

Local Happenings Told in Paragraphs

Ashland will sprinkle her streets. They have water over there.

A Chico man died the other day after eating heartily of cucumbers.

Arthur Hill was over from Warner last week on a few days' business visit.

The family of N. A. King of Portland are at Paisley for a few weeks, the guests of Mrs. Nettie Sherlock.

G. W. Harris, a passenger conductor on the O. R. & N. Railway, arrived here from Portland last Wednesday evening.

T. J. Brattain, the veteran Republican and esteemed citizen of Chewaucan, was a business visitor in Lakeview last week.

Whisky—More whisky—"Jesse Moore" Whisky—the best. Ask Jammertal.

W. A. Wilshire returned from Bly last week, accompanied by Mrs. Wilshire, who has been on an extended visit at Portland.

Geo. H. Ayres, A. F. Tonningson and F. B. Evans returned last Thursday from Ashland, where they went on Masonic business.

Mike Culkeen and J. L. Clark, timber cruisers of the Des Chutes and Silver Lake section, spent a few days in Lakeview last week.

The drilling plant of the Southern Oregon Oil Company, of Ashland, was destroyed by fire last week. The origin of the fire is a mystery. Loss, $2500.

The Smokers' Emporium—Beall's, where only the best grades of cigars can be found. For a fine smoke everybody goes to Beall's. 18 ft

The Post says that W. L. Flack is running the big haying crew on the Chewaucan Land and Cattle Co.'s ranch on the marsh. About 50 men are at work there.

The weather? Oh, it's all right. Millions of people would give a good deal to enjoy such weather as the people of Lake county are favored with in August.

Robt. McKee, of the Lakeview Mercantile Co., went to San Francisco last week with his horse, which will undergo an operation for a cancerous growth on the neck.

Everybody has read "Tom Payne," but unless you smoke the "Tom Payne" cigar at the Brewery saloon you cannot get the right inspiration. 24 3m

Mrs. E. M. Brattain, and the Mesdames John Best and Asa Best, of Seattle, Washington, who have been visiting the former, went to Modoc county last week on a visit with relatives.

Henry Egll has driven a bunch of horses, 200 in number, weight ranging from 1000 to 1600 lbs., to Yreka, Cal., where the animals were placed on sale last week.

John Foster will start for Salem about the first of September to purchase another registered bull, and attend the state fair. Mr. Foster finds ready sale for his registered calves.—Paisley Post.

The next bottle of whisky you buy, resolve to try the "Jesse Moore". You've heard it was the best; prove it by practical test. Jammertal keeps it.

Hobbes from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, British Columbia, California, Idaho, Colorado, Montana and Canada are entered to race at the State Fair this fall—and it will be the greatest racing event on the circuit.

W. R. Bernard and family of the West Side, Mrs. J. E. Bernard and Mrs. W. A. Massingill of Lakeview left here last week for a camping and fishing trip on Dog lake. The party will remain out a couple of weeks, if winter don't come on before the time elapses.

F. L. Everett, representing Hubbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., one of the largest hardware firms in the world, in business at Chicago, was in Lakeview last week to visit his patrons. Mr. Everett is well and favorably known in this county, and has a big trade.

No sideboard is quite complete without a bottle of "Jesse Moore" rye or bourbon whisky. It is better than the kind you have always considered best. Ask Jammertal.

Thos. E. Bernard and family and Frank M. Duke and family left last Saturday morning with camping outfits, enroute to Fruitland, Washington. They will visit the parents and other relatives of Mesdames Duke and Bernard, and expect to be away two months.

The Examiner has double the circulation of any newspaper published in Lake County, and is consequently twice the best advertising medium in this county. Advertisers generally recognize this fact, and to those who have never thought of it, we give it as a "good pointer".

We have secured the Agency for Lakeview for the Lawrence Barrett Cigar; they are a sweet, pleasant smoke. Whorton & Smith. 29

The finest of stationery, the latest styles of job type for commercial and book printing, and a printer who knows how to turn out mechanical work, at fair prices, is an inducement to the public to call at The Examiner office for all kinds of job printing. See our samples of fancy job work.

Bob Bigelow, one of the popular boys of the range section, was in Lakeview last week. Bigelow has charge of a band of Dan Malloy's sheep, and expects to reach the "Bad Lands" next week. Bob says he proposes to act the gentleman with the opposing faction when he reaches there—if they will let him. He says he loves peace and hates discord.

Post & King have just received a big stock of everything first-class in the line of "wet goods." Their cellar is stored full of the best stock to be had on the coast. 20 ft

John P. Barker and Miss Ida Belle Quigley, daughter of pioneer J. M. Quigley, of Etna, Cal., were married in Yreka on August 6th. The Yreka Journal says the happy couple left next day on a wedding trip of a month or more, first to Klamath Hot Springs, thence to Klamath Falls and Lakeview, taking in the Southern Oregon reservation, enroute to Crater Lake, returning homeward via Medford and Ashland.

Timber land locators are swarming into Southern and Southeastern Oregon. It is said they are rushing the business of every land office in the State. A party from Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, were in the Sprague River timber belt last week selecting quarter sections of yellow pine. The party is composed of Judge W. H. Hoyte, Judge F. T. Condit, Judge T. J. Conner, Judge H. Hickey, Senator, C. K. Erwin, Col. W. C. Gentry, Capt. F. C. Hartwell, Capt. H. B. Lane, Bert Seydell, Ed Outhwait, all of Chippewa Falls; and H. S. Tyler, Deputy U. S. marshal of Washington.

If you knew that "Jesse Moore" Whisky was the best and purest on earth you'd have no other. It is the best, but we cannot prove it except you try it. Try it. Jammertal keeps it.

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Neil of Prineville arrived last week and are guests at Hotel Lakeview. Mr. O'Neil is of the firm of O'Neil Bros. & Vanderpool growers of fine sheep in Crook county. He has 1000 head of Delaines, Ramboulet and Lincoln bucks of royal breed, which he will keep here on exhibition and for sale until they are all disposed of. These bucks, from the Prineville Land & Livestock Co.'s big ranch in Crook county, are now on the road from Seian, and will reach here this week. They will be pastured at the outskirts of town, and the sheepmen of Lake county are invited to inspect them. For further particulars see advertisement on page 7.

Congressman Tongue and Professor F. H. Newell, chief hydrographer of the U. S. Geological Survey, who are with a party of Portland people on a visit to Crater Lake, will, it is said, visit both Klamath and Lake counties. Prof. Newell is on a preliminary tour of inspection in connection with the proposed national system of irrigation. The visit of these prominent gentlemen may mean a great deal to Lake county. They will receive a hearty welcome and the best attention of our people. Congressman Tongue is popular with our people, though many of them have never met him. He is the staunch and true friend of the people of all his district in a position where he can do them much good. The gentlemen will probably reach Lakeview within the next few weeks.

"El Comandante!" Who is it—what is it? Lovers of a good smoke will never ask that question, for they know. "El Comandante" is the pure weed that has made Post & King's cigar department famous. Ask once for an "El Comandante" and you will call for it always. On sale only at Post & King's, Lakeview. 24 3m
