

Local Happenings Told in Paragraphs

W. J. Froelberg, of Medford, was an arrival at the Oregon last Friday.

G. W. Wise and wife of Plush were guests at Hotel Lakeview last Tuesday and Friday.

George T. Maupin, the South Warner woolgrower, was a business visitor in Lakeview last week.

When you ask for Jesse Moore Whisky be sure you get it. Don't let anyone tell you they have something just as good.

Born—At Oregon City, Oregon, August 5, 1902, to the wife of W. K. McCormack, of Summer Lake, a daughter.

Mrs. J. G. Walters of Baker City, is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Foster, at Summer Lake.

C. W. Dent of Adel was here Thursday, and started big teams to old Ft. Warner Friday to load his wool for the railroad.

We have secured the Agency for Lakeview for the Lawrence Barrett Cigar, they are a sweet, pleasant smoke. Whorton & Smith. 29

E. A. Kober, representing Hilbert Bros., liquors, and Pacific Coast agents for the A. B. C. beer, was here last Thursday.

V. Conn, the Paisley merchant, arrived Thursday evening, and after spending a day here proceeded to San Francisco on business.

A. H. Barnum, woolgrower, was registered at The Oregon last week from the Bad Lands. Al says the boys over there look desperate.

The Smokers' Emporium—Beall's, where only the best grades of cigars can be found. For a fine smoke everybody goes to Beall's. 18 tf

W. M. Seward, of Portland, and F. Lakan and J. H. Lakan of Seattle were at Hotel Lakeview last Friday. The gentlemen were here on land business.

Reports from Klamath county are to the effect that a heavy rain storm prevailed in that county at intervals for three days last week. At Medford for the week 1 1/2 inches of rain fell.

C. J. Bixby, representing the tobacco and cigar house of the Wellman, Peck Co., San Francisco, made his initial trip to Lakeview last week. He likes the town and will come again.

Everybody has read "Tom Payne," but unless you smoke the "Tom Payne" cigar at the Brewery saloon you cannot get the right inspiration. 24-3m

Oliver Wendell Holmes has been named as the successor of Justice Gray on the United States supreme court bench, by President Roosevelt. Justice Gray resigned on account of illness.

Tom Anderson of Warner returned Thursday evening from San Francisco whether he went to escort Miss Lewis, who was visiting her sister Mrs. Clay Rambo, in Warner, last month.

Mrs. Robt. Z. Hartin arrived from Summer Lake Thursday evening. Mrs. Hartin has been at the Fgster home for some time in attendance upon her mother, who was dangerously ill.

Take no other, have no other, use no other whisky than "Jesse Moore." It's better than any other, and you can have it for the asking, but get it.

James Barry, the poet and songster of the desert, also prominent sheepman of the county, was a business visitor in Lakeview last week. Mr. Barry always has something good to tell.

Attorney L. F. Conn returned last Thursday from Portland and way stations. He accompanied Mrs. Conn to Monmouth, where she will visit with her parents and friends for two months.

Marshall Fisher left for Summer Lake last week to visit with his brother, A. H. Fisher. Marshall has not been in good health for several weeks. While laboring in the field during the hottest spell, he was overcome by the heat.

Post & King have just received a big stock of everything first-class in the line of "wet goods." Their cellar is stored full of the best stock to be had on the coast. 20-tf

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Scammon arrived from Plush last Thursday and stopped for a few days at Hotel Lakeview. Mr. Scammon has just returned from his ranch in Harney county, where he went to see about his crops. He reports a big rain in North Warner.

Last Saturday Wm. McCormack, and Alfred, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Moss, started for Portland where they will seek medical treatment. Mr. McCormack for a recent illness that came upon him and the Moss boy for rupture. John R. McCormack will accompany them to Portland.—Post

Next Saturday evening the Woodmen of the World of Paisley will hold a public reception. Rev. C. M. Smythe of Lakeview will deliver an address on the stability, beauty and delight of Woodcraft—or, in other words, his subject will be "Fraternal and Brotherly Love". It is the intention of the Paisley camp to gather in all the available timber in that district and induce them to chop wood. The affair will close with a serving of refreshments, and heart to heart talks. Let there be a big attendance. Woodcraft is worthy of the best, and there is nothing better.

When you come to town drop in at Post & King's and see the pictures and hear the beautiful music. Elegant bar and superb goods. 18 tf

The Lebanon Advance editor is about as ungallant a fellow as ever used a quill to say mean things about the girls. He's either an old dried-up bachelor, a disappointed lover, or a man who isn't afraid of his wife. He says that a woman has tried the bump in several places; first the bustle bump, then the big sleeve bump on the shoulder; then the bump moved from the shoulder to the cuff—and now—hear him: the girls and a whole lot of other females "are wearing a shirt-waist that looks as if a peck of apples had been dumped into the front." An editor who would say such a thing is no lady.

Mrs. Gladys Rachford and Miss Ruby Pinkney left here last Wednesday morning for San Francisco, says the New Era. Miss Ruby will attend the high school at Berkeley this winter, while Mrs. Rachford goes down on a visit to her mother Mrs. J. M. Thomson, who has been in San Francisco for a year or more, and her sister Miss Violet Keser, who is studying art and music at that place. Mr. J. M. Thomson and Chris Rachford are on the road with a band of mutton sheep which are being taken to the San Francisco market. Chris will return to Alturas soon and will start another band to market.

You never know what Dreamland is—you won't enjoy a smoke at all; you surely can't get the sweet aroma of a cigar until you begin using the famous Belmonts, at Hotel Lakeview Bar. 34-tf

Occasionally the electric lights play funny pranks. At Keswick, Cal., one night last week, Rev. B. F. Anderson was preaching a warm sermon to a big audience, when the lights went out. The preacher kept right on with his sermon, and when he finished he dismissed the congregation with the Benediction. The press said he held the audience's close attention to the end, but this statement is only guess work. There have been times when young lovers just delighted in seeing the lights go out—even in church. It's a safe statement to make that none but the very eldest in the audience could remember a single thing the preacher said after the lights went out.

"El Comandante!" Who is it—what is it? Lovers of a good smoke will never ask that question, for they know. "El Comandante" is the pure weed that has made Post & King's cigar department famous. Ask once for an "El Comandante" and you will call for it always. On sale only at Post & King's, Lakeview. 24 3m

"A farmer took some butter into his own town, and after trying every grocery store in the town was compelled to take his butter back home unsold. It seems that this farmer sends to Montgomery Ward, Chicago, for everything he buys, and the grocers have decided to permit him to sell Montgomery Ward his butter. And that reminds us that when the Baptist ladies of the town held their bazaar, they wrote to both Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck & Co., for a contribution. Their last letter remained unanswered, but the first elicited a reply from Montgomery Ward. He said he gave a great deal to charity, but confined his giving to his own town. Why not allow him to make his money from his own town?"—Exchange.
