

LACONICS.

J. N. Watson came in from Sprague river Tuesday.

Mrs. Perry Stanley is visiting the family of O. L. Stanley, down the valley.

Mrs. C. A. Knox went out to her West Side homestead this week to do a little farming.

Attorney Dalrymple returned Monday from a professional visit in the Silver Lake section.

H. W. Spangler, stockman of Long valley, was here this week and went to Crooked creek to buy sheep.

Tom Little, who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, was able to be about town one day this week.

Fred Fletcher arrived from Surprise valley this week to take charge of the Lakeview-Plush stage line for McNaughton.

W. A. Sherlock left for Klamath Falls last Tuesday to meet Mrs. Sherlock and Mrs. Burrus, who are returning from an extended visit in Portland.

We are informed that Dave Eder of Lake county has bought several ranches southeast of Bonanza and will stock them with 30,000 sheep.—Klamath Republican.

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Bloss & Lightly, printers of Alturas, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price.

S. E. Martin and wife and Mrs. E. B. Ramsby of Merrill were in town Saturday and left Monday morning in company with Carey Ramsby and wife for a ten days outing at Spring Creek.—Klamath Express.

Miss Frankie Smith came up from Alturas last Sunday evening on a brief visit with her brother, Fent Smith. She returned to Alturas Tuesday morning. Miss Smith has been teaching school in Los Angeles for several years.

G. W. Jones, Superintendent of the State Asylum for the Blind, will make an official visit to Lakeview within a few weeks. Mr. Jones has written to friends in Lakeview of his intention, and expects to reach here before September 1st.

WANTED 5 YOUNG MEN from Lake County at once to prepare for Positions in the Government Service—Railway Mail Clerks, Letter Carriers, Custom House and Departmental Clerks, etc. Apply to Inter-State Corres. Inst., Cedar Rapids, Ia. 2 mo.

The Annual Teachers' Institute for Lake County will be held in Lakeview on the 2d, 3d and 4th of September. President B. F. Mulkey, of the Southern Oregon State Normal, Ashland, will be here to conduct the proceedings of the Institute.

All but one of the teachers for the next term of the Lakeview public school have been selected. J. Q. Willets will be principal and Miss Pearl Hall will teach the primary. Miss Grace Driver and Miss Ella Callahan will each have a department, and the other teacher will soon be selected.

It is reported that construction of the proposed railroad from Coos Bay will begin September 1. Work on terminal grounds near Marshfield has already commenced. Let it be remembered that this new line, enroute to Salt Lake City, will pass through Klamath county.—Klamath Republican.

Jackson Square is one of the famous localities of New York. The "Jackson Square" in Lakeview is one of the famous nickel cigars sold exclusively by Ahlstrom Bros. This firm also has exclusive sale of the fragrant "Instructor," also carries the ever famous Belmont. 3m

Mrs. John Doten left Alturas last week for Klamath Falls and Yreka to secure evidence in her claims against the government for depredations committed by the Indians during the Modoc war. The losses of Doten, Fairchild and Dorris Bros. were very heavy, their herds affording the Indians food for six months. Their claims are just and should be paid.—Plalndender.

Gus Schroder arrived from Silver Lake last Thursday and stopped over here a few days to visit his friends, before starting for Phoenix, Arizona. Gus goes to Arizona to remain a few months for the benefit of his health, which has been failing for some time. His many friends in Lake county hope to see him return fully restored to the best gift of Nature—robust health.

The Palace (George & Fent's place) is becoming the smokers' emporium. The excellent brands of cigars carried there are the "Belmont," the "Robert Mantel," and a new cigar made for the exclusive trade of the Palace, the "Key West Quartett." This is an extra fine article. 24-3m

The latest: Mr. Tracy is heading for Lake county. The very latest: He is dead.

J. M. Willey and J. L. Clark and family returned from Deep Creek Tuesday evening.

L. G. Thomas, Jonas Norin, Ole Sunstrom and Pete Enquist, a quartet of woolgrowers, were in from camp last week on a few days' visit.

On another page The Examiner states that the Modoc and Susanville fairs open this month. It should say, Susanville Sept. 8, and Alturas Sept. 15.

Verne Adkins and Miss Georgie Cummings were married in Alturas last Saturday evening. The bride is a daughter of John W. Cummings, the popular business man of Alturas.

Billy Rhodes, who worked on the ZX ranch and recently on the Myers place near Paisley, went to Musgrave's hot springs resort in a carriage on July 25th. He could not walk, being sorely afflicted with rheumatism, which he has been troubled with for ten years. He took the tub and steam baths for eight days and then walked away a well man. This, Mr. Rhodes will certify to. 31-2t

Dan Reeder left today for Quincy, Illinois, on a visit with relatives. He will visit Chicago, St. Louis and other cities, and upon his return to Lakeview will open a swell restaurant.

A bunch of 700 head of ZX beef cattle were driven through the valley last Saturday enroute to the railroad. The stock will be taken to one of the company's ranches in the Sacramento valley.

O. A. Hasting, lessee of the John Barrington garden and orchard, grows the best of vegetables and fruits. Mr. Hasting comes to Lakeview three times a week, and you can place your orders ahead and they will receive prompt attention. The fruit season is now opening. Hasting will furnish you with the finest of orchard product, and always carries in his wagon a full supply of vegetables. 31-3t.

L. B. Whorton suffered a light stroke of paralysis one day last week, but recovered sufficiently to be attending to business Tuesday. The part affected was the left leg from the knee down.

I. F. and L. F. Castle who have been on an extended trip through Eastern Oregon, arrived from Crook county Monday. The gentlemen are big buyers of cattle and are here for that purpose. They are looking at Heryford Bros. beef this week.

Remember, J. E. Bernard & Son have the largest and most complete stock of Stoves and Ranges ever brought to Lakeview. Why not call and see their stock before buying of foreign agents. They will sell you a stove or anything they have in stock, and take your grain at market price. They can give you as good and as easy terms and a better value for your money than traveling agents can. 30-2

F. E. Walker, the new proprietor of the Plush merchandise store, was a business visitor in Lakeview this week. Walker is a rustler from Rustlerville, and is building up a good trade. He deserves it, too, because he's a good fellow.

E. T. Bernard and Frank Duke returned from Madeline Tuesday with a string of twenty-four Studebaker wagons and buggies. The vehicles are as fine as were ever turned out of a manufactory, and are sold on easy terms. Those in need of wagons or buggies will save money by calling on J. E. Bernard & Son.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Grob and Mr. and Mrs. George Whorton and children, left Tuesday morning for Ashland by private conveyance. Mr. Grob will remain in Jackson county visiting his parents for a few weeks, and Mrs. Grob will also visit there for a time, and then go to Southern California to live for a year, for the benefit of her health. Mr. and Mrs. Whorton will visit relatives and friends at Eugene and other points, thence to Portland, and from there to Republic, Washington to visit Mrs. Whorton's sisters, the Misses Combs. They will be absent two months.

Boy Cured of Colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.
