

LOCAL & PERSONAL COMING & GOING

Moore's Comedy Company played to large audiences in Surprise Valley.

Robert was up from Willow Ranch last Saturday, for the first time in many months.

Mrs. Annie L. Largent has turned over the Combs hotel at Alturas to Mrs. Frank Slavi.

Sixteen new subscriptions were added to The Examiner list in Lake county in four days last week.

When you want new harness of any kind take a look at Cheney's stock. 15-2

L. C. Hartlerode and Wm. Hartlerode and bride, were registered at The Oregon last Thursday.

Ashley Follett and family expect to remove from Lakeview to Pendleton to reside. They will probably start this week.

Dr. Harry Lane, Democratic nominee for State Senator on the fusion ticket in Multnomah county, is a cousin of Frank and Joe Lane of Lakeview.

Pack saddles at Cheney's harness shop. 15-2

Thomas Keir, the stone mason, has gone to work for George Hankins, having been unable to find in this vicinity the kind of stone he wanted for monument bases.

A. M. Smith was up from New Pine Creek last Saturday with a big load of fine sugar-cured bacon and hams, put up in his own packing house. He introduced the product at Bailey & Massingale's.

C. M. Taylor, the Goose Lake gardener and farmer, paid Lakeview a business visit last Thursday, for the first time in several months. Mr. Taylor has been suffering from lagrippe for a few weeks.

The attention of horsemen is called to the fine line of saddles at Cheney's. They are of fine finish and gorgeous trappings. 15-2

The smallpox quarantine has been raised at the Indian camp at Deadman, and the Siwash are now moving about. Quite a number struck out for the fishing and hunting grounds to the north and west.

J. W. Beckley and D. Beasley of Oakland, Ore., came out Tuesday, intending to go to Lakeview to look up lands suitable for grazing cattle, but owing to the unsettled condition of the weather returned home yesterday, visiting Medford enroute.—Ashland Town Talk.

"Toots" Summers, who pitched ball for Lakeview in the Alturas tournament last season, did not join the Sacramento team to cause the start was too small. He has been signed by the manager of the Redding team for this season. Redding, it is said, will have a strong team.

You never miss it when you call for the famous Kentucky Favorite whiskey at Post & King's. They can boast of other brands, but the Kentucky Favorite is never turned aside after having once been used. It can be good when physicians recommend it for their patients. Stand only at Post & King's. 15-11

H. V. Gates arrived here Tuesday accompanied with a crew of line men who have begun the work of constructing the Midway Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s line from Ashland into the island empire of southeastern Oregon and northwestern California. O. B. Gate is superintendent of construction.—Ashland Record.

All the fishermen returned last week from Sprague river and Drews creek, reporting "fanciest's luck." There is "nothing doing on the line" at Sprague, and had the boys not went prepared they would have suffered from hunger. At Drews the trout are taking the hook fairly well. We return thanks to Max Whittlesey and T. E. Bernard for a liberal supply of funny beauties. These gentlemen are entitled to any sort of a fish story free of charge, upon their next expedition.

E. E. Bond was an arrival from Redlands, Cal., last week.

Instead of Belgian hares the popular theme of the press is Belgian strikers.

S. Dixon of Warner Lake was a business visitor in Lakeview last week.

Fresh alfalfa seed at the Lakeview Mercantile Co's 14-2

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wingfield left Monday for a honeymoon trip to Tonopah.

Mrs. A. Amiek and daughter Eva were visitors from the New Pine Creek section last Friday.

Black Eye seed at the Lakeview Mercantile Co's. 14-2

District Attorney Bonner has arrived at Alturas with his bride. Mrs. Bonner is said to be handsome and accomplished.

Miss Maxwell, of the firm of Neilson & Maxwell, of Lakeview, has gone to Paisley with an elegant line of millinery. The spring bonnets are beautiful.

The social dance at Barry hall last Saturday evening was fairly well attended and was an enjoyable affair. The music by the Lakeview Orchestra was excellent.

Born—In Lakeview, Oregon, April 24, 1902, to the wife of Felix M. Green, a 12 lb. daughter. Felix says he now holds "three Jacks and a pair of Queens," a hand hard to beat.

George and Bent can always be found at the Palace City Rooms. There's always "something doing" there. Drop in and see all the latest periodicals and pretty pictures and hear the music. 15-11

Remember that Armer Brothers, the well known blacksmiths and horse-shoers, are still doing business at the old stand. Their work needs no praise; it speaks for itself.

C. O. Metzker, editor of the Post, accompanied by his wife came down from Paisley last Friday, returning home Sunday. Mrs. Metzker is delighted with Lakeview.

