TONGUE AT CHARLESTON.

From the editorial columns of the Charleston News and Courier, Tuesday Morning, April 29, 1902.

In his eloquent speech at the Exposition on Saturday Congressman Tongue, of Oregon, paid a fine tribute to the spirit of the pioneers who conquered that great Commonwealth from the wilderness and made it one of the richest and most progressive in the Union. Incidentally, and without any intention of exposing one of the cherished weaknesses of his Charleston audience, he said some things which they cannot hear too often for their own good, as follows:

"It is not the man who is satisfied with his lot and his surroundings that goes to the front. Contentment is the enemy of achievement. Contentment never suffers, never sacrifices. * Contentment betters no conditions, rights no wrongs. * A contented man would build no factory, construct no steamboat, engage in no railroad enterprise. The men who have the money to engage in great undertakings would have enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasures, free from toil and sweat, if they were only contented. Contentment may bring happiness, it may be desirable for the individual, but it makes no progress and is not in the interest of humanity at large."

The men who opened the West to settlement and civilization were men with some higher notion of the reason for existence than the application of ancient formulas to modern needs and conditions. The spirit which controlled them and made them successful is the spirit which would make Charleston once more a great commercial city. "It is not the man who is satisfied with his lot and his surroundings that goes to the front." Don't forget that! What is needed in Charleston is something of the spirit of the pioneers who build up Oregon.

That "Lakeview firm holding membership in the ring," that the yawping Rustler jumps onto for paying face value for county warrants, and not allowing B. Daly to monopolize the business, will certainly be looked upon as a public benefactor. The public ought to be grateful to receive 100 cents on the dollar for county warrants after being obliged to sell them for years past at 90 to 95 cents on the dollar to money lenders like B. Daly. That despicable "ring firm" has certainly driven B. Daly out of the warrant business, for he must have a margin besides the 6 per cent interest if he invests in warrants. However, he still clips his coupons from the Town of Lakeview Bonds for many thousands, and is "doing quite well, thank you." It would appear that the Republican County Court is not sending Lake county to the "demonition bow-wows" very fast when its warrants are selling at 100 cents on the dollar. It is a proposition that the public has had no opportunity to take advantage of for a good many years past, and it is certainly a satisfactory condition of affairs.

The Examiner is glad to note that the esteemed Rustler concedes the defeat of at least one Democrat in the local campaign. In speaking of the virtues of Mr. "Shroder," Democratic candidate for Sheriff that paper says:

"He is well qualified and will poll a large vote."

Anybody can see there is little, if any, enthusiasm in the above sentence; no encouragement whatever for Mr. Schroder by the "independent Daly organ. Mr. Schroder will doubtless "poll a large vote," but H. R. Dunlap, who has proved himself to be one of the best Sheriff's Lake county has ever had, will poll a larger one.

It will be noticed, in perusing the statement of a citizen in this issue, who has taken the trouble to look over the county records and learn the truth, that his findings and the statement of Mr. Gunther regarding the financial condition of Lake County are quite consistent, and in direct contradiction of the flagrant misrepresentation of the Daly organ.

The House has passed the Omnibus Statehood bill, and Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico will add three more stars to the American Flag.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mrs. Eb Follett and Mrs. Barnes were up from New Pine Creek shopping last Saturday.

"Grandma" Tonningsen was seriously ill for a few days during the past week, but is now much improved.

Mrs. H. Schminck and little Verda Umbach left for Chico, Cal., last Sunday to spend the summer.

W. S. Wible of Warner brought his little girl over this week to be treated. The child has heart trouble, and Dr. E. H. Smith advised that she be taken at once to a lower altitude. Mr. Wible will arrange at once to go to Red Bluff with the child.

Gus Schlager returned from Madeline last Thursday, having met his wife and little daughter at that point. Mrs. Schlager has been spending the past nine months with relatives at her old home in Ohio, and returns here much improved in health. Her many friends are delighted to welcome her home.

Miss Flo Hall will leave for Redding, Cal., next week to reside with her sister Mrs. C. D. Buick, formerly of Silver Lake. Miss Hall does not expect to return to Lakeview. Her many friends while regretting her departure will wish her much happiness in her new home.

Wallace Taylor, the genial superintendent for the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Company in Lake county, arrived here last Saturday from the railroad. Mr. Taylor has been away nearly all winter, and returns to look after the extensive interests of the company for the summer.

Warrants to the amount of $2,316.00 were ordered drawn by the County Court on May 10th in payment of the scalps of 1158 coyotes, cats and cougars killed in Lake county. This state law is another "extravagance with Lake County funds" for which the Lake County Court is responsible we presume.
