A fire burned the residence of A. U. Nelson at Reno on July 10th, and before his infant daughter could be rescued the house was doomed and the infant with it. The Gazette says the grief of the mother was agonizing in the extreme and made many a strong man weep. It was one of the saddest cases ever witnessed in Reno.

Elder Summerville accompanied by Miss Rose Fielder visited the cabin about 8 miles north of Lakeview that sheltered Mr. Summerville one night two years ago from the chilling winter blasts. It was the night he got lost in a snow storm and wandered around in the deep snow, until this lonely cabin loomed up like a long-lost brother. Miss Fielder took a picture of the cabin.

Jim Dodson was over to town one day last week looking for a couple of boys who removed the bar from his wagon that was loaded with lumber at the Camas mill. Some one also carried off the fifth chain that the lumber was bound on with. Jim was pretty mad and had he found the boys who are known to have been over there from Lakeview, something might have happened.

The Palace (George & Fent's place) is becoming the smokers' emporium. The excellent brands of cigars carried there are the "Belmont," the "Robert Mautel," and a new cigar made for the exclusive trade of the Palace, the "Key West Quartett." This is an extra fine article.

F. B. Mackinder, editor of the St. Helena (Cal.) Star, and Postmaster at St. Helena, arrived in Lakeview last Thursday on a month's visit to his old-time friends Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Massingill. Mr. Mackinder was scheduled to come up on a vacation about this time last year, and The Examiner so announced, but he was prevented from coming by some unavoidable circumstance. The Examiner hopes the gentleman will enjoy his visit to Lake county, and that he may collect a sufficient supply of fish stories while here to tell his friends when he returns home.

At the regular meeting of Lakeview Rebekah Lodge 22 last Friday night the following officers were installed by District Deputy Grand Master Mrs. C. A. Knox, for the ensuing six months: N. G., Mrs. Eva Jackson; V. G., Mrs. Maud Winkelman; Secretary, Miss May Miller; Treasurers, Mrs. Minnie Light; Warden, Mrs. J. Aviragnet; Conductor, Miss May Snider; R. S. N. G., Mrs. M. Snelling; L. S. N. G., Mrs. C. A. Knox; R. S. V. G., Mrs. Mary Snider; L. S. V. G., Mrs. Gladys Schlagel; Chaplain, Miss Rose Venator.

Work on the Lakeview Water Co's pipe line has been practically discontinued for the summer, and will not be resumed again until the injunction suit filed by the California & Oregon Land Company has been dissolved. The section of land on which the Water Company wishes to lay its pipes belongs to the Land Company, and last year held the land at $1.50 per acre, and were offered $1.25 per acre for it. This year the Water Company offered the $1.50 for the section, but the price has raised to $2.00, and this amount they refuse to pay, consequently were stopped from laying their pipes on the land. The case may be amicably settled before the October term of court, otherwise a condemnation suit will be begun and land the appraised.

Railroad Men Here.

[Alturas Plaindealer.]

Two gentlemen, representatives of the Southern Pacific railroad company, passed through Alturas Monday going north. We understand that Lakeview was their destination and their business was to take a look at the country as a possible field for railroad investments. By this it must not be understood that track laying will begin on their return. They simply come to take a casual view of the route, to look at the country and ascertain as far as possible its productive capacity. It proves one thing, however, and that is that the Southern Pacific has its eye on this and Lake county and is thinking of a line to serve as a feeder for its great system.

The aforesaid gentlemen arrived in Lakeview, pitched their tent on Deadman creek, looked around, said nothing to anyone, and stole away as silently as they came. They were evidently not anxious to be interviewed.
