C. U. Snider left last Wednesday morning for Portland, to attend the annual A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge meeting.

Mrs. Della Cobb has rented her residence to L. F. Conn, who will occupy the house in a month or so. Mrs. Cobb and daughter Essie will spend the winter in Oakland.

J. W. Bailey, Oregon's Food and Dairy Commissioner, has been elected president of the National Dairy and Pure Food Association. A signal honor for the Oregon man.

Perry McDaniel and wife arrived in Lakeview last Friday and will make their future residence here. Perry's sheep have been in Modoc county for several years.

Mrs. Fanny Burrus left on last Thursday's stage for Portland to attend Grand Lodge Degree of Honor. Mrs. Anna Sherlock accompanied her to the Oregon metropolis on a visit.

By order of the Lodge it is requested that all members of Lakeview Lodge No. 63 I. O. O. F. be present at the next regular meeting, on Saturday night, and assist in installation of officers.

Fleming Bro's Waragraph Co., and Black Congress of Novelty and Marionette show combined are billed to show in Lakeview next Friday night. The company gives a good entertainment.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Beall's Drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Geo. Sweeney of Lake City, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon the person of J. C. Crane, after a preliminary examination in the justice court in Alturas last week, the case was dismissed.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor," also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

W. G. Callahan, of the Flanigan Warehouse Company at Reno, after spending a couple of weeks in Lakeview interviewing our sheepmen, returned home last Saturday. Mr. Callahan was favorably impressed with this section and thinks Lake County has a great future.

There is a report that the Columbia Southern railroad, building this way from Shaniko, is now backed by Jim Hill of the Great Northern. That is so, it is an assurance that the line will be pushed along with all possible speed, says the Klamath Republican.

Always and Feat of the Palace have the best grades of liquors, high class cigars and the popular brands of cigars. Be sure to buy in their reading room a spring wasspapper and peridicate. All's drug store 3m excellent music.

There is power enough going to water at Klamath Falls to supply industrial energy for a city of a hundred thousand people. Will it always be so? Asks the Klamath Falls Republican. A large share of this immense power would be immediately utilized if it was located near Lakeview.

We told you so—that the quartet of Lakeview sportsmen would spring a fish or bear story on their return. Don't believe a word of that bear yarn. Bailey, Beall, Anderson & Dyer are alright when it comes to telling about it, but they didn't leave camp all the time they were gone. We have it straight.

A freak of nature in the form of a peculiar growth in a tree has been discovered in Lakeview. A young pear tree with a number of pears the size of walnuts hanging on it, is just beginning to bloom for the second time this year. One peculiar feature of the phenomenon is that the blooms appear at the extreme ends of this year's growth.

H. E. Barker, the new Alturas-Lakeview mail contractor was in Lakeview Monday to take charge of the line. He has the contract all the way to Madeline, but has sublet the Alturas-Madeline end to the old contractor, Van Loan. A mistake was made in the new contract whereby the stage lays over one night at Alturas and one night at Madeline. Arrangements are being made to have it changed so there will be no stopovers, and to make the run from Madeline in 24 hours. A Bieher is still the Lakeview agent.

The woodmen and Circle lodge's held joint installation last night.

J. Frankl departed for his home in San Francisco Tuesday morning.

Elsie Russell returned Tuesday from Sisson where he went with a drummer.

Dan Maloy purchased Tuesday, for Adams the Eagleville mutton buyer, the following yearling weathers at $2.25 per head: Walter Sherlock, 1,000 head; Quillin, 1250; J. S. Field, 400 head.

N. S. McKenzie superintendent of the California & Oregon Telegraph Co., left Susanville for Lakeview Tuesday to move the office at this place from Hotel Lakeview to the Frankl building.

Owen Dunlap, who left last week on his bicycle for Phoenix, arrived at Bly by half past 10 o'clock on the morning he left Lakeview. The distance is 47 miles and a mountain intervenes. At that gait he should reach Phoenix the same evening, 180 miles.

A report got started last week that somebody had seen a real bearsomewhere in the mountains west of Lakeview sometime last year, and W. D. Woodcock and Eugene Ede started in hot pursuit of old bruin. They are known to be well up on bear tactics and are expected to bring in one of the tracks at least.

Thomas McGrath who went to San Francisco about a month ago to have a large tumor removed from his neck, returned home last week accompanied by his wife, and is sound and well. It will be remembered that the jugular vein was cut in the operation and that he nearly bled to death, but he survived the ordeal.

Our contemporary, the Lake County Rustler, has made another change in management. Chas. A. Fitch, a first-class job printer and all around newspaper man has purchased the interest of J. C. Oliver, and the paper will be conducted under the firm name of Moore & Fitch, editors and proprietors. The Examiner wishes the new management success.

Cholera Infantum.

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle, and a cure is certain. For sale by Beall's Drug Store.
