakeview Mercantile Co's. 14-2

Mrs. J. D. Mulkey of Davis Creek is recovering from the effects of a surgical operation performed by Drs. Risdon Cherry at Aituras, last week.

George and Fent can always be found at the Palace Club Rooms. There's always "something done" there. Drop in and see all the latest periodicals and pretty pictures, and hear the music. 15-11

Jonas Norin, the woolgrower, arrived in town Tuesday, after having sheared his flock at Willow Creek. He says the clip is heavier this season than it was last.

Five bargains in Ladies', Misses' and children's hats cut at Mrs. Nelson's and Miss Maxwell's Millinery Parlors, next Saturday, April 26th. Special prices for actual sales.

Aituras is talking of a celebration on the Fourth of July and the organization of a fire company. They already have an electric light plant, and, verily, the town is sprucing up a bit.

Lute Moss, who with J. W. Brown, has been herding their flocks on the desert this winter, was in Lakeview Monday. Lute says it got awful lonesome on the desert, and the winter seemed to be an exceedingly long one.

Wm. Harvey, woolgrower and President of the Lake County Telephone Company, accompanied by his family returned to Lakeview last Saturday, after passing the winter at their Summer Lake home. Mrs. Harvey expects to go below to remain for some time.

The height of absurdity would seem to have been reached when our friends the Rustler attempts to give reliable figures on "where the money of Lake county goes to." We would suggest that he carefully scrutinize the brief but honest statement of receipts and disbursements compiled by County Clerk Gunther and presented in The Examiner today.

The W. C. T. U. held a reception, last Saturday, at the M. E. Church. There were about 150 ladies present. After a short program, consisting of songs, duets, quartets, violin solos, and speeches, the ladies of the society served ice-cream and cake. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and expressed the hope that these entertainments might occur frequently.

Gus Fehroder, Democratic nominee for sheriff of Lake county, arrived from Summer Lake last Friday, and expects to remain in this end of the county a few weeks on a campaign tour. He and Hi Manning, nominee for clerk, went to Warner last Saturday. Both of these gentlemen will have to be fast sprinters to come anywhere near beating out their Republican opponents, Dunlap and Gunther. The two latter have had but one term and have made faithful officers.

The esteemed Rustler delivered itself of a large amount of bile in its last issue, and it is hoped it feels better now. It would keep a man trying and straining to catch up with the lightning calculations of that office when he begins figuring on the amount of money Lake county has lost and the present officers have appropriated. He may conclude, however, to quit figuring when he sees the actual state of affairs, presented by the records of Lake county, and compiled by Wm. Gunther, the present county clerk. This statement will be found in another column and Mr. Gunther is prepared at any time to certify to the same as being absolutely correct. The Rustler man is "warm" on figures when he wants them to look his way. The entire jangle of figures and "argument" presented by our friend down town, at a great cost of wear and tear to his thick nose, is all for naught, and is brushed away as a most ridiculous thing by the complete and systematic statement of the County Clerk.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Mitchell-Kahn Exclusion bill was lost in the Senate, the issue was not killed completely, for the Platt substitute was adopted, and it provides that all exclusion laws now in force be continued so far as they are not inconsistent with treaty obligations; that the laws shall apply to all territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, and to all immigration of Chinese laborers from the islands to the mainland territory of the United States or from one portion of the island territory to another portion of said island territory, but shall not apply to the transit of Chinese laborers from one island to another of the same group, or to islands within the jurisdiction of any state or territory. The law shall not expire with the termination of the present treaty with China.

Upon his return to his old home at Prineville last week the citizens of that place, irrespective of party, gave Hon. J. N. Williamson a joyous welcome home. The stage coach bearing Mr. Williamson was met several miles out of town by a special carriage decorated in National colors, and the entry into town was in the nature of a triumphal march. It is just as well to begin calling him Congressman Williamson now as any time, for he's a sure winner.

The promises of some men in a political campaign are like an echo; only a hollow mockery. Let him whom the shoe fits wear it.

The Daily "sack" has once more been opened and the boys are happy.

We have a large assortment of Millinery Goods coming and in order to make room for these goods we have decided to offer a certain line of our stock at a low price next Saturday, April 26th, 1902. This sale for men only. Remember the date. Mrs. Nelson & Miss Maxwell.

Miss Maud Woodcock expects to leave for San Francisco today to take a special six months college course. She will visit relatives in Klamath county for a short time before going to the city.

Woodcock & Son, blacksmiths and wagonmakers, Lakeview, are well prepared to do all work in their line on short notice, and will guarantee their work. Shop just north of Barry's livery stable. 16-1m Hugh L. Clifton, the popular young merchant of Bonanza, and Miss Bertha Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nichols of Poe Valley, Klamath county, were married at Klamath Falls, April 15, 1902. The couple will reside at Bonanza.

You never miss it when you call for the famous Kentucky Favorite whiskey at Post & King's. They can boast of other brands, but the Kentucky Favorite is never turned aside after having once been used. It must be good when physicians recommend it for their patients. Found only at Post & King's. 15-11

The man who votes the Republican ticket presented in The Examiner today need offer no apology for so doing. He may well feel proud of it.
