

NEWS, LOCAL AND GENERAL

It was a mistake about the "hot air bet" between the two Colonels on the Daly election. The "drinks" were wagered. Only that and nothing more.

Frank B. Cannon was up from New Pine Creek last week to answer court subpoena to do jury duty. Mr. Cannon was fortunate enough to be excused.

A. E. Follett was up from the State line last Thursday. "Pete" says his chances are good for election to the office of road supervisor. He is making a "clean, but vigorous" fight to win.

Remember that Schminck has the famous McCormack Mowers and Rakes. Medal winners. None better. All extra constantly in stock. 19-3

John E. Walker, road supervisor in South Warner, was an arrival in town Friday. Mr. Walker has been doing considerable road work between Adel and Parsnip creek with a crew of good workers.

Woodcock & Son, blacksmiths and wagonmakers, Lakeview, are well prepared to do all work in their line on short notice, and will guarantee their work. Shop just north of Barry's livery stable. 16-1m Oakley Clark, Republican candidate for road overseer in South Warner, was an arrival in Lakeview Thursday, having come over with his Democratic opponent, John Walker. They are both good boys, and everybody likes 'em.

Try Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, the best physic. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

"Grandma" Miller, eighty years old, who has lived in Paisley for a long time, is now at the home of Mrs. Ruth Penland in Lakeview, where she will be given good care in her declining years. Mrs. Miller is quite infirm.

All extras for McCormack mowers and rakes can always be found at Schminck's. 19-3

The exchanges are telling a good one on the teacher. A school man'um caught the janitor in a falsehood, whereupon she asked him where he supposed he would go if he "told stories." The janitor replied that wherever he went he expected he'd be making fires for school teachers.

The next bottle of whiskey you buy resolve to try the "Jesse Moore." You've heard it was the best; prove it by practical test. Sold by Jammoerthal.

No one is accused by fate. No one is utterly desolate. But some heart, though unknown, Responds unto his own.

A Modoc county school teacher was endeavoring to beat some lessons into the obtuse mind of a large boy, and he was somewhat nettled at his ill success. "Why, George Washington was a surveyor at your age!" exclaimed the school teacher. "Yes; and at your age he was President of the United States," retorted the boy.

On his arrival from Ager Sunday, R. W. Marple reported that 275 men were employed on the new railroad and that the promoters wished to double the number as soon as possible. All who want work there can get it. Mr. Marple says track laying is now progressing rapidly and that cars will be running to the river, twelve miles from Laird's within ten days.—Klamath Republican.

Interesting Notes Gathered During The Week and Stated Briefly For Examiner Readers

You won't find "Jesse Moore" Whisky in cheap places—it isn't made for cheap men to drink. It is the best and demanded by the best people.

A young man from the country sauntered into a Lakeview store the other day, and told the clerk he wanted to buy a collar. "What size?" asked the clerk. "Well," says the ruralite, "I dunno what size collar I take, but I wear 32x34 pants." Alex fainted.

No sideboard is quite complete without a bottle of "Jesse Moore" rye or bourbon whisky. It is better than the kind you have always considered best. Sold by Jammoerthal.

Thelka A. Schneider (formerly Thelka A. Hoffman of Klamath Falls) has sued her husband Robert F. Schneider for a divorce. In June '98 Thelka took him to her bosom for weal or woe. Five weeks thereafter Robert deserted her, taking with him all her clothing and jewelry and $1,700 in coin of the realm which belonged to her papa. Kind friends furnished the destitute Thelka with a dress. The suit is brought in Multnomah.

J. M. Fulton, who is in this northern country in the interest of the Flannigan Warehouse Co. of Reno, a full account of which appeared in this paper last week, returned from Lakeview Monday and started on to Reno Tuesday. He informed us that he reached this section a little too early as many of the sheep men have not yet sheared their flocks. He is convinced, however, that all those who do not sell their wool at home, will ship to the Flannigan Warehouse Co.—New Era.

In purchasing wagons and implements from foreign establishments through agents who travel about the country, you are taking chances. Usually you get an inferior grade of goods, and this is why these traveling fellows can sell you a cheaper article than your home dealer. When you buy from the home dealer you are assured if there is any dissatisfaction—if the vehicle or implement is not as represented—you will be none the loser by the transaction. Avoid doing business with the traveling huckster.

A gentleman who arrived from Reno the other day tells an amusing story at the expense of W. F. & Co's agent on the N. C. O. A Modoc farmer had a fine hog shipped by express. The hog was all right at Termo but at that place the agent, for lack of room, put the crate containing the hog on the platform of the express car. It was very dark when the train arrived at Madeline, but light enough to see that his hogship had made his escape. He had evidently tired of his ride and took to the woods.—Alturas Plaindealer.

Charles to the altar led the lovely Jane, and to her father's house returned again, where, to convey them on their wedding tour, all ready stood a brilliant coach and four; when lo! the gathering showers at once descend, clouds and warring winds contend; this moves him not, but in he hands his bride, and seats himself enraptured by her side, when thus to cheer the fair one he began: "I hope we soon shall have a little sun." But she to whom the weather gave no pain, who most about her future state did think, replied with a regreish smile, "I'd rather have a daughter."

Good For Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured. —SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

A dispatch to the Chronicle from Redding tells of the frightful accident which befell J. Brown, a prosperous stockman of Modoc county, who went to Redding a few weeks ago to sell horses. While driving a colt about the town on the morning of the 19th, the animal got beyond control, and Brown was thrown out of the cart, his head striking a tree. He received injuries that will doubtless prove fatal. Brown is a man well along in years.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call justly for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PISKNEY HALL, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.

I wish to buy an Oxford tie, But everywhere I go I find that low shoes all are high, Though some high shoes are low.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by Lee Beall, Druggist.

The Surprise Valley Record has lived ten years under the editorial and business management of R. H. Stanley, and is destined to out-live its talented editor. The Record enjoys the results of an excellent and liberal support in a field exclusively its own. The Examiner wishes the neighbor "over the hills" continued success.

Won't Follow Advice After Paying For it.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by Lee Beall, Druggist.
