

LACONICS.

Bert Haskins was over from Warner last week.

John Manpin and I. Wakefield were over from Warner last week.

The Odd Fellows lot was sold last Monday to Charles Umbach for $450.

Joe Howard has gone to his mine on Paisley mountain to get out the "yaller stuff."

Born—In Lakeview, Oregon, May 28, 1902, to the wife of Eldon M. Brattain, a son, LARRY—The infant died after a few hours' lease of life.

P. E. Taylor of Warner Lake has been a business visitor in Lakeview for a week past.

Mrs. Willard Duncan is here from Modoc county on a visit with her sister Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain.

Enjoy "A Night in Ireland" at the Methodist Church tonight. You will be greatly interested.

Born—In San Francisco, May 13, 1902, to the wife of John Stroude Morrill, Jr. (nee Miss Olive Snider) a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wakefield of Warner Valley were visitors in Lakeview last week, and stopped at The Oregon.

The campaign of "affidavits" will probably be opened by the Daly organ today—just before election, too late to counteract them.

Services at the Baptist Church in Lakeview Sunday evening. Farewell sermon by Rev. C. W. Holloman. Everybody invited.

Dudley Hollin hauled out 9000 pounds of ground barley last Saturday to the ZX ranch. The barley was ground at the Lakeview Flaming mill.

No man of his party has a reasonable excuse to vote against George W. Johnson for County Treasurer. He is capable, honest and trustworthy. That is sufficient.

W. K. Barry has purchased the old Huff meat market building, opposite the Methodist church on Main street, and is strongly of the notion to engage in the but-hering business.

The friends of Miss Josie Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harvey, gave her a surprise last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was had by all present.

While plowing at the Hot Spring ranch a few days ago Mark Musgrave "turned up" a human skull, which probably belonged to an Indian warrior, whose spirit went to the happy hunting grounds in years gone by.

Al Barnum, the sheepman, and Jim Blaisdell of the "B" ranch on Sprague river, were in last week on a business trip. Al reports a successful lambing of his bunch at Round Grove, and Jim says the honey crop will be big at the "B" ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dykeman of the 70 ranch, in Drews valley, were county seat visitors last week. Mr. Dykeman will soon have things arranged at the 70 for the accommodation of the traveling public. The 70 will be a first-class stopping place.

We understand that work will commence soon at Bald Mountain cinnabar claims about fifty miles east of here. Fine specimens of ore have been obtained there, and from indications it will some day be a lively mining camp.—says the Cedarville Record.

Mrs. Warren C. Laird has returned to her home at Plush after an absence of several months in Red Bluff, Cal. Mrs. Laird left Lake county last November and sojourned in the California town with friends during the winter. The lady is much improved in health.

George and Fent of the Palace have the finest grades of liquors, high class beer and the popular brands of cigars. Besides they have in their reading room all the latest newspapers and periodicals, and in their club room excellent music and the latest Kaleidoscope moving pictures. Drop into the Palace when you are in town and you will be entertained. 18-11

Mrs. Margaret Mar Young, born in Australia, aged 62 years, died at Oakdale, Cal., two weeks ago. Deceased left six children, all grown to man and womanhood. One son is S. W. Young of Rock Creek, Lake county, Oregon. Mrs. Young left an estate valued at $8,000.

On the third page of The Examiner this week will be found a reference to the frightful accident which befell J. Brown of Modoc county. Later accounts of the accident are to the effect that the man is J. T. Brown an aged and prosperous stockman recently of Merrill, Klamath county, and that he died in an hour after being thrown from his wagon in Redding. His wife was with him on the trip to Redding. Two sons-in-law reside at Merrill, Grant Gay and K. Oliver.

ELECTION MONDAY.

Remember that election day falls on MONDAY June 24, instead of Tuesday, as formerly.

CONN-BUTLER

On Wednesday evening, May 21st, Mr. La Fayette Conn and Miss Lora Fern Butler joined hearts and hands in the holy bonds of matrimony, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the presence only of the Steiner family, and Mrs. Virgil Conn and daughters, of Paisley. Rev. C. M. Smythe of the Methodist church officiated. Mr. Conn is one of the bright young men of Eastern Oregon, a lawyer of ability who enjoys an excellent practice, and a gentleman recognized among his fellow men for his honesty of purpose and loyalty to his friends. His bride is a talented lady, amiable, lovable and held in the highest esteem by her acquaintances for the numerous charms and graces that go to make up perfect womanhood. She is an accomplished musician and has taught one term in the Lakeview public school with great success. Many friends will join with The Examiner in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Conn the rich blessings and perfect joy of a happy wedded life.

