

Local Happenings Told in Paragraphs

George A Smith of Summer Lake was an arrival at the Oregon Thursday.

Mrs. Smith and Miss McKenzie of Yalnox were arrivals at the Oregon Thursday.

Look out for the "Puma" Cigar—for sale at Post & King.

L. S. Greenlaw, the tombstone man from Reno, was at Hotel Lakeview last Thursday.

Roland Jacobs was an arrival at Hotel Lakeview from San Francisco, last Thursday.

Lawrence Barrett Cigar is the Talk of the Town.—Whorton & Smith.

Mrs. Joe Coleman arrived from Los Angeles last Thursday night to join her husband here.

The new register at the Oregon is filling up rapidly. The Winkleman's treat their guests well. Meals first class.

Do you smoke? If so, try a Lawrence Barrett, none better. Whorton & Smith.

W. F. Grob started Thursday for the Klamath sheep range. He is going to look after his interests in the "Bad Lands."

Johnnie Campbell, who is looking after his father's interests in the horse business at Rock Creek, came in from Warner mountains last week.

We have been appointed Distributors for the Famous Roseberry Cigars. Ahlstrom Bros.

Councilman Post is making some improvements at his residence. He is enlarging his home. C. P. Linebarger and Jas. Handley are the builders.

Dan Malloy started for the "Bad Lands" last Thursday. We expect to hear of "something doing" when Malloy heads his four thousand bunch for the Klamath range.

Roseberry Cigars are world beaters; they give you that exquisite feeling. Ahlstrom Bros., Agents

Mrs. John Wendel and family returned Thursday night from a visit with friends at Dunsmuir. They moved into their new home, the Loftus residence on Main street, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arzner arrived from the mountain sheep range last Friday and will take up their temporary residence in Lakeview. Mrs. Arzner has been enjoying camp life all summer.

For a bilious attack take Chamberlain's stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

The residence place recently purchased by Morris Wingfield on South Dewey street is fast being remodeled into a handsome home. Stevens & Tannehill are the architects and builders.

Charlie Lohrenz and Johnny Morris were in town from the rural district Thursday. Mr. Morris has recovered from the effects of his recent rib-breaking expedition and is again riding wild range bronchos.

The Smokers' Emporium—Beall's, where only the best grades of cigars can be found. For a fine smoke everybody goes to Beall's. 18-1f

Buyers of beef cattle in the Rogue river valley say that beef will be a shade higher this season than last. Mitchell Bros. of Ashland have contracted for several bunches at $3.50 per hundred pounds gross for top steers.

Our esteemed contemporary down the street has changed its name and is now the Lakeview Herald. Messrs. Moore & Fitch are publishing a good paper—one well worthy of patronage. Success to the old ship under the new name.

When you come to town drop in at Post & King's and see the pictures and hear the beautiful music. Elegant bar and superb goods. 18-1f

Will Steele arrived home Thursday from Ashland, where he went to meet Mrs. Steele, who has been visiting her mother and friends in Portland. Mrs. Steele enjoyed herself immensely. They will move to the Tompkins residence, opposite Beall's drug store.

When the farmer wants wagons, buggies or implements of any kind, he should buy of a home firm. The home firm spends its money at home, sells on just as easy terms, and handles superior goods. Bernard & Son of Lakeview will treat you right.

We have the Lord Roseberry Cigars in all the popular sizes. Special prices by the box; for sale only at the Monogram.

Robt. McKee and son Ted returned from San Francisco last Thursday. The surgeons at Lane's hospital in the city performed an operation on the boy, and removed a growth of some kind from his neck. Ted is feeling fine and will probably not be troubled again.

We have secured the Agency for Lakeview for the Lawrence Barrett Cigar; they are a sweet, pleasant smoke. Whorton & Smith. 20

Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon called on the "Korea" from San Francisco, last Saturday, enroute to Honolulu. Senator Mitchell is chairman of the senate sub-committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico. He and the other members of the committee will investigate the conditions there.

New drugs, new and delightful perfumes, everything for the toilet—complete spring stock fresh and pure at Beall's drug store. 18-1f

S. F. Ahlstrom continues to turn out the finest work of everything known to the trade in Eastern Oregon. His stock of harness, robes, etc., cannot be surpassed East of the Cascades. He is continually filling orders for the famous Lakeview Saddles. None genuine but Ahlstrom's.

We extend a cordial invitation to all of our friends and customers to try our Roseberry Havana cigars. Money back if not satisfactory. Ahlstrom Bros.

The wool market was very firm in Boston last week. Prices were gradually improving. Good sales in territory wool were made as follows: Fine staple, 55¢/56¢; Strictly fine, 53¢/55¢; fine and fine medium, 50¢/52¢; medium, 42¢/43¢. Fine fleece wool are higher but offerings are small. Australian wool is in small supply, with the market very firm.

A fine quality of whisky is like a fine quality of anything else. It costs a little more, but nothing is too good for Americans. Insist on having "Jesse Moore" Whisky. See Jammertal.

The Examiner takes pleasure in calling attention to the card of Capt. John Mullan, of Washington, D. C., appearing in this paper. We can recommend Capt. Mullan as a reliable attorney and agent of war veterans who may need his assistance at the National Capital. Business entrusted to him will be faithfully attended to.

Post & King have just received a big stock of everything first class in the line of "wet goods." Their cellar is stored full of the best stock to be had on the coast. 20-1f

Some important changes have been made in the speed programme, by the Fair directors, says the Alturas New Era. Several purses have been made larger, which will be appreciated by the horse owners. Two ball games have also been arranged to be played by teams to be named by the directors, the purses to be $75 each. The counties included in the district this year are: Lake and Klamath counties, Oregon, and Modoc, Lassen, Plumas and Sierra counties, California.

An old-fashioned toddy—either hot or cold—is a great drink if made of Jesse Moore Whisky. A little sugar, a little water, then the pure stuff—"Jesse Moore" Whisky. Call on Jammertal.

The "Oregonian's" Washington correspondent of the 16th inst. says: "Word has been received here of the announcement in Lucerne, Switzerland, of the engagement of Miss Sera R. Gilfray, of Portland, elder daughter of Henry H. Gilfray, legislative clerk of the United States Senate, to H. Armor Ward, of New York. Miss Gilfray made her debut in Washington two winters ago, and with her mother and sister has been traveling in Europe the past year. The wedding will take place in London in the autumn, when Mr. Gilfray will be with his family. Miss Gilfray is the niece of senator Clark, of Montana." Miss Gilfray is also a niece of George L. Gilfray, ex-Commissioner of Lake county, who now resides in Lane county.
