

Let it Go At That.

A tramp met Senator Depew and asked him, in that easy, velvet-tongued way: "Would you kindly assist a—, etc."

Chauncey, of course, is an easy mark, and, as he fanned himself after extracting the quarter, the tramp inquired: "And who may I say was so kind-hearted?"

"Oh, never mind. That's all right."

"But in after years, when I recall those whose tender hearts—"

"Never mind, my good fellow!"

"Then I cannot accept it, sir. I must let my friends know—"

"Well, tell 'em it was Grover Cleveland, and let it go at that."

The tramp put the quarter back in his pocket leisurely and shook his head.

"Now, my good fellow," said the Senator, "may I ask your name?"

"A gentleman in distress is loath to confess."

"Yes, but if I have your name I may be able to help you."

"No, my pride will not permit."

"But allow me to know whom I have had the pleasure of meeting in this happy way."

"Oh, well, tell 'em it was Chauncey Depew and let it go at that."

Chauncey fanned himself and let it go.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire of the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Only 50c.

The Democratic party in Congress are arrayed against it, says the Salem Statesman.

It is not an open opposition. But it is ineffective in the delay and defeat of the measure at this session as an open opposition. It is less manly and less worthy of respect than open opposition.

A Terrible Explosion.

"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for Cuts, Corns, Sores, Bolls, Bruises, Skin Diseases and Piles. 25c at Lee Beall's.

No sideboard is quite complete without a bottle of "Jesse Moore" rye or bourbon whisky. It is better than the kind you have always considered best. Call on Jammertal.

In the Kings County Surrogate's Court, New York, last week an interesting will case was tried and decided in favor of the will. Plaintiffs were niece and husband of Susan S. Allen, who died leaving all her money to her friend and boarding mistress, and who it was attempted to prove was insane at the time the will was drawn. Stories of a remarkable case of religious mania were brought out. Mrs. Allen imagined she was called to convert the heathen Chinese and began operations on one Fong Gui. She "converted" him and gave him a laundry which prospered. He became a "well Gui." Mrs. Allen wanted Gui to wed a white damsel, who could accompany her to China as maid. When approached on the subject Gui said: "Tlotee out Melican gal and Fong Gui mally dlam quickly, you bet!" The girl was found, the marriage duly solemnized, but one month of a blissful honeymoon was enough for Fong and he quietly sold the laundry and slipped away to Frisco. Mrs. Allen decided she was mistaken about being called to convert the heathen, made her will and died. The contest followed.

Oregon's Victory at Charleston.

Henry E. Doach, Oregon's Commissioner to the Charleston Exposition telegraphs to the Oregonian under date of May 17, as follows:

"Oregon still flies with her own wings. Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away, we find that we have captured 22 medals and diplomas, and she has not lost a feather. We were awarded one diploma of highest award, 63 gold, 43 silver, 55 bronze medals and 90 diplomas of honorable mention, which is more than any other three states combined."

Those contemplating an eastern trip will be interested to know that there will shortly be on sale greatly reduced rate tickets in connection with the Rio Grande System, the famous "Scenic Line of The World."

This line offers its passengers a most delightful and comfortable journey to all eastern points.

It is the only transcontinental line passing directly through quaint and picturesque Salt Lake City "The City of The Saints", beautiful Glenwood Springs, Leadville, Pueblo, Colorado Springs, (where a side trip may be made to the Garden of the Gods and the summit of Pikes Peak over the cog-wheel railroad), and Denver, the queen city of the intermountain region. Stop-overs are allowed on all classes of tickets.

Three daily express trains make close connections with all trains east and west and afford a choice of five distinct routes of travel. Of what does a bad taste in your mouth remind you? It indicates that your stomach is in bad condition and will remind you that there is nothing so good for such a disorder as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets after having once used them. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach and regulate the bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by Lee Beall, druggist.

We hope the next time Albert Dent comes to town he will bring his whiskers with him, so people will know who he is. Old acquaintances "knew that man's face but couldn't place him."

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. STRUCKFADEN, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.
