

LACONICS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of Paisley are here this week visiting relatives.

The Boone's of Plush talk of prosperity in this issue of The Examiner. See last page.

Willis Scammon, the Plush stockman, was in on business this week, and met many old friends.

Will J. Sherlock, and Mrs. Richard Sherlock and two children, arrived from Paisley Tuesday to remain a few days.

A big load of Klamath potatoes, extra quality, at Whorton's vegetable store. Order now, and you won't get left. 25-2

George C. Turner, the Cedarville stockman, is now on the "hello" line, having connected his residence four miles south of Cedarville with the main line.

A Ft. Klamath correspondent says: "Miss Lena Holbriek, one of Klamath Falls' charming young ladies, is visiting with her friend Mrs. W. G. Hill, at the Fort."

A new line of Boys Shoes just received at Graves' Red Shoe store. Get your pick early. All kinds of best shoe polish.

Several belated woodgrowers spent several days in Lakeview during the past week. They came too late to unload when the top price, 13 1/2, was offered.

M. T. Walters, who has been in bad health for a long time, is now looking like a "two-year-old." His health has wonderfully improved during the past few weeks.

New druggs, new and delightful perfumes, everything for the toilet—complete spring stock fresh and pure at Beal's drug store. 18-11

L. Gerber, the Klamath stock buyer, has bought 200 head of cattle from Resden and Smith of Summer Lake. The stock will be shipped to Gerber Bros., Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerber, who have been visiting Mr. Gerber's relatives in Sacramento for the past couple of months, have returned to their home at Lorelia, Klamath county.

Druggist Beal is reducing his stock of Toilet Soaps by reducing the prices on the article. He must have room for his new stock of Soaps and is making a laughing on prices. 19-2

The wool market has been at a standstill for a week. There are a number of growers who failed to unload at the top price, and a few big clips, and many small ones are still unsold.

The real estate firm of Bayley & Maxwell effected the sale of the Lun Long property, house and lot, on South Dewey street, Lakeview, last Monday. The purchaser was Morris Wingfield.

Dick Wilcox has received a large invoice of pure fresh candies especially for his Fourth of July trade. Those pretty flags at Wilcox's are also something new—all sizes in pure silk. 25-2

Mrs. F. P. Light has returned from Ft. Bidwell, where she went to see her sister Mrs. Rufus Ward, who has been dangerously ill. We are pleased to state that Mrs. Ward is recovering.

Every man and woman in this vicinity should attend the Farmers' Institute to be held under the auspices of the Oregon Agricultural College in Lakeview next Monday afternoon and evening.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor," also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

Mrs. Ida Pherson has purchased from Mrs. Rosie Frankl, through J. Frankl, a building lot on Main street nearly opposite the Methodist church. Mrs. Pherson will build a residence on the lot.

Sam T. Lambert, who has been sojourning in "the wilderness" for several months, was in Lakeview this week shaking hands with many friends. Sam has been gathering the clans at Tick Ridge.

The Palace (George & Fent's place) is becoming the smokers' emporium. The excellent brands of cigars carried there are the "Belmont," the "Robert Mantel," and a new cigar made for the exclusive trade of the Palace, the "Key West Quartett." This is an extra fine article. 24-3m

Mrs. Wm. Harvey, who has been visiting in Oakland, Cal., for two months, returned home last Thursday. Mrs. Harvey was accompanied to Lakeview by her sister-in-law Mrs. Nellie Harvey, who will spend some time at the Harvey home at Summer Lake during the summer.

"El Comandante!" Who is it—what is it? Lovers of a good smoke will never ask that question, for they know "El Comandante" is the pure weed that has made Post & King's cigar department famous. Ask once for an "El Comandante" and you will call for it always. On sale only at Post & King's, Lakeview. 24-3m

Plats Received.

U. S. Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, June 20, 1902. Notice is hereby given that approved plats of the following townships have been received by this office, viz:

Townships 31 south, range 27 east, and 32 south, range 22 east.

Said plats will be filed July 21, 1902. Applications to enter lands in the above townships will be received on and after said date. E. M. BRATTAIN, Register.

It's Funny.

But when a young man buys Ice Cream for his heart's Desire at Ahlstrom Bros., she has a warm spot in her heart for him and no coldness comes between them. 25

Mark Musgrave, proprietor of the hot springs bath, now has the bath waters reduced to a comfortable temperature. He intends to keep the water at a temperature of about 85 degrees in the future, so all who desire a comfortable bath can have it at the hot springs bathing resort. 24-2

Women of Woodcraft Convention.

The district convention of Women of Woodcraft held at Eugene last week elected the following officers: Guardian, Bertha Parker, Albany; Clerk, Kate Cavender, Brownsville; Attendant, Ida Umbach, Lakeview; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. E. H. Osey, Roseburg; Outer Sentinel, Mrs. C. B. Long, Ashland; Delegates to National Convention in August, Mrs. A. T. Cockerline, Eugene; Mrs. Jennie Arnold, Toledo; Mrs. Kate Lundo, Marshfield.

Hay For Sale

We have 75 tons of good Alfalfa and Timothy hay for sale, which we will deliver to purchasers. See us at once. 25-11 Reid Bros., Lakeview, Ore.

The first vegetables of the season are now in the market. Everything in the line will be found at the Lakeview Meat Market. Lane & Wendell propose to furnish their patrons with everything best class in the meat and vegetable line from their cold storage. Get it there and you know it's good. 2

Mentally Derailed.

The New Era says that W. T. Cressler, the Cedarville banker, a few days ago became mentally derailed, and is now reported to be in a critical condition. It is thought that the attack was brought on by injuries received by Mr. Cressler in a runaway accident a few weeks ago, in which he was thrown from a buggy and severely injured about the head. He was taken ill in Nevada and brought home to Cedarville. Mr. Cressler has long been one of Madoc's prominent citizens and we hope to hear of his improvement soon.

Don't Marry For Money.

The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. Infalible for Jaundice, Biliousness, Malaria, Fever and Ague and all Liver and Stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25c at Lee Beal's drug store.

Race Track Privileges.

Sealed bids for the following privileges will be received by the Secretary of the Lake County Agricultural Association: Pool Privilege; Bar Privilege; Ice Cream & Confectionery privilege. Bids must be in the hands of the Secretary by 3:50 p. m., Wednesday, June 25th, 1902. The Association reserves the right to reject any and all bids. 24-24 V. L. SNELLING, Sec.

BLOOD HISTORY

Born in bone marrow—dies in the liver. This is the beginning and the end of the rich, red blood that keeps us all alive. Blood history makes a fascinating story.

Scott's Emulsion often plays a most important part in blood history. At the very beginning—that is where its influence is greatest.

Scott's Emulsion is a blood food—a rich material for making new blood. Nothing better for bringing color to pale faces.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.