Circuit Court Orders.

The following orders were made in cases in the Circuit Court during the past week:

W. K. Barry vs. James McKee, W. P. Overton and James N. Givan—Time for defendants to plead to complaint extended to Tuesday, June 3, 1902.

Cynthia I. McCall and W. H. McCall vs. J. C. Porter and Josiah Porter—J. A. Anthony appointed referee to regulate water flow from creeks constituting rights in suit, pending action on appeal. Action on affidavit of contempt in same suit dismissed without prejudice.

State of Oregon vs. O. E. Charlton as administrator of Estate of Benj. Warner, I. N. Converse, et al.—Order directing summons to issue to heirs to appear.

Slow Baseball Sunday.

The State Line team and Lakeview ball players played a slow game on the new grounds at Agricultural park last Sunday. Pine Creek was short several of their regular players, the new ground was soft and slow, and altogether the game was uninteresting. The score stood 11 to 16 in favor of Lakeview, a very poor game compared with the one played on the State Line grounds two weeks before when the score stood 4 to 5. The State Line team in last Sunday's game lined up with the following men: J. Gibbins, Leo Mulkey, Ira Smith, F. C. Easter, H. Cook, C. Boyse, C. Rhodes, O. Smith and T. Bites. A return game will probably be played at the State Line next Sunday.

Full Jury Empannelled.

If John Blair is re-elected County Assessor, and he surely will be, such men as B. Daly will be compelled to pay their just proportion of taxes in the future. These men will be compelled to swear to their statements, and if they do not swear to the truth there will be "something doing!"

Give Billy Gunther the credit he deserves as a capable, honest and trustworthy county official, and re-elect him to the office of County Clerk for one term more. He should not be forgotten, even if his duties during the campaign have kept him from making a canvass of all the precincts. Mark a cross after No. 53 on your ballot next Monday.

The records of the U. S. Land office at Lakeview, destroyed by fire in 1900, have been duplicated and every record of the office has been completed up to date. The work was finished in the land office this week, and the records are now in better shape than ever before. This work has been done in a comparatively short space of time considering the time consumed in the work in other land offices where records have been destroyed.

Mr. Oliver W. Howard and Miss Ida Humphrey, residents of Bly, Oregon, were married last Thursday in the parlor of Hotel Lakeview by Town Recorder Chas. Umbach. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard of Drews Valley, and is an excellent young man. The bride is an estimable young woman of Klamath county who is much admired by a large circle of friends. The young people will reside at Bly. The Examiner wishes them a long life of happiness.

The "Simon Machine" Separator.

The new "Simon Machine" Cream Separator on exhibition for the past week at Bailey & Massingill's has attracted much attention on the part of ranchers. The "whip attachment" is not used with this machine, for the machine proper whips the cream from the milk. "R. Ing" is invited to call and inspect this machine; it may interest him, inasmuch as he has written so much about it during the past few weeks. It is the finest hand cream separator ever invented. Everybody is invited to call and inspect it and see it work.

Music Lessons.

Mrs. Bertrand Blair is now prepared to take a number of pupils to teach them instrumental music, at her residence. Half-hour lessons 25 cents; one hour lessons 50 cents. 16-1m

DEALERS IN

Hardware, Stoves, Farm Implements, And Tinware..... Wagons and Vehicles.

Lakeview, Oregon, May 29, 1902

Dear Friends:

We are before you again this week. This time we wish to talk wagon to you; we are making up a car of Wagons and Buggie's besides the large stock we have on hand. We will sell you a Wagon or Buggy for from twenty to forty dollars less money than the Foreign agents who are canvassing the country now. We guarantee our rigs to be of a better quality; we can also give you good easy terms if you wish them. We are here to stay, and mean to do business with those who do business with us. Why not give us a trial and be convinced? We will substantiate what we say. We have nothing to say against local dealers but ask you to call and see if we are not right in what we claim. We will have Waukegan Wire in a few days,

Yours for Business
J. E. BERNARD & SON.
