

No Turkey Ranches Here.

B. Huntington of Yoncalla, who has been looking over Lake and Klamath Counties, returned Thursday and took the evening train for home. He thinks there is some fine country east of Goose Lake, but they have their troubles there over a sufficiency of water. He says there they have to ditch to get water on the ground, and in his own section they ditch to get it off. Then it seems inconvenient to see them haul wood ten miles, pine at that, whereas at his home there is plenty of good hard wood right at hand. On the whole, he likes his old farm better. Mr. Huntington is known along the line as the man who formerly shipped so many turkeys from the Yoncalla country.—Ashland Town Talk Leaving water and wood out of it altogether this would not be the country for Mr. Huntington's business. There is no room here for turkeys. The turkey is all right in his place, about four times a year. But this is the land where we raise fat steers and mutton, articles that are in demand three hundred and sixty-five days in the year to keep the people of the world in good humor. No, this country wouldn't do for turkeys or turkey ranchers. If Mr. Huntington had looked about him he would have found an abundance of "fine country" north, south, west—and every place in Lake county.

The President's Neckties.

President Roosevelt's neckties are growing louder and louder. He has adopted one that is pronounced by callers at the temporary White House to be the most strenuous piece of haberdashery ever seen upon a Chief Magistrate. It is a large puff, and its most audible tints are red, yellow, green and blue—not to mention a scattering of browns and grays, with here and there a little violet and a suspicion of silver glint. When he first put it on, a few days ago, he called Secretary Cortelyou into his office for the purpose of dictating an important letter. Between paragraphs the Secretary gazed spellbound at the rainbow beneath the president's determined chin. "What's the matter?" asked the President, as he noticed the preoccupation of his right-hand man. "Oh nothing, only the necktie," replied Mr. Cortelyou, shading his eyes from the dazzling glare. "Isn't it a dandy?" exclaimed the President, smiling with happy pride. "I like a tie that is a little pronounced, but I can't bear the idea of anything loud."

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

145 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thayer's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

Killing Jackrabbits.

Tom Murray, who came in from Quin River Crossing this afternoon, has been for two months engaged in the somewhat novel occupation of killing jackrabbits on salary, says the Winnemucca Silver State. He has been employed on the Miller & Lux ranches, on which the jacks were so numerous as to threaten the destruction of the alfalfa crop. Mr. Murray is a sure shot with firearms of any kind. He used a .22-caliber rifle in the slaughter of the rabbits, and every cartridge which went into the gun represented one less of the pests. This method of getting rid of them was somewhat expensive, but nevertheless proved a good investment for the firm through saving the hay crop. During his two months' work or sport, whichever it may be called, Mr. Murray killed several thousand rabbits and holds the state championship in this particular line of extermination.

The Best Liniment for Strains.

Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by Beall's Drug Store.

A Poor Millionaire.

Lately starved in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of Dr. King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach, aid digestion, promote assimilation, improve appetite. Price 25c. Money back if not satisfied. Sold by Lee Beall druggist.

requires physical and mental ability of a high degree to withstand its hard labors. The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, has a depressing effect, and soon headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. Such was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweinhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says: "An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pins that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to give Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nerve Plasters a trial. In three days I was again on my route and in two weeks I was free from pain and gaining in flesh and strength." Sold by all Druggists. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