For a quiet drink of the finest liquor, or a pleasant smoke, drop in at the Palace and see George and Bent. They will treat you well—nothing is too good for the comfort of their friends. The Palace Reading Rooms is furnished with the latest metropolitan papers and New York pictorials. 15-11

We can assure our friend of the Cedarville Record that should the Ashland-Lakeview telephone system fail of completion by next fall, he will smoke cigars at The Examiner's expense for several days. We will win that wager yet.

Washbrook & Son, blacksmiths and wagon-makers, Lakeview, are well prepared to do all work in their line on short notice, and will guarantee their work. Shop just north of Barry's livery stable. 16-1m

Note the big advertisement of the famous racing stallion "Silver Bullion" in this issue. Horsemen should not overlook this high bred animal this season, for he will very likely make but the one stand, as the owner intends taking him East to put him on the track.

Sunday was clear and cold, but the beauty of Lakeview was not deterred from appearing in the late Easter bonnets and pretty spring frocks. No one will contradict the statement that the ladies of Lakeview are the swiftest dressers of any small town this side the metropolis.

B. W. Hartman, the well known wool-grower, returned last Saturday direct from Weltmar bei Bochum, Westfalen, Germany, where he has been on a visit to his aged mother, brothers, sisters and old time friends, since last July. It was 21 years since Mr. Hartman left the Fatherland, and upon his late visit he found many changes and great improvements in the various cities. "Billy" is looking well and his many friends are glad to welcome him home.

It has been bruite' about in certain quarters that The Examiner fight on the Judgeship is too severe to suit some people. There is one thing certain: If by chance The Examiner should accuse the Democratic nominee of anything it could not prove, or was libelous, in this campaign, it's a dead sure thing that the editor of this paper would be brought before the courts as a libeler. It should not be considered sinful or a crime to tell the truth, though it may make the subject wince. Evidently those who think The Examiner is too severe have not been reading the Rustler for the past four years, scarcely an issue of which did not contain contemptible references to Judge Tonningson—not only contemptible but malicious and slanderous; articles which insinuated that the County Court was a body of pirates, robbers and villains. It may be a privilege of some people to vilify Judge Tonningson; it may not be the privilege of The Examiner to tell a few truths about Dr. Daly. Upon what flesh does this Caesar feed that he has become so great? Because it is Dr. Daly, the wealthy landlord and banker, who has become the nominee of his party for County Judge, is the press to close up like a clam and let him go on hoodwinking the people without referring to his methods? We cannot see it in that light. The voters of Lake county may rest assured that nothing but facts will be dealt with in this campaign by The Examiner. If facts hurt, then let it be so.

B. Daly has at last found his way into the columns of the Rustler to make "explanations." He tells the people how, if elected Judge (2), he will pay off the county debt and reduce the expenses of the county. But he does not tell them that he will first inaugurate a system which will lead to "the gradual extinction of our present indebtedness" by compelling such wealthy men as B. Daly to pay their just proportions of county taxes. That is the current method to pursue in a "gradual extinction of our present indebtedness," and one which the Republican office holders intend to follow strictly in the future. The small holder pays his just taxes without a murmur, but was there ever a meeting of the County Board of Equalization in this county for years (unless it was the last meeting of that body) that B. Daly was not before the Board demanding a reduction of his taxes? No. It is all well enough to try to make the people believe that B. Daly is the Moses come to lead them out of the Wilderness, but first let Moses prove himself immaculate or the "common people" can have no faith in him.

There will doubtless be another material decrease in the public debt in Lake county when the 1902 taxes are paid, for Assessor Blair will insist on the wealthy classes swearing to their statements, thus compelling them to pay their just proportions of taxes. There is an organized effort to down John Blair at the polls because he is determined to do his duty as Assessor. Judge Tonningson and Commissioner Martin are also in the way of the "heavy tax-payers," for they are members of the Board of Equalization. It is no wonder that the wealthy class are shouting lustily for B. Daly for County Judge. He is one of them, and would protect their interests if elected—at the same time protecting himself. Verily, can the common people "see beyond their noses" in this campaign.

That old campaign dodge of the brilliant and shrewd? campaign sheet, of publishing "inquiries?" from "Tax-payer" of Silver Lake, Summer Lake and other precincts just before election time, is worn out; it is rusty. Our friend Joseph should be above such methods. The public is not misled by this bit of conserwork. Everybody knows that such letters and "inquiries" are conceived in the brain of the Rustler writers, and are written in a down town office.
